Parish Bulletin

November 21, 2021 | Our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe

Fr. Pat Sullivan, Pastor

Our Parish Mission: We, the faith community of Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church, faithful to the teachings of the magisterium, are committed to forming Disciples of Christ by embracing Stewardship through Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service.

5501 Monticello Road, Shawnee, KS 66226 • 913.422.5700 • FAX 913.422.5723 • www.shoj.org

WELCOME We're So Glad You're Here

God created humanity for greatness and calls each of us to continually grow in holiness. This is no small task and something we can't do on our own. So Jesus gave us the Church and its many treasures to guide us; providing a perfect road map to salvation. It's my prayer that everyone comes to know the truth of the gospel.

I want to take this opportunity to personally invite you to grow deeper in your faith, and allow myself, and the many other professionals and volunteers at SHOJ to assist you however we can; let's help each other get to heaven. You can't do it without the Church, and we can't do it without YOU.

Our doors are open to any and all who desire to hear the truth in a loving and peaceful setting. As a physician of souls, I care deeply about your well-being, and want to help you stay spiritually healthy. If it's been awhile since you've had a "checkup," come on in and we'll chat. If there's anything else we can do for you, please ask.

I look forward to ministering to you as your spiritual Father.

In Peace,
Fr. Pat Sullivan

RCIA Rite of Welcome/Acceptance

Calling ALL Sacred Heart parishioners! Ever wonder what YOUR role is in the RCIA Rite of Welcome/Acceptance? First, what is the Rite of Welcome/Acceptance?

The Rite of Welcome/Acceptance will be celebrated on Sunday, November 21, at the 9:30 Mass. The Rite of Welcome is for those already baptized and those considering full communion in the Catholic Church. The Rite of Acceptance is for those who are not baptized, but considering full initiation into the Catholic Church.

At this Combined Rite, these candidates publicly celebrate their intention to continue the RCIA journey and more fully embrace Christ, His Church and the Gospel message. After the homily, they are signed with the cross by their sponsors and presented with the gift of a cross to show that they belong to Christ.

What is YOUR role as a member of Sacred Heart Parish?

On November 21 after the 9:30 Mass, please prayerfully consider coming to Coffee & Donuts to welcome and congratulate these beautiful seekers of our faith after they have publically received the Rite at the 9:30 a.m. Mass.

As a community of believers, we have a vital role in the RCIA process. By offering our prayer, support and example to those who are seeking this Catholic way of life, the community becomes an active, engaged and most important part of their journey!

Prayer – the community, either individually or as household, is encouraged to pray daily by name for a particular catechumen or candidate.

Support – find our RCIA seekers before or after a Mass and offer words of kindness and support.

Example – strive to live the Gospel in all aspects of life – worship, service to each other, prayer and even leisure. Our catechumens and candidates are constantly observing our community to better understand what it means to be a Catholic.

Your words of encouragement and support will make a significant difference in how they perceive our faith community. Your words will help them persevere in their journey with Christ and officially feel welcomed into this blessed SHOJ community! ~Thank You for sharing the love of Christ!

Saint of the Week, St. Fasani Feast Day is November 27

St. Francesco Antonio Fasani (1681 – 1742) lived his whole life as a loving, devout, and atoning man. He entered the Conventual Franciscans in 1695, and 10 years later taught philosophy to younger friars, served as guardian of his friary, and eventually became provincial minister. When his term of office ended, St. Francesco became master of novices and finally pastor in his hometown of Lucera.

Known throughout his various ministries as being loving, devout, and penitential, he was also a well-known confessor and preacher. St. Francesco was a loyal friend of the poor and worked tirelessly to find ways to support them. He was a mystic with such a profound prayer life and supernatural gifts that he was known to levitate during prayer. He was canonized in 1986 by Pope John Paul II.

Blest Art Visiting SHOJ

Blest Art will be visiting our parish on December 4-5 on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Their mission is to support those families in the Holy Land. When Blest Art visits our parish, they will have hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries, and many other pieces of beautiful olive wood art. We kindly invite you to visit their display in Meeting Rooms 1 & 2 and to consider purchasing a piece of art from the Holy Land. In doing so, you will help support the many families who depend on this form or art for their living. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christian families.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

God is wonderfully and surprisingly creative! He turns the tables on our understanding of what it means to be a king by sending us a king who embraces poverty, insults, suffering, ridicule, rejection, and even death. This is our king. Jesus is not the king of prestige or grandeur but the king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. God dances on, around, in and through all of the silliness and ugliness of the world bringing all of creation to the eternal dance of new life and hope. Whether we accept it now or hope that we one day do, Christ is king of the universe. Christ is the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end. Every human being, even those who scorned and rejected him and failed to see him in the least of our brothers and sisters will look upon him. Only those who understand truth will understand that we are on this awesome universal journey to Christ. It is a journey of surprises but also a journey of enlightenment when we will one day see and experience with the deepest joy our being in Christ. We will be restless until we are all one day together united in Christ our King.

Family Life and Parenting

“The joy of love experienced by families is also the joy of the Church” (Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia, no. 1). Family life – though not without its challenges – is a great gift! It is in the family that all of us learn what it means to love and be loved, to forgive, and how to maintain relationships over time. The family is called to welcome others, in particular children, and to care for those in need. This content can help families become places of prayer and faith (domestic Churches) and navigate the challenges that come with parenting, extended family relationships, caregiving, and more.

Everyday Stewardship Recognize God in your Everyday Moments

Live long the King

Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself “Laird So-and-so.” Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee. My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their “king,” but most of us have those we think of as “our people.”

Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition. We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends. There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.

Why do we do that? Q&A

Question: Why do we make changes in the Mass? Some seem so small and unimportant. Are they really necessary?

Answer: The celebration of the Eucharist is at the heart of our identity as Catholics. Our purpose as a Church community revolves around the Eucharist. Everything we are and everything we do is measured not only by how well we celebrate, but also by how well we live the sacrament. If that is so, then we as a community will always strive to celebrate the Mass as best we can. The reasons for some changes might seem more obvious than others, but there is a reason behind each one. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal is the introduction to the Missal that contains all the prayers for the celebration of the Mass. The Order of Mass we use now was issued in 1975 and, as often happens over the course of years, some questions have come up about the proper way of doing some things and whether or not other practices are acceptable. These changes clarify some things and make the celebration of the Mass more meaningful for everyone. The opportunity is presented to us to better learn and understand each part of the Mass, which in turn should help us deepen our appreciation for its beauty and meaning. We will be a better Church if we have a clearer understanding and knowledge of Who and what we celebrate.
