A Message from Father Andrie: Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Pope Francis celebrated the funeral of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI last week. Here is an overview of this beautiful man's life. Joseph Ratzinger was born in 1927, the youngest of three children. His father was a policeman and his mother was a hotel cook. He had two older siblings: a brother Georg and a sister Maria with whom he remained close throughout his life. When he was six years old, the Nazis came to power in Germany (1933). His staunchly Catholic parents were hostile to the regime. Joseph entered the seminary at age 12. Unfortunately, he was forced to join the Hitler Youth two years later in 1941. He and his brother deserted the youth movement in April 1945 wherein he resumed his priestly formation.

After his ordination to the priesthood in 1951, Fr. Ratzinger engaged in pastoral work for a short time. Additionally, he earned a doctorate in theology at the University of Munich in 1957. His intellectual brilliance drew the attention of Cardinal Josef Frings of Cologne, who asked him to serve as his peritus (theological expert) at the Second Vatican Council. Fr. Ratzinger was just 35 years old! The young Bavarian priest played an outsized role at the Council in that he was influential in the development of Lumen Gentium (Dogmatic Constitution on the Church) and Dei Verbum (Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation).

Oddly enough, Fr. Ratzinger was considered one of the progressive figures at the Council. He argued against those who were opposed to any changes from the pre-conciliar Church. Interestingly, as progressive theologians and priests evoked the "spirit" of the Second Vatican Council, demanding sweeping changes to Catholic doctrine and discipline following the Council, Joseph Ratzinger moved from being viewed as a progressive to a conservative as he clearly articulated the truth of the Council documents. In reality, the Bavarian theologian was neither progressive nor conservative, but rather a faithful disciple of Jesus Christ and son of the Church.

In 1977, Pope Paul VI named Father Ratzinger Archbishop of Munich and Freising. He adopted the motto Cooperatores Veritatis ("Co-Workers of the Truth") as his episcopal motto. He was elevated to cardinal later that year. Four years later, in 1981, Pope John Paul II appointed him prefect of the Congregation of the Doctrine of the Faith (CDF). He served as one of John Paul II's closest advisors until the Holy Father's death in 2005. Pope John Paul II and Cardinal Ratzinger, together, provided stability and a proper interpretation of the Second Vatican Council.

After the death of Pope John Paul II, Cardinal Ratzinger, the dean of the College of Cardinals, celebrated the late pontiff's funeral Mass before a global audience. He concluded his inspiring homily by saying, "We can be sure that our beloved Pope is standing today at the window of the Father's house, that he sees us and blesses us. Yes, bless us, Holy Father. We entrust your dear soul to the Mother of God, your Mother, who guided you each day and who will guide you now to the eternal glory of her Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen."

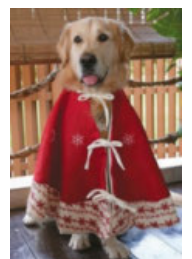

On the first day of the conclave, Cardinal Ratzinger gave what has become a famous homily that warned of the "dictatorship of relativism that does not recognize anything as definitive and whose ultimate goal consists solely of one's ego and desire." The powerful antidote to relativism, Cardinal Ratzinger argued, was friendship with Christ. The following day, he was elected pope at age 78. He took the name Benedict XVI after St. Benedict of Nursia, the founder of Western Monasticism, which helped to stabilize European civilization after the collapse of the Roman Empire. Ironically, Joseph Ratzinger's humility, charity, and clear and insightful writings provided needed stability for the Church over the tumultuous years following the Second Vatican Council.

Overall, Pope Benedict XVI's eight-year pontificate continued the work of Pope John Paul II. He wrote three encyclicals: Deus Caritas Est (God Is Love) in 2005; Spe Salvi (Saved by Hope) in 2007; and Caritas in Veritate (Charity in Truth) in 2009. He also published important apostolic exhortations on the Eucharist in 2007 and Verbum Domini (The Word of the Lord) on Holy Scripture in 2010. In his "spare time" as pope, he wrote three volumes of his book Jesus of Nazareth, which best exemplify his profound insight, friendship, and love for Jesus Christ.

On February 11, 2013, Benedict shocked the world and the College of Cardinals by announcing that he would resign at the end of that month, citing his age and health problems. He had personally experienced the serious challenges of Pope John Paul II's declining health and difficulty in managing a demanding schedule. Pope Benedict XVI was the first pope since Gregory XII in 1415 to resign. He spent the next 10 years "hidden from the world" and dedicated to prayer." He only left the convent once to visit his dying brother in 2020. His sister, Maria, died in 1991.

It is nearly impossible to overstate the lasting impact Joseph Ratzinger has had on the Church. He is one of the great theological, intellectual, and cultural giants of the last 100 years. His contribution to the Second Vatican Council and proper interpretation of the Council's documents following the Council were a gift from our Lord. His writings, steeped in Sacred Scripture and the writings of the Church Fathers, reveal a man marked by a deep friendship with and love for Jesus Christ.

Pope Benedict XVI's comments as he approached death exemplify his character and profound faith: "In light of the hour of judgment, the grace of being a Christian becomes all the more clear to me. It grants me knowledge, and indeed friendship, with the judge of my life, and thus allows me to pass confidently through the dark door of death." His last four words summarize his life well: "Lord, I love you." May the Lord reward him for all of the labors in his vineyard. Requiescat in pace, Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI.

Deacon John's Note

The Trinity Revealed

Christ's baptism reveals two truths to Christians. The obvious truth is that at Christ's baptism, He is revealed as the promised Savior, the Messiah. However, the truth revealed at Christ's baptism that we think less often about is that of the Blessed Trinity. The Blessed Trinity is on full display at the baptism of Jesus. The Son is Jesus, the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus from heaven in the form of a dove, and the Father claims that "This is my beloved Son". As we profess in the Creed, God is one divine nature, and three persons.

Most likely the reason we don't think too much about the Blessed Trinity is because it is a mystery, meaning we can't fully understand it with the limited capacity of our human minds. However, God reveals all three persons of the Trinity to us at the baptism of Christ for a reason. It is hard to imagine where we would be with our faith without all three persons of God. God as our Father, Christ as our Saviour and the Holy Spirit to guide us and grow our faith.

The Blessed Trinity is a mystery that we will only fully understand when we are in the glorified presence of God. We don't have to fully understand the mystery of the Blessed Trinity to appreciate its presence and importance to our salvation. Most of us will take all the help we can get to know God better and to grow our faith.

Thanks be to God for revealing all three persons of the Blessed Trinity at the baptism of Christ!

Spiritual Adoption is coming to St. Therese!

You're invited to "spiritually adopt" a child who is newly conceived this month and hold that child in prayer throughout the coming 9 months. Not all babies make it to birth. Many parents tragically experience the loss of a child to miscarriage or premature birth. Others sadly lose their lives to abortion. These are the babies you are being asked to "adopt" simply by praying for him or her each day. You may "adopt" a child individually or as a family by signing up at the table in the gathering space, starting the weekend of January 14. Watch the bulletin for monthly reports describing "your baby's" development. And, join us in October for a special prayer service celebrating the birth of these babies!

PARENT NIGHT -- TIME TOGETHER

Parents, You've all heard the saying, "It takes a village." Do you ever find yourselves...

Mark your calendars for: Wednesdays, 4:30-5:40 pm & 6:30-7:40 pm Jan. 18, and Apr. 19. Bring your child/youth for Faith Formation and join us in the School Media Center. Refreshments will be served.
