Know Your Catholic Faith

Divine Mercy.

On April 30, 2000, the Canonization of Faustina Kowalska took place and the second Sunday of Easter was officially designated as the Sunday of the Divine Mercy in the Church Calendar. Among Catholic devotions, the Divine Mercy message is well-known, along with, the iconic image of Christ, with rays of red and white pouring from his heart. St. Faustina Kowalska was a young Polish nun, and over the course of several years had visions of Jesus, whereby she was directed to create an image and to share with the world revelations of Jesus’ love and mercy. St. Faustina received her first revelation in February 1931. In 1933, after she made her perpetual vows for the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, her superior directed her to move to the convent house in Vilnius. She stayed there for three years and this is where she received many more visions of Jesus. Vilnius is also where she found a priest to be her spiritual director, the now-Blessed Michael Sopocko. With the help of Fr. Sopocko, St. Faustina found a painter to fulfill the request Jesus had made to her in one of the visions—to “paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You”—and in 1934, the painter Eugene Kazimierowski created the original Divine Mercy painting under St. Faustina’s direction. The image shows Christ with his right hand raised as if giving a blessing, and the left touching his chest. Two rays, one pale, one red—which Jesus said are to signify water and blood—are descending from his heart. St. Faustina recorded all of her visions and conversations with Jesus in her diary, called Divine Mercy in My Soul. Here she wrote the words of Jesus about the graces that would pour out on anyone who prayed before the image: “I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over [its] enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend [that soul] as My own glory.” When the image was completed, it was first kept in the corridor of the convent of the Bernardine Sisters, which was beside the Church of St. Michael where Fr. Sopocko was rector. In March 1936, St. Faustina became sick, with what is believed to have been tuberculosis, and was transferred back to Poland by her superiors. She died near Krakow in October 1938, at the age of 33. Even though St. Faustina, because of her illness, was brought back to Krakow, she left the painting in Vilnius because it was the property of her spiritual director, who had paid for the painting. Jesus, in one of St. Faustina’s visions, had expressed his wish that the image be put in a place of honor, so on the first Sunday after Easter in 1937, they hung the image of Merciful Jesus next to the main altar in the Church of St. Michael. In 1948, the communist government closed the Church of St. Michael and abolished the convent. Many of the sacred objects and artworks were moved to other churches to be saved from Soviet hands. Eventually it was brought back to Lithuania in secret and given to the Church of the Holy Spirit. In the early 2000s its significance was rediscovered and after a professional restoration it was rehanging in the nearby Church of the Holy Trinity in 2005, which is now the Shrine of Divine Mercy. God teaches us about his mercy through a holy woman who died at the age of 33, who had lived a very devout life, and endured great sufferings for the sake of Christ. We are taught, through individuals like St. Faustina, how to actually receive God’s mercy and to be merciful to others. (10:20)

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

During this time of fasting from the Eucharist at Holy Mass, we can still reach out to Him by making a Spiritual Communion in prayer! The prayer below can be said at anytime, anywhere and as often as we like to bring oneself into spiritual union with Christ.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Tamanique Scholarship Student Spotlight

Every year Assumption parish provides scholarships to students in Tamanique, El Salvador. These scholarships help promote social justice by supporting those in the greatest need. For many of our students the reality is, no scholarship means no school. The scholarships are part of a program that provides much more than an award of money. All scholarship students create and implement a community project and take part in regular leadership workshops to further develop their impact as a citizen as well as their communication skills.

This week's student spotlight is:

Hello. I'm Lendi Aracely Vásquez Orellana. I'm 20 years-old and in my second year of psychology at the Technological University of El Salvador in San Salvador. I hope to graduate in 2024. Besides my mother and father, neither of whom have any formal education, I have four brothers and one sister. A 15-year-old cousin lives with us in Chitiupan, near Tamanique.

The scholarship program has been a wonderful experience. In the personal area, it has helped me socialize, meet new people and have a positive attitude. I have learned about solidarity and other values in every monthly workshop. Also, I have had the opportunity to attend all the retreats for young people in my community and share with other people who are my age. And the program has had a great impact in my education. I have been advancing in my psychology major so I can help other people in my surroundings, and the most vulnerable. I'm very proud to be the first child in my family to study at a university. I'm willing to help my siblings to achieve their dreams as well. I want to achieve this with God's help and the support of the Center for Interchange and Solidarity (CIS, the organization with which the Assumption Social Justice Committee works in El Salvador).

In our community work, I work with young people between the ages of 13 and 18, and it's a wonderful experience. I have been working on my social project for a year, and I believe this has an impact in my community. I teach different themes through workshops so the young people become aware of social issues and how to contribute solutions.

I have not had the greatest of obstacles. However, my health affects me in many areas. I have eye problems. The doctor prescribed glasses, and I'm saving money to eventually buy a pair. Also, the lack of a computer is a difficulty. I have an old computer, but it doesn't work properly, and soon it won't work. I won't have any other device to take my classes and do my homework.

God willing, I will become a psychologist and specialize in the clinical area. I want to learn English and be able to have a dignified salary. I would like to be an excellent professional and help my patients find a solution to their problems. I also would like to help my family overcome their economic crisis and help and encourage my siblings to achieve their dreams. One of my plans is to visit the United States, to meet in person the people of Our Lady of Assumption Parish. They have been key in our education process, and have helped us to make our dreams come true to become agents of change, ethical, and with values. Eventually, I would also like to form a family, but most importantly get a stable job that helps me throughout life.
