WELCOME HOME

THE ABUNDANT HARVEST BY FATHER WALTER NOLTE

“The first thing that is striking about this gospel passage is the fact that there are 72 disciples whom Jesus sends out on mission. We can have an image of Jesus strolling around Galilee with just a small group of followers but this passage makes it clear that a significant number of people were engaged in his ministry. And the gospel writer has not just made an error in naming 72 rather than the Twelve because just one chapter earlier the Twelve were sent out. This sending out to mission is a significant element of the gospel of Luke. The first sending of the Twelve represents the mission to the Jews—the 12 tribes of Israel are frequently used symbolically to represent all of the Jewish people. The sending of the 72 then represents the mission beyond the Jewish people to all nations and all people.” By Greg Sunter

As you are aware, the “Big Goal” of our Archdiocese is to create within our parishes clear pathways of discipleship for souls at any level of belief. This is a daunting task, especially if we expect solely priest, deacons, and parish staff to accomplish it. This is our task as a body of faith. How we live the gospel message makes a difference. We are sent on mission out into the world from every Mass we attend. We are sent to be voices of love and unity. We are sent to be hands of healing and help. We are sent to be souls animated by the Eucharist who live lives that attract others to Jesus Christ. How well we live this is dependent upon how much we allow the Holy Spirit to influence what we say and what we don’t say, and what we do and don’t do. We are the “72” sent out into the world armed with the power of Jesus’ love for us. We don’t need anything else.

I will be in Houston this weekend baptizing my newest great nephew, Levi Lewis. Please pray for my safe travel and return. Most especially, pray that he will be a great and holy saint. Next week I will share information about our experience at Catholic Summer Youth Camp and reveal our plans to return next summer.

Peace,

Father Nolte

AWESOME RECORD!!

We were already well aware of the remarkable accomplishments of the young men in the 2022 Archbishop Bergan graduating class. As we have in the past (non-Covid years), a couple of our Knights of Columbus members spoke to the soon-to-be-graduates, encouraging them to join our Council and continue practicing the Catholic principles instilled in them during their years at Bergan. This year, we have had 7 men step up and commit to joining our council, thereby setting a new standard that will be difficult for future graduating classes to beat. What a testimony to the benefits of a Catholic education and to the excellence of the Bergan Schools!

In addition, any and all current First Degree KC's are encouraged to attend and become Third Degree Knights. Please attend their exemplification ceremony on July 16, 2022 at 6 pm in our church (after Mass) as well as the reception that follows in Delaney Hall where you can congratulate them in person. Please call Lanny at 402-720-3018 if questions.

WORDS OF MERCY

POWER TO HEAL – FIVE STEP PRAYER MODEL – FR. BILL CREMERS

For Refiner's Fire, we are going through the series "Power to Heal" by Randy Clark. What follows is a paraphrased summary of the second section, "Pray" (study guide, page 45).

As you learn about the five-step prayer model, you are being given a starting point. Do not turn this into a formula or law. You will quickly discover that God frequently operates outside of the parameters we set for Him.

Interview: Briefly interview the person who is requesting healing prayer. Be attentive and gentle. What would you like prayer for? Did something else happen at this time? What level is the pain at?

Prayer selection: Decide what type of prayer is most appropriate given the person and their needs. Petition – a request to heal, addressed to God, or Command – Addresses a condition of the body or troubling spirit directly in the name of Jesus.

Prayer ministry – Move and operate in the Spirit as you pray for the person briefly and confidently. Keep your eyes open to see how they respond.

Reinterview and continue praying – Celebrate all signs of progress if something happens! Bless what God is doing and ask for even more. If nothing happens yet, continue to pray and encourage the person that sometimes healing takes time.

Post-prayer suggestions – Encourage the person to have perseverance and gratitude, and always let the person know of God's love for them.

"LOVED AS I AM" – By Sr. Miriam James Heidland

God creates us in His image and likeness but also for a purpose in this time. Allowing God's grace to heal and restore us equips us to love others. God makes us for relationship and communion so it hurts when a loved one dies, betrays or leaves us. When relationships are fulfilling, we are happy but if disordered and broken we experience sadness. Jesus confirmed that divorce was not part of the divine purpose for marriage though Moses allowed it by law (Mt 19:8.) Perfect harmony existed prior to the fall between Adam and Eve with no fear of losing each other or desire to use the other. They knew each other intimately. True intimacy comes from knowing and being known by the other. God created us with this desire. Youth seek to be known whether by a parent, a friend or teacher. God desires that we come to know Him as Father who will never abandon or hurt us. When we fail each other, God does not cause our suffering but God can transform our brokenness like Jesus' wounds that became redemptive.

"MAP OF LIFE" by Frank Sheed Considered one of Frank Sheed's best books, A Map of Life is also one of the best and most popular short summaries of the Catholic Faith ever written. Focusing on the major truths of our existence and purpose in life, Sheed draws on God's revelation to show what the Divine "master plan" is for us and how each part of the plan is related.

SAINT HIGHLIGHT: ST. THOMAS, APOSTLE

St. Thomas was one of the twelve Apostles, men who were sent out to evangelize and catechize. We know about him primarily from the gospels, especially the Gospel of John where he is described as doubting the Resurrection. And yet, when Jesus appears to the Eleven on the Sunday after the Resurrection, Thomas is awestruck, saying: "My Lord and my God," which connects with the very first verse of John's gospel: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." Thomas's declaration of faith leads to Jesus' response: "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed" (Jn 20:29).

"Doubting Thomas" is the consummate modern person. He decided not to believe unless he could see. That very well may describe many of us in our modern age. We have been conditioned to not accept those things which cannot be proven to our satisfaction. We have transferred our faith from belief in that which cannot be seen, touched, tasted, smelled, or heard—spiritual realities—to faith in that which can be experienced by our senses.

However, seeing is not believing; it is seeing. Can we 'see' love? or hope? or courage? or perseverance? No, we 'see' people expressing those realities in their words or actions. "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen" (Heb 11:1). "Believing Thomas" is our model; the man who professed belief in Jesus as Lord and God. We are the ones "who have not seen and have believed." We need to maintain and share our faith by our words and actions so that others may 'see' Christ in us.

FORMING OUR YOUTH

FEASTING ON OUR FAITH

LORI KISBY
DIRECTOR OF YOUTH FORMATION

"Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17

Happy 4th of July! We live in a wonderful country. As the bible verse says above, because of the Spirit of the Lord, we are able to have our freedom.

In preparation of celebrating our freedom, using decorations that are Christian can be simple with some well-known phrases. Here are some wonderful ideas from the website, "Catholic Icing".

One way is to take patriotic colored beads with letters on them. Use the beads to make necklaces or bracelets that say "In God We Trust", "One Nation Under God" or "God Shed His Grace on Thee." This will give your children a way to witness while they are celebrating our freedom.

Another activity is to have your child trace his/her hand on construction paper. On the palm, write, "I can pray for my community". On each finger, have your child think of something he/she could pray about in our community.

One last idea is in regard to saints. Did you know that each state has their own saints? I sure didn't. The saints of Nebraska are Anna Bentivoglio and Katharine Drexel. There are videos to watch on You Tube under Christian Kids TV. Another fun way to celebrate Nebraska's saints is to copy off a picture of each of them. On a piece of cardstock, paste the picture of one of the saints. Next, get some red, white and blue tissue paper, glue and a pencil. Cut little squares out of each color. Take one of the pieces, wrap it around the eraser of the pencil, dip it in glue and glue it next to the picture. Continue doing this until you have framed the picture. This would look so cute on your door to greet people as well as give your children a chance to explain the saints of Nebraska!

God Bless the U.S.A.!

HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR YOUTH FROM 2021-2022

During this summer, we are going to highlight the wonderful things are youth have been doing at St. Patrick, St. Lawrence and St. Rose this past school year. This week we are featuring our "saints" the Confirmation youth.

Faith Formation youth had over sixty guests... they were our Confirmation youth, who attend Bergan or Faith Formation classes, who presented on their chosen saint for confirmation.

In preparation for Confirmation, the youth were asked to pick a saint whom they would like to model their lives after. Youth were encouraged to explore their areas of interest as well as someone they greatly admire to decide which saint will be their Confirmation name. The students wrote a report on the "Top 10 Things" they learned about their saint. The information was included on a poster board to help with their presentation. They were also asked to put together a costume that looked like their chosen

DAMASCUS CATHOLIC YOUTH SUMMER CAMP

The excitement of the youth in the picture says it all! For one whole week, 36 youth; grades 6th grade through juniors, 2 priests and 9 chaperones; were able to experience "high adventures" and grow in His love. The youth, and yes, even the adults, climbed rock walls, played archery tag, completed ropes courses, attended "club", adoration, Mass and small group discussions. The best part of these activities is everything was tied into your faith.

The adventure doesn't end in Centerburg, Ohio. At the last small group discussion, the youth were assigned a Prayer Pal. This is another youth in their small groups who they will keep in contact weekly. The partners will be holding each other accountable for each other's prayer life as well as studying the Bible. How cool is that idea!

TOTUS TUUS

Meet the "High School - Aged Youth" for Totus Tuus. These youth will be in 7th Grade through 12th

Grade this coming school year. The Totus Tuus Leaders lead the youth in games, talks, small group discussions, adoration as well as gave the youth an opportunity for confessions. The week was culminated with supper/pool party at Paul and Mary Glowacki's home.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...'" (LUKE 10:2)

As Catholics we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given "charisms" otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God's Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say "yes" to what God is calling you to do and then do it!

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATES

The Seven Sisters Apostolates serves in any parish with women who pledge to offer a Holy Hour exclusively for the pastor (or associate priest) once a week. What do I need to do?

- Commit to pray one hour of a specific day each week for a year.
- Pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament in adoration or in front of the tabernacle.
- Offer the time only for the intention of the priest for whom you are assigned to pray.

If you would like to fill this need, call Jeanne Boesch at (402)720-3278. For more information, go to <https://sevensistersapostolate.org>.

FATHERS AND SONS— TOGETHER FOREVER A retreat for fathers and their sons, ages 11-16

You are invited to the 18th annual fathers and sons retreat, at the St. Benedict Retreat Center in Schuyler, on August 6-7, from Saturday at 8:00 am until Sunday noon. Themes explored this weekend in light of the Catholic faith are: our identity as father and son, the father-son bond, becoming a man, communicating from the heart, living our Catholic faith, relating to peers, and vocations as a father and a son: our response to God's call.

Total cost for the retreat is $179.66, which includes meals, materials and overnight stay. For more information, contact Ed DeSimone, retreat leader, at (402)679-1841 or send an email to:
