Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 23, 2022

This week, we'll begin with a short disclaimer. In the Church we often use big words to describe concepts. Usually, these large words are used because they offer a one-word way to refer to certain, precise definitions in lieu of multiple words that attempt to reach the same degree of specificity. Precision is important in theological language, because a lack of precision can lead to heresy and error. It ends up being more efficient to use the big, multi-syllable word than using simpler terms and adding words and phrases to reach the necessary complexity.

What Paul is conveying in the First Letter to the Corinthians, chapter 12, which we began hearing last week and we continue this week, is a lesson in ecclesiology. Ecclesiology refers to the study of the mystery of the nature of the Church. Ecclesia is the Greek word that refers to the gathering of the people—it was used more broadly in a political context in ancient times but has come to refer to religious gatherings, and most often, Christian religious gatherings. Therefore, we use ecclesiology to refer, in a precise way, to the mystical nature of the Christian Church, the Universal Church—the Catholic Church.

Whereas in last week's reading, Paul spoke of the variety of gifts given to the Church and distributed among the faithful for the building of the community, the excerpt we receive this week tells of how this variety—given individually and uniquely to each according to the Spirit—now coalesces, forming the Body of Christ on Earth.

Last week we heard that each of us is given a unique charism and talent for the good of the whole Church, and indeed the whole world. We are now to learn that it is in the totality that we become a sign of the living Christ to the world. While not all of us may have flashy outward gifts, we all have a necessary part to carry out in bringing the world to salvation in Christ Jesus.

More than this, Paul describes how the less showy parts, the parts of the body not to be shown lightly are covered with greater dignity—that is, the rest of the body gathers and surrounds to protect with care and honor the parts of the body that function more within the body than without.

Some are given gifts of prophecy, proclaiming to both the Church and the world the Good News of the Kingdom of God, the great glad tidings of the triumph of God's love over pain, sorrow, sin, and sadness. This is a function that operates largely outwardly to the world, building up the communion of the Church by drawing more to be Baptized, and to believe in the Truth of Jesus Christ. Meanwhile, others are given gifts of administration which, though perhaps less glamorous than being “center-stage” holding forth the witness of faith, are no less crucial to the success of the whole of the Church.

Furthermore, what of the many faithful who are not able or called (yet) to stand before the world and give an account for the hope that is in them (1 Peter 3:15) by faith in Jesus, being at sundry stages of growth in their spiritual life with God? The rest of the Church surrounds them, making available to those who seek the great stores and treasures of the Faith. The Body is thus grown in strength and maturity from within, as well.

Paul tells us that we are now Christ's body and individually members thereof, where indeed not all are hearing, not all are sight, yet all are necessary, and none of us belong any more or any less to him. All of us are called to engage with the world as members of Christ. We are to bear forth the mission of Christ to people of today, just as all those who came before us bore to their posterity the power of the Good News.

It is the Spirit who gives the gifts and distributes them to each of us, unworthy vessels. It is the Spirit who animates those gifts to draw all people to God, and the Spirit who makes that people, the Ecclesia, one in Christ who gave (and sacramentally gives) himself as head of the body, to unite it with himself in the love of God the Father.

Ecclesiology is the mystery of God the Son working out the Father's perfect will for his creatures through gravely imperfect individuals, united in himself, through the grace of the Holy Spirit. Instead of questions, these mysteries of the faith give us hope for light and goodness to triumph over sin and wrong.

IS GOD CALLING YOU TO HELP?

The Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis is in need of college-age men and women who have a missionary heart, love children/youth, and are committed to their Catholic faith and who feel called to share it with the youth from local parishes around the Archdiocese.

- The position is a temporary two-month commitment (June 3 – July 30), which includes one week of training and one week break for the Fourth of July.
- Each team member will receive $2,520 for their work.

Click here for more information: www.archspm.org/catholic-education-youth-formation/family-ministries/totus-tuus/.

STAY SAFE

With cold and flu season upon us and with a desire to keep everyone safe from illness, please stay home from Mass if any of the following apply to you:

1. You have any cold symptoms, including a cough, fever, headache, or achiness.
2. You have been in close contact with someone who has a communicable disease, including Covid-19.
3. You have reason to believe your health would be significantly compromised, if you were to contract a communicable illness.

Under these circumstances, the Minnesota bishops remind us “we are excused from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays or Holy Days.” With the increase in Covid cases, Archbishop Hebda encourages wearing a mask when you come to Mass. If you are unable to attend, we welcome you to watch the livestream of the Mass each Sunday at 10 a.m. Thank you for helping us keep everyone safe!

ALPHA RETURNS TO ST. PETERS IN FEBRUARY

Alpha is returning to St. Peter's February 14, 2022. It will run Monday evenings, from February 14 through May 9, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in Heritage Center.

Alpha is a place to develop or deepen a relationship with Jesus and explore the basics of the Christian faith. The gatherings consist of a meal, a talk, and small group discussion. It is an open, informal, and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together. And it is a place for fellowship with others.

One recent participant commented: “Alpha increased my confidence to share my faith!” Another said: “As a new parishioner, Alpha was helpful for me in meeting and developing relationships with others at St. Peter's.”

Signups begin January 21 online on St. Peter's website. There will also be registration tables in the Gathering Space, after all Masses on the weekends of January 22-23 and January 29-30.

Mark your calendars and plan to join us! Invite your friends and neighbors! Space is limited. If you have any questions, please contact Laurie Reding at 612-419-1709 or at lreding1@aol.com.

GIFTED AND BELONGING

Gifted And Belonging (GAB) was recently established to provide Catholics of all abilities a safe place in the Church to experience acceptance and freedom to be all God has created us to be. Because all are gifted and all belong, anyone 18 and older with special needs, both seen and unseen, or those willing to mentor or give themselves in friendship, are invited to join us for fellowship events once a month. Is God calling you to be part of this Culture of Life—to serve and be served? You belong here!

Our next event will be on Friday, February 18. For more information, please contact Megan Dunsmore at giftedandbelonging@gmail.com.

SANDWICH LUNCH MINISTRY

Our next collection of lunch items to be distributed to Sharing & Caring Hands in Minneapolis will be Tuesday, February 22, from 12 to 1pm. *Note that this month it is held on the fourth Tuesday, instead of the third. Pull into the lower parking lot, and we will come out to your car. Watch the bulletin and website for upcoming dates. If you are interested in donating items for lunches, please contact Nancy Stanton at 651-686-9009 or nanrrl@yahoo.com.

It is extremely helpful for us to know how much food to expect, so please be sure to sign up in advance. Each donor is asked to bring 20 to 40 of one, two, or all of the following:

- Oranges, Cuties, apples, or individual fruit cups (PLEASE, NO BANANAS)

Please do NOT put items into paper lunch bags. Thank you for your generosity!

SPONSOR A PROJECT FUNDRAISER FOR UGANDA MISSION TRIP

A team of 13 people will be traveling to Uganda in June, for our bi-annual mission trip. During that time, we will be working on many projects including laying cable for electricity at our two schools, 3 medical missions to remote sub parishes that have very limited access to health care, installing rain water collection systems at student's homes, and doing some improvement projects on the parish farm. This is an ambitious list of projects which require funding. If we were able to do them all, we would need to raise $31,000.

After all Masses, during the last 4 weekends in January, a member of the team traveling to Uganda will be in the Gathering Space to give you more information on these projects and will be accepting donations to fund them. Please stop by and learn more. If you are able to support us with a financial donation, we would be most grateful! You may also donate directly on our website: <https://secure.myvanco.com/YJ3M/campaign/C-YPFZ>.

HEALING MASS WITH FR. JIM

Dear beloved in Christ,

I want to let you know that for the time being, I have decided to suspend our Monthly Holy Hours of Adoration, Intercession, and Reparation which have been held over the past 18 months. I am discerning whether to continue these and would be very interested in hearing your thoughts and whether you would still find these helpful. If you have anything to share please let me and Deacon Tim know.

CATECHISM CORNER BY DAVID DUNST

Catechism Corner

The consequences of the first disobedience of Adam and Eve are illustrated in Scripture, but first, and immediately, they lose the grace of the original holiness we discussed a few weeks ago. We know this because they became suddenly afraid of God. Where before they would walk with God in the garden, they now see God as jealous (CCC 399).

This is a distortion that would plague humanity for centuries and still does in some circles.

In addition to the loss of original holiness, sin led to:

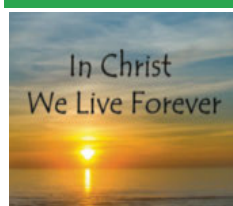

- Original justice, that state of dwelling with God and each other without the tension of selfish pursuits
- The relationship of man and woman has become subject to disordered bodily appetites leading to lust and domination
- Harmony with creation is broken, and the created world becomes hostile and alien to them
- Creation is subject to decay and bondage because of man
- Death becomes endemic to the human condition (CCC 400)

Perhaps more than any other consequence, we know well that sin has led to the multiplication of sin. Cain murders his brother Abel, there is manifest corruption in human society, man is serially unfaithful to his covenants with God and man. We can reflect on our own lives and know that we are drawn to what is wrong. We can know in ourselves the disordered affections that lead us away from God (CCC 401).

Next week, we pick up more on this theme, as the Catechism expands on the idea of lasting, universal consequences of sin.

IN SINCERE SYMPATHY

St. Peter's Parish extends its sympathy to the family and friends of Joe Reymann.

We invite all to join us in praying that God may make him a sharer in eternal salvation.
