FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVE

WELCOME TO THE ST. BRIDGET'S BLOCK PARTY WEEKEND

A hearty welcome to our 2022 St. Bridget's Block Party. Thank you for joining us for an evening of fun and food.

If you are reading this on or before Saturday, you have a wonderful selection of choices for the evening activities beginning with a scrumptious Turkey Dinner with all the fixins', including our world famous pumpkin bars. If that menu is too heavy, there is always the Concession Stand with Hot Dogs, Burgers, Brats and other yummy treats. While you dine and socialize throughout the evening can listen to the music of the group A Hard Days Night featuring an intro of Buddy Holly songs and lots of Beatles tunes. If you brought the kids or grandkiddos, we have a bunch of Kids Games and two big inflatables for their enjoyment. The Knights of Columbus will be happy to slake your thirst with a variety of alcoholic beverages at their Beer Tent. For homemade foods and produce, there is the Farmer's Market. If you are feeling lucky, you might want to purchase a collection of Raffle Tickets. The largest of the cash prizes is $1,000. And finally, we have the Silent Auction which runs until 1:00pm on Sunday. The bidding is online - accessed through the parish website. You can view the varied selection of auction items online, or in person in the Social Hall.

The last three activities: Farmer's Market, Raffle Tickets and Silent Auction are all available to you not only Saturday night, but also throughout the course of Sunday Morning. Whatever activities you choose to take part in, thanks for your support of the parish and have a great Labor Day Weekend! – Fr. Dave

Let us pray for the people of the Ukraine as they continue to suffer the pains of war. We pray especially for those who stand guard at the nuclear plant that they may be strengthened in their resolve to keep the peace. We pray for all Ukrainian refugees as they flee their homeland. Let us pray for families that are divided as fathers and brothers and sons go off to fight.

Over the past three years, I have worked with missionaries from Catholic Heart Work Camp, the National Evangelization Team (NET), and more recently, the missionaries from Damascus of Ohio. Catholic Heart Work Camp has been responsible for setting up our very fruitful mission trips, and the NET Team has continually delivered knockout punches, as they promise to do again this year for our middle school and high school retreats right here on our own home court. They do this along with hosting numerous masses and training events for youth ministers at the NET Center in West St. Paul. Damascus, for the last two years has been in charge of our Catholic Youth Summer Camp (formerly known as Extreme Faith Camp). The name has changed, but not the philosophy. They combine high adventure while plunging our youth into the many aspects of our Catholic faith. For the purpose of this column, I will concentrate on Damascus, for although they have been in Minnesota for less than two years, they really wish to become a factor in the lives of our youth, and have definitely hit the ground running. They are in the process, along with the Archdiocese, of trying to secure a parcel of land to build a permanent camp within the Twin Cities metropolitan area. With the price of gas, how awesome is that.

So why Damascus? St. Paul, when he encountered the living God on the road to Damascus, was awakened, empowered, and equipped to spread the Gospel of Jesus. That is what the Damascus Catholic Summer Youth Camp is all about, a place of encounter where generations are awakened, empowered, and equipped to live the adventure of their Catholic faith.

That's all well and good, but why do I bring it up now? Here's the hitting the ground running part. Damascus is initiating the Youth Leadership Institute. Their goal is to form high school students to be the next level leaders that the Church so desperately needs, and it's not only for the future, but for the Church of today. Through the Youth Leadership Institute, the youth will be equipped for mission through a foundation of daily prayer and relationship with Jesus, monthly formation on how to live the lifestyle of Jesus and grow in the work of mission, and develop a mission project in their parish, their school, their family or their community.

Wait till you hear the commitment part. It will involve nine Sunday evenings throughout the upcoming school year. Formation nights will be held at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in West St. Paul with a starting time of 7:00 PM. There are two major expectations for the youth, first, that they will attend all nine formation sessions, and secondly, that they will complete the yearly mission without counting the cost, because the project may or may not require extra time outside of class on Sunday nights. "Wow" right? Damascus is asking a lot, but I guess if you don't ask, you don't get. Let's hope and pray that they do get, that some of our youth may see the light that Paul saw on the road to Damascus.
