Parish Bulletin

September 26, 2021 | The 26th Sunday in Ordinary time

Fr. Pat Sullivan, Pastor

Our Parish Mission: We, the faith community of Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church, faithful to the teachings of the magisterium, are committed to forming Disciples of Christ by embracing Stewardship through Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service.

5501 Monticello Road, Shawnee, KS 66226 • 913.422.5700 • FAX 913.422.5723 • www.shoj.org

WELCOME We're So Glad You're Here

God created humanity for greatness and calls each of us to continually grow in holiness. This is no small task and something we can't do on our own. So Jesus gave us the Church and its many treasures to guide us; providing a perfect road map to salvation. It's my prayer that everyone comes to know the truth of the gospel.

Our doors are open to any and all who desire to hear the truth in a loving and peaceful setting. As a physician of souls, I care deeply about your well-being, and want to help you stay spiritually healthy. If it's been awhile since you've had a "checkup," come on in and we'll chat. If there's anything else we can do for you, please ask.

I look forward to ministering to you as your spiritual Father.

In Peace,
Fr. Pat Sullivan

I want to take this opportunity to personally invite you to grow deeper in your faith, and allow myself, and the many other professionals and volunteers at SHOJ to assist you however we can; let's help each other get to heaven. You can't do it without the Church, and we can't do it without YOU.

Daily Gospel Reflections from The Word Among Us	Jesus comes to meet us in the "least among us," who are truly the greatest. Let's take the risk of going out to the poor so that we can, as St. Vincent says, "Find God."	When you are filled with God, he will flow out of you. This is how we bring the presence of God to others. Keep asking God to fill you; then expect his Grace to overflow.	Today, let's call upon the Archangels and ask them to intercede for us. As they defend us in battle, remind of the good news and accompany us to fulfill our vocation.

Open veneration will begin at 9:00 a.m. and Fr. Pat Sullivan will preside at a special Mass at 7:00 p.m. that will conclude the day's veneration. Feel free to bring a personal item (cross, rosary etc) to have a 3rd class relic of your own. Prayer cards will also be available.

St. Pio was a very pious priest who offered up tremendous suffering as he endured the "stigmata" of the crucifixion wounds of Our Lord. He bore all pain in humbleness - while in continuous prayer - for the forgiveness of sins (by all humankind). He is the Patron Saint of: Adolescents, Stress-relief and Civil defense volunteers. His Feast Day is on September 23.

Please join us for this very special day of prayer!

He will not only forgive us; he will give us the grace to "heed" his voice once again.

Trevor's Experience with RCIA

Cameron Menghini received the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil in 2019. This is what she says about her RCIA experience:

“I have to say that RCIA was an amazing experience for me. I had a foundation, but RCIA taught me so much more and really enhanced my knowledge of the faith. I have learned so much and am excited for more. I loved the group of people I shared RCIA with and that we were all seeking the same thing.”

Our first RCIA sessions start in September, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in Meeting Rooms 1 and 2, but there is still time to join! Anyone interested in becoming Catholic is welcome! Contact Char Mies with any questions at 913-422-5700 ext 241 or 913-522-6556. Visit here: <https://shoj.org/rcia/> to register for RCIA.

Inspiration for the Week

Who are the little ones? They are the many and varied faces of people who see hope in Jesus' message about the Kingdom of God. They have come to believe that there is a different world to be had: a place where everyone has a home, all have an equal opportunity to share in God's bountiful gifts and blessings, where justice reigns, truth presides, and peace fills hearts. The little ones are those who may have left their former views behind, perhaps even their former lives to follow Jesus and believe in the Beatitudes as God's world vision. They are the poor, the marginalized, the women and men at the well, the Zacchaeus' looking for Jesus from a tree, the blind who want to see, and the lame who want to walk. They are the lepers who have been told that they are unclean, and the ones who have learned that suffering and death are nothing to fear. These are all of the little ones. Jesus gathers and protects them as a shepherd guards his sheep. Whoever causes one of these little ones to sin deserves the greatest wrath. Be more concerned about what people are doing than where they came from.

What is YDisciple?

YDisciple follows the model Jesus set for us. He could have reached the masses in His earthly ministry, instead He chose to devote the majority of His time to twelve men. He personally cared for and formed a small group of men who would be strong enough to do the same for others. In the end, this approach would multiply disciples and reach the masses.

A YDisciple small group has 2 adult mentors and 8-10 teens of the same gender per small group. The curriculum will be a mix of videos, discussion, prayer and games as they grow deeper in relationship with God and their fellow small group members.

YDisciple starts on Sunday, September 26 at 7:00 p.m! Contact Jen.Zans@shoj.org or 913-422-5700, ext. 247

Everyday Stewardship Recognize God in your Everyday Moments

Breaking the Stewardship Mold

Have you noticed how we always tend to pigeonhole one another — and ourselves? “I could never serve on the Parish Council. That’s for Rick and Ellen and that whole group of people who have done it for years.” “Greg takes care of faith formation in the parish — he always has. He doesn’t need my help.” “I can’t afford to give the big bucks like those families who sit up front can. My offering wouldn’t matter even if I did increase it.”

Thinking like this is a good indication that we aren’t in conversation with God about what His will is for our lives. If we have already decided what we are and are not meant to do, we aren’t likely to pray over it, to discern it.

We have to be open to the spirit of the Lord wherever it leads us, regardless of what we or others have come to expect from us. We human beings come to believe that we are such good judges of what others can offer — or what we ourselves can offer. But God has plans for us to which we aren’t privy. God calls everyone to serve Him in the way that pleases Him best, and only He can decide what that is. Everyday Stewardship demands a continual accounting of who we can be, what we can offer — even if it’s outside our comfort zone, even if it’s something that never occurred to us before. There’s only one Person who can tell us what God wants from us. Do we even think to ask Him?

Question: What do Catholics believe about the resurrection of the dead?

Answer:

Every Sunday, we proclaim in the Creed that we believe “in the resurrection of the body.” Does that mean Christ’s resurrection or our own? Both! Jesus’ resurrection is part of the work of salvation, but it’s also a sign of what’s to come. While death separates our bodies and our souls, this was not the intention of God when He first created us. It’s an effect of original sin. At the end of time, our bodies and our souls will be reunited.

Scientifically, we may have questions about this, since bodies decompose over the course of centuries. Or what about the saints, whose relics are spread around the earth? How the resurrection will happen is a mystery. But we know that our resurrected body will be our body. If we are in heaven, our body will be in a glorified state. Some theologians speculate what this glorification will be like based on Jesus’ resurrected body. Will we be able to walk through walls? Will we eat, since Jesus broke bread with his disciples? We don’t really know the answers to these questions. We do know, however, that we will be free from the effects of the fall (such as sickness and pain) and physical defects that occurred in life. Christ redeems us as whole persons, body and soul!

Catholic Charities & Afghan Efforts

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has asked CCNEK to help in the resettlement of Afghani citizens. There are two different types of Afghani "cases", those with a special immigrant visa (SIV) and those labeled "evacuees" seeking asylum due to the crisis. SIV families have permanent status and are able to participate in programs like temporary assistance for needy families, food stamps, etc...as they begin building a new life in the United States. Those seeking asylum receive a one-time "welcome money" of roughly $1,200 but are not eligible to participate in governmental programs like those with permanent status. This makes our asylum seekers even more in need of support from agencies like CCNEK. We will be resettling both in our area. More information is available at <https://catholiccharitiesks.org/afghanistan-humanitarian-crisis/>. If you are interested in assisting CCNEK in our mission to "Welcome the Stranger Among Us" we are in need of household donations, financial donations, medical care, legal assistance, rental apartments or houses, and volunteers. You can contact us at refugees@catholiccharitiesks.org to donate or volunteer.
