Adoration Chapel Announcement

St. Augustin's Perpetual Adoration Chapel has been a spiritual beacon, not only for St. Augustin parishioners, but for Des Moines area Catholics and visitors alike for the past 25 years. Open 24-hours a day, seven days a week, it is a peaceful and welcome respite from the world for those in need of a quiet moment to reflect, pray, and adore with the Real Presence of our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament. While the Adoration Chapel is physically connected to St. Augustin Catholic Church and under our care, it is in effect its own separate entity and functions as the Perpetual Adoration Chapel for the Des Moines area. It is truly a gift to everyone. In order that we might continue to keep the Chapel accessible at all hours, we are seeking volunteers to become one of our adorers, committing one hour for just one day a week so that we may have sufficient coverage to guarantee safety for both our Lord and those wishing to spend time with him. You need not be a parishioner of St. Augustin's to volunteer. Please consider helping us and the faithful of the Diocese of Des Moines so that we may keep the Perpetual Adoration Chapel at St. Augustin available to all for years to come. If you would like to help, please Contact Janis Falk at janis@staugustin.org, or call St. Augustin Catholic Church at (515) 255-1175 to learn more or sign up.

Roman Curia

A dicastery is a major Vatican department or administrative office. The dicasteries as a whole are called the Roman Curia. These are personnel and offices through which the pope administers the affairs of the universal church. These Vatican departments, or congregations, are usually headed by a cardinal, with the assistance of bishops, priests, religious and laypeople. The head of a congregation is called a prefect. The Vatican maintains sections on its Web site (www.vatican.va) for each dicastery. When referring to the Roman Curia and Curia these titles are usually capitalized (like Senate when referring to the U.S. Senate). (11:9)

Next week: Presbyterate.

If you would like a specific topic about the Catholic faith addressed, submit your question via email to parish@assumptiongranger.org with "Catholic Faith" in the subject line.

THE IMPORTANCE OF GOD'S WORD

The readings for this weekend challenge us to listen to the Word, accept it into our lives and put it into practice as we live out our lives, thus liberating ourselves and others from all types of bondages.

Ezra, the priest, in the first reading, reminds the Jews of their failure to keep the Lord's commandments and precepts. On New Year's Day, he brings the Book of the Law before the assembly consisting of men, women, and all those old enough to understand, and he reads it in the square of the Water Gate from dawn till noon. Nobody remains at home or seeks excuses to stay away. The people are touched by what they hear, and they give their consent to it by responding "Amen, Amen," and they begin to cry.

In today's gospel, Luke, the evangelist, writes to Theophilus, a prominent person in the early beginnings of the Christian community, to share with him the Word of God. Similarly, Jesus goes to the synagogue and takes the scroll to read and explain. Jesus identifies himself with what Isaiah had prophesied many years before. He has come to bring the good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives.

The first task of every baptized person is to nourish their faith and that of the Christian community with God's Word. The Word of God personified in Jesus Christ cannot come to us and remain dormant. It must be active and challenge us into action. It is the most nourishing food for our faith, minds, souls, and hearts. St. Gregory once said, "The Bible is a love letter sent by God to his people in which we can perceive the heart of God." St. Jerome also said "Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ." The Word of God brings us healing and helps us cope with life's problems. Let us make the Word of God part and parcel of our lives. As the Psalmist says, "Your word is a lamp for my steps and a light for my path" (Psalm 119:105). Peter also says, "Lord to whom shall we go; you have the words of eternal life..." (John 6:68).
