WELCOME HOME

THE ABUNDANT HARVEST BY FATHER WALTER NOLTE

A NOTE FROM FR. JAMROG:

This past weekend I received Ordination to the Sacred Priesthood. During the Ordination Mass, I received the sacred Chrism on my hands, signifying that my hands have been set apart to sanctify the Body of Christ. In a lot of ways, this moment is unforgettable; I felt the Holy Spirit rush over me giving me an incredible desire to give my life to the Lord to build up the Church.

On Pentecost Sunday I celebrated my First Mass of Thanksgiving with you and for you in front of my parents, family, and numerous priests. After the Mass, several people have told me that it was one of the most beautiful Masses that they have ever experienced; between seeing our beautiful Church, listening to the amazing Cathedral choir, and hearing Fr. Holdren's homily, it was truly an unforgettable experience. It brings me immense joy knowing that I was able to share this joy with so many people, especially our parish family. From the depths of my heart, I am extremely grateful to Fr. Nolte for being a true father to me and for giving me the opportunity to use the parish; additionally, I want to express my gratitude to Fr. Mishek, Fr. Cremers, the parish staff, the Women of St. Pat's, and the Knights of Columbus for helping to put on the Mass.

WORDS OF MERCY

“SPAIN: ST. TERESA OF AVILA” – FR. NICHOLAS MISHEK

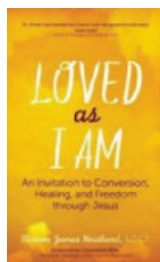

After Portugal, we travelled through Spain on our way to France. We stopped at several holy sites throughout Spain, and one of the stops included one of my favorite saints, St. Teresa of Avila. Being one of the few women given the title of Doctor of the Church, she is an expert on the spiritual life and reformed the Carmelite order into the powerhouse of prayer that it is today. She was a head-strong woman and when she put her mind to something, she got it done. For example, her father disapproved of her going to religious life, but she ran away and entered the Carmel without his approval and only after some time did her father accept her decision.

When she entered Carmel, Teresa lived a very comfortable life. They had relaxed their rule of life and because of her family’s wealthy status she received many perks. She lived like that for 20 years and at the age of fifty she had a deeper conversion and was given a mission to reform the Order. God used her charm, wit, and determination to bring the Order back to its roots. It is never too late to accept God’s call and change the world.

BOOK REVIEW

“LOVED AS I AM” –
By Sr. Miriam James
Heidland

Sr. Miriam’s middle school years were typical – feelings of insecurity driving her to seek approval of others. Wearing a mask to hide her real feelings and thoughts. The desire to belong is hard-wired into us because God created us. To satisfy this need for relationship in ways that can’t fulfill us (outside of God) creates harm and conflict. Although receiving catechesis and the sacraments she had a broken image of God – One who loves unconditionally. A view inspiring fear when one falls into sin and darkness. In watching a political show, one statement brought this reality into sharp focus, “If we don’t know where we came from and where we are going, we will be easily manipulated” (pg. 3-4.) Why in a society with an abundant wealth and pleasures is there an increase of suicides, violence and addictions? Why was Jesus able to endure emotional and physical sufferings yet love in extraordinary circumstances? Jesus knew who He was. Jesus never had an identity crisis! Jesus shows us how to live as loved children of God - created in His image and likeness.

LOOKING FOR A FATHER'S DAY GIFT?

Successful Fathers: The Subtle but Powerful Ways Fathers Mold Their Children's Characters by James Stenson. This booklet gives men much-needed directions on problems that fathers face and reveals twelve commandments of successful fathers: how good fathers raise their children well. Veteran educator James Stenson shows how to defuse adolescent boys' defiance and how to form positive father-daughter relationships. Best of all, he details what fathers must do — and not do — in order to instill religious faith in their children.

SAINT HIGHLIGHT: JUNE 13 – ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA, PRIEST AND DOCTOR

“Tony, Tony, come on down. Something’s lost and can’t be found.” Grandmothers hand on this prayer for when we lose something. The “Tony” of this little prayer refers to St. Anthony of Padua, who is the patron saint of lost items. The reason for the prayer is because he prayed for the return of a Book of Psalms that was stolen from him. In the 13th century, books were very expensive due to the cost of reproducing them, which was by hand. The book was eventually returned to him.

St. Anthony is known for more than just this prayer. He was a Franciscan friar who became a powerful preacher and was even called the Evangelical Doctor. He was the first Franciscan to teach other Franciscans, with the permission of St. Francis of Assisi, and was renowned for his knowledge of Scripture and theology.

St. Anthony is also portrayed holding the child Jesus. There is a legend that Jesus appeared to St. Anthony in the form of a child. However, the image can also be a reminder that St. Anthony is a true follower of St. Francis, who loved Jesus so much to originate the first Christmas crèche. Another reason for the image is that St. Anthony presents the Incarnate Word of God, Jesus, to the whole world through his powerful preaching.

Losing objects is unfortunate and can even be devastating. But even more devastating is the loss of heaven. As the novena to St. Anthony says, “Let me rather lose all things than lose God, my supreme good. Let me never suffer the loss of my greatest treasure, eternal life with God. Amen.”

FORMING OUR YOUTH

FEASTING ON OUR FAITH

LORI KISBY
DIRECTOR OF YOUTH FORMATION

"Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near."
Mark 13:28

While it's not "officially" summer yet, summer break for the kiddos is well underway. Here are some activities to do as a family to keep Jesus in the center of your activities.

How about head out on your bikes and ride to the beautiful fountain in the center of Midland University's campus. While you are there, talk about the gift God has given us in the Sacrament of Baptism. Before you leave, have everyone pray for something on their hearts. When you get home, have a snack with honey. Remind your kiddos that John the Baptist baptized Jesus. As you having your snack tell you children that bread and honey is mostly what John the Baptist would have eaten.

Since next weekend is Father's Day, put out some art supplies to make all of the special men in your child's life Father's Day cards. While you are making cards for dad, grandpa, etc., have your children also make cards for Fr. Nolte, Fr. Mishek and Fr. Cremers. Have your children thank them for the leadership roles they provide for our parishes.

The first day of summer will be June 21st. Start planning an outdoor get together with friends. While you plan the food and decorations, have your kiddos help plan an outdoor treasure hunt for your guests to complete. For instance, since St. Anthony is the patron of Lost Articles, maybe have them list things to be found outside. Some of the items might include a maple leaf, a dandelion, a feather, or a lady bug. The treasure hunt could be clues about Jesus. Here are some possible clues:

1. Find something that was put in front of Jesus' tomb. (Rock)
2. While the word of God endures forever, this won't last long so get it while it's green. (grass)
3. Jesus is the vine but we are these. (branches)
4. A healthy tree yields a lot of these. (leaves)

Have a great time as a family this summer. Stay tuned for more ideas in the future!

WHAT A WEEK!

What an awesome week the youth and adults had last week at Totus Tuus! More than sixty youth experienced a growth in their prayer life which included learning more about the luminous mysteries.

The Totus Tuus for Tots (4-5 yr. old) teachers, taught our "tots" about the Lord's Prayer, the rosary as well as using "Prayer Bear" to help them learn different things to tell Jesus.

Our school aged youth also learned about prayer and focused on the luminous mysteries. Through skits, songs, games as well as adoration, they developed a deeper understanding into their faith.

Stay tuned to next week for pictures and highlights of this awesome week!

KEEP CYSC PARTICIPANTS IN YOUR PRAYERS

This Saturday, June 18th, 38 youth and 11 chaperones will be heading to Centerburg, Ohio for a week at Catholic Youth Summer Camp (CYSC). The families of the youth and chaperones had a potluck recently to learn about the trip as well as get to know one another.

While at camp, the campers will experience high adventure activities, skits, praise and worship as well as an opportunity to develop lifelong friendships and faith experiences. The week will end on Friday, June 24th, with a mass at 11:15 a.m. If you would like to be a part of the Mass, you may tune into the Damascus You Tube channel and watch it live-streamed.

Please keep all of the campers in your prayers this week for safe travels as well as growing closer to our Heavenly Father.

HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR YOUTH FROM 2021-2022

During this summer, we are going to highlight the wonderful things our youth have been doing at St. Patrick, St. Lawrence and St. Rose this past school year. This week we are featuring Bergan's Peer Ministers. They began the year by attending a retreat at Camp Rivercrest. Through games, music, prayer and Mass, the Peer Ministers were able to grow in their faith to share with the other youth at Bergan!

HOLY TRIVIA

Here is a little humor for you....

A priest was speaking to a group of second-graders about the resurrection of Jesus when one student asked, "What did Jesus say right after He came out of the grave?" The priest explained that the Gospels do not tell us what He said. The hand of one little girl shot up. "I know what He said: He said, 'Tah-dah!'"

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth."
—John 16:13

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (JOHN 16:13)

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence when you can hear His response.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Archbishop Bergan students Grace Kerkaert and Hayden Cone are traveling to Louisville, Kentucky on Sunday to compete in the National Speech and Debate Competition! They will compete in potentially 8 rounds on June 13th & 14th. Please keep them in your prayers for safe travels and continued success as they embark on this incredible achievement!

HELP NEEDED

We are looking for a group of women to take over the coordinating of the Life House dinners. Our ladies who have been coordinating this have done it for a long time and are ready to retire. We currently provide meals on Wednesdays; the first, fourth and if there is a fifth, week of each month.

What I am hoping to do is get a group of ladies to take a couple months of the year to make the menus and call the ladies of the church to bring the items to be served those weeks of the month.

This is a Works of Mercy we have been performing since Life House (Care Corps) started. If you find it in your heart to help with the mission, please call me. Lynnette Sellon 402-721-0168

SACRED HEART OF JESUS CHRIST

Friday, June 24th is the Feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our Lord appeared to St. Margaret Alacoque making 12 promises for those who respond and try to return to His Love. The 12th promise: for those who will receive Holy Communion on the First Fridays of nine consecutive months they will have the grace of final perseverance, not die without the sacraments and His Sacred Heart will be their safe refuge at the last moment. The requirements for first Friday devotion is to attend Mass, receive Communion and go to Confession. His other promises: graces necessary for their state of life; peace in their homes; comfort in afflictions; strength during life and death; blessings for their undertakings; infinite mercy for sinners; tepid souls shall grow fervent; fervent souls shall reach high perfection; blessings for places exposing and honoring the image of His Heart; priests receive the gift of touching hardened hearts, and for those promoting this devotion their names written in His Heart.
