

April 2, 2023 - Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord

St. Therese of Deephaven Catholic Parish

St. Therese Parish and School is a powerful Catholic witness, committed to vibrant growth by living out Jesus Christ's call to "Go and make disciples" (Matt 28:19)
through our sacramental life, prayer, catechesis, fellowship, evangelization and financial stewardship.

A Message from Father Andrie

Hosanna in the Highest!

Today we begin Holy Week. This week, I encourage you to set aside as many things as you can and enter into the beauty and richness of this week.

On Holy Thursday, we will celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper at 7:00 pm. On Good Friday, we will have confessions at 10:00 am and Stations of the Cross at 12:00 noon. Our Good Friday service will be at 5:00 pm, where we will listen to the Passion Narrative and venerate the Cross.

The Easter Vigil (the greatest liturgy of the year) will be on Saturday at 8:00 pm. This year, we have thirteen people in RCIA who will enter the Church! Finally, we will have two Easter Sunday Masses at 8:00 and 10:00 am. This is a great time to allow the liturgies to form you and draw you closer to Jesus and His Church.

It all begins today with Palm Sunday wherein we meet Jesus as He enters Jerusalem with great joy. Jesus instructs His disciples to go into the village to find a donkey and a colt. It's worth noting that despite all that will soon happen this week, Jesus knows exactly who He is and what He is about. Others may think they are in control, but in reality, Jesus is in control.

As typical, Matthew quotes from the Old Testament to show how Jesus fulfills all that was prophesied. He draws from Isaiah 62:11 (Say to daughter Zion) and Zechariah 9:9-10 (Behold: your king is coming to you, a just savior is he, humble, and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey). Our savior enters with humility and in poverty on a donkey, a symbol of lowliness and meekness.

After obtaining the animals, they lay their cloaks over them. Additionally, the people cut branches from the trees and strewed them on the road. For the pilgrims, Jesus is their long-awaited King. They treat Him as the Israelites treated Solomon, who a thousand years earlier ascended to the throne on a donkey with palm branches laid before him (2 Kgs 9:13).

The crowds cry out, "Hosanna to the Son of David." Hosanna, or "save, please" is a cry of praise. In today's context, think of a Southern Baptist congregation that exclaims, "Praise the Lord!" or "We praise you, Jesus!"

Furthermore, the crowd cries out, "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord." (cf Ps. 118:26) Ironically, the Lord is greeted as a pilgrim entering His own city. In the Mass, we say these same words when singing the Sanctus: "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest." Like the pilgrims in Jerusalem, we welcome Jesus in the Eucharist into our hearts, our Jerusalem.

Goldy Waiting to Meet Jesus

Matthew goes on to tell us that when Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was shaken and the people asked, "Who is this?" Just as the whole city was shaken at Jesus' birth by news of the "newborn king of the Jews" (Mt. 2:2-3), so it is shaken again by His entry into the city in His final days. Unfortunately, as we know, the great jubilation will fizzle by the end of the week.

This week I invite you to "stay close to Jesus," in both "good times and bad," whether He is popular or unpopular. My hope and prayer are that you will enter anew into Jesus' Heart, a heart that is open, vulnerable, and willing to suffer greatly for you. May you respond to the Lord's invitation to "be with Him" this week in our liturgies, in prayer, and in your families.

~St. Thérèse, pray for us!

They took palm branches and went out to meet [Jesus], and cried out "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel." (Jn. 12:13)

Deacon John's Note

Victory Over Sin

At the beginning of Mass on Palm Sunday we read the account of Jesus riding a donkey into Jerusalem to a crowd of cheering followers waving palm branches. Palm branches were a symbol of victory. The Gospel reading at Mass is the Passion of Christ. It seems like the first reading is a celebration of a future victory, while the Gospel appears to be about Jesus' defeat on the Cross.

However, both readings are about victory. In fact, the Passion of Christ is the greatest victory impacting our lives today. It is victory over original sin. Original sin was mankind's disobedience to God and obedience to the devil, which shattered God's plan for us.

Jesus through his passion, death, and resurrection, reversed the disobedience of original sin by obeying the will of his Father, in spite of the temptations to do otherwise. The betrayal of Judas, the abandonment of his apostles, the false accusations, the scourging and all the torture of the crucifixion were the devil's attempt to get Jesus to say "no" to his Father. But Jesus defeated the devil. He continued to love, forgive and obey his Father's will through it all. Jesus' victory over sin and the devil paves the road for our own salvation. Jesus did the really hard part by redeeming us on the cross. All we have to do is recognize God's plan for us and resist any temptation that might turn us away from God.

Jesus' victory was won for us. Palm Sunday is a time to cheer!

Owls

The Owls are welcoming in spring. They enjoy hiking around campus searching for signs of animals and identifying plants. The class can often be found tracking animals' prints in the snow and drawing their path in their nature journals. When not out exploring, the Owls can be found in the classroom reading books, creating art, or, a classroom favorite, playing kitchen. A big congratulations to all the Owls who now know how to write both their first and last names!

The Early Childhood Program at St. Therese is a fun and enriching place to be! Want to join the fun?
