From the Desk of Jim Thorp

Captivated by the Corporeal

By Jim Thorp

They came bringing to him a paralytic carried by four men. Unable to get near Jesus because of the crowd, they opened up the roof above him. After they had broken through, they let down the mat on which the paralytic was lying. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to him, "Child, your sins are forgiven." – Mark 2:3-5

I've spent the past 10 days quarantined due to a positive COVID test. Aside from one rough evening, I felt pretty good overall—the usual post-holiday fatigue and January congestion. But it doesn't take much. When sick or injured, I am a pretty poor patient. I never manage to suffer in silence for long, and I tend to put everything on hold until I feel better. The weaker my flesh, the less willing my spirit.

Mark's gospel shares the account of four friends who bring a paralytic to Jesus. Unable to get close to him on the ground due to the crowds, they climb to the roof, open up the thatching, and lower the paralyzed man on his mat before Jesus. The Lord sees the man in his plight. He sees the great faith of the man's friends. So what does He do?

Jesus forgives the paralyzed man's sins.

Think about that for a moment. From the crowd's point of view: They have gathered around Jesus with great expectations. They are listening to His teachings, but they have heard He is a wonderworker. No doubt they were holding their breath in expectation of a miracle for the paralyzed man. From the standpoint of the four friends: Can there be any doubt that their hope for their friend was physical healing? And from the paralytic's point of view: Even if he was a devout man, I'll bet there was a twinge of disappointment when Jesus says, "Your sins are forgiven," rather than, "Rise and walk."

And if Jesus is seeking more followers, this isn't the best approach, either. His words to the paralyzed man scandalized the scribes and likely confused the onlookers. ----> ---->

We quite naturally prefer miracles we can see, and spiritual healing can be difficult to discern from the outside.

Jesus knows what these people came for, and ultimately, He gives them what they seek: the paralyzed man is healed to the amazement of all. It is easy, in the face of such a miracle, to overlook the initial, bigger gift: the forgiveness of the man's sins. The physical healing, however miraculous, is temporary—age and death still await the man in this world. But the Lord's mercy resonates in this world and the next. It's a call to resurrection and eternity in heaven for those who receive it.

We are captivated by the corporeal, and the needs and desires of our bodies often trump our spiritual well-being. That is why Christ does the unexpected in the face of the scribes, the crowd, and paralyzed man. He knows what we need better than we do. Jesus' spiritual healing of the paralytic is the more important of the two wonders He worked that day, because it's the healing that lasts. His mercy is the miracle that brings us home to our heavenly Father.

Candlemass - Wednesday, February 2nd at 7:45 am Mass

Each year on February 2nd, the Feast of the Presentation - or Candlemass - our parish community honors the symbolic meaning of light and the sacramental value of blessed candles. Those who would like to may purchase candles of any type and bring them to the 7:45 am Mass on Wednesday, February 2nd. Grocery stores often carry votive candles. At the beginning of Mass, Father will bless the candles. The newly blessed candles are intended to be used in homes for spiritual purposes, such as during daily prayer, the family Rosary, lighting of the Advent wreath or praying for someone. Please remember that blessed candles need to be used properly, and must be burned or buried - they cannot be thrown away.

World Day for Consecrated Life

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on February 2nd and in parishes on the weekend of February 5/6. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life: our priests, Religious brothers, sisters and consecrated virgins. Be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

Feast of Saint Blaise-Blessing of Throats

We will celebrate the Feast of Saint Blaise on Thursday, February 3rd at the 7:30 am Mass. The clergy will bless throats during Mass. Saint Blaise's protection of those with throat troubles apparently comes from a legend that a boy was brought to him who had a fishbone stuck in his throat. The boy was about to die when Saint Blaise healed him. The blessing is "Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Become More Involved in the Mass

Did you miss the last liturgical minister training sessions? Check out the dates for the next training dates!

Liturgical ministers are generally scheduled once a month at the Mass time of their choice, but may volunteer to serve more if they wish. Ministers are asked to be at church 15 minutes prior to Mass when they are scheduled unless otherwise noted below.

Extraordinary Minister of Holy

Communion: Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHCs) assist the priest in distributing the Body and Blood of Jesus during Mass. To serve as an EMHC you must be an adult who has received the Sacrament of Confirmation and be commissioned to serve in our parish.

Usher: Ushers are needed for all Masses, including Christmas, Easter and other special liturgies. An usher arrives 20-25 minutes early and is a host, acting on behalf of the parish, to greet people, assist seating when necessary and check the overall comfort in the church building. They open and close doors, take up the offering, distribute bulletins and straighten hymnals after Mass. Ushers must be able to take initiative and be comfortable approaching and directing parishioners, as necessary. To serve as an Usher, you must be in 9th grade or older.

We are looking for many more ushers and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion (EMCHs) at all Mass times, especially the 11:00 am Mass! Please attend one of the following training meetings:

- Ushers: Tuesday, February 1st at 7:30 pm or Saturday, Feb 5th at 10:00 am

EMHCs: Saturday, February 5th at 8:30 am

We will meet near the coat rack in the Gathering Space; no need to register. Ministers are scheduled just once a month at their Mass time choice, and new ministers will not be scheduled until March but can volunteer sooner if there are open positions.

Questions on the above Liturgical Ministries may be directed to Cindy Voitalla at 612-470-4398 or cvoitalla@stmcaholicchurch.org. Steve Long at 612-344-1544 or slong@stmcaholicchurch.org.

January is Coming to a Close!

Next weekend is the last weekend of the month and it is time for the monthly Hanover Food Shelf Collection. Please don't forget to bring some non-perishable food items and drop them off on the way to Mass. Or consider a gift certificate or monetary donation. As always, thank you for helping feed the less fortunate.

Faith Formation

This year parents and children will be exploring prayer in all its dimensions through both scripture and tradition.
