WELCOME We're So Glad You're Here

God created humanity for greatness and calls each of us to continually grow in holiness. This is no small task and something we can't do on our own. So Jesus gave us the Church and its many treasures to guide us; providing a perfect road map to salvation. It's my prayer that everyone comes to know the truth of the gospel.

I want to take this opportunity to personally invite you to grow deeper in your faith, and allow myself, and the many other professionals and volunteers at SHOJ to assist you however we can; let's help each other get to heaven. You can't do it without the Church, and we can't do it without YOU.

Our doors are open to any and all who desire to hear the truth in a loving and peaceful setting. As a physician of souls, I care deeply about your well-being, and want to help you stay spiritually healthy. If it's been awhile since you've had a "checkup," come on in and we'll chat. If there's anything else we can do for you, please ask.

I look forward to ministering to you as your spiritual Father.

In Peace,
Fr. Pat Sullivan

Daily Gospel Reflections from The Word Among Us	Let's pray today for every person touched by hatred, division or war; that they will know the healing love of Jesus. And this Advent, embrace the Prince of Peace in our hearts.	Remember, every time you go to Mass or Adoration, or your Bible, Jesus is there waiting. The more you open yourself to his love, the more he will change you.	Feast on the close relationship with God that Jesus offers you...and on his own body of blood in the Eucharist. You feast because God provides all of this for you in Jesus.

Light Up for Christ

Join us for a special event that will bring CHRIST back to Christmas on Tuesday, December 7 at 8:00 p.m. (immediately following the vigil Mass) Our Knights of Columbus Council will "Light Up for Christ" by lighting our nativity scene in the Narthex. Fr. Pat Sullivan will read a Christmas story and we may have a special representation of "St. Nick" appear for the kids. Refreshments to follow the story. Don't miss this favorite Christmas tradition at Sacred Heart!

Advent Penance Service

Sacred Heart will host a Parish-wide Penance Service on Thursday, December 16 at 7:00 p.m. with multiple priests to hear confessions. Bring the whole family and prepare your hearts for the coming of Christ!

Advent Meditations

First Sunday in Advent

While the world likes to rush to Christmas, we Catholics are invited to take an entire season, called Advent, to slow down and prepare ourselves for the great mystery before us.

The message of Advent for us is simple: "Wake up!"

Advent is a time to be reawakened to the great mystery of the Incarnation: God became man, in time and space and in documented history over 2,000 years ago. If this is indeed true, then Jesus Christ has changed everything.

The people of Israel often grew tired in their exile and in their seemingly endless wait on the Lord. But in his time, not ours, God showed up. And he still does today. For our sake, God indeed became man.

What is our response? How will this season be different? What can I do differently? How can I put Christ at the center of my life again, or perhaps for the very first time?

Let's wake up this Advent season!

Questions for Additional Reflection:

- Where do you feel that you are living "on autopilot"?
- What's one practical thing you can do to make this Advent different?

"HAVE NO ANXIETY AT ALL, BUT IN EVERYTHING, BY PRAYER AND PETITION, WITH THANKSGIVING MAKE YOUR REQUEST KNOWN TO GOD."

Philippians

THURSDAY 12.2.21	FRIDAY 12.3.21	SATURDAY 12.4.21	SUNDAY 12.5.21

Let's ask for the grace to respond to the turbulence in our lives as Mary and Joseph did. May we always build our lives on the unshakable "rock" of the Lord!	Whatever happens, Jesus hears your prayers. He will bring good out of your suffering, even if you can't see it right away. He has delivered you from sin and death!

The Community's Role in RCIA

“I, THE LORD, YOUR GOD, TEACH YOU WHAT IS FOR YOUR GOOD, AND LEAD YOU ON THE WAY YOU SHOULD GO.”

– Isaiah
48:17

As a community of believers, we have a vital role in the RCIA process. By offering our prayer, support and example to those who are seeking this Catholic way of life, the community becomes an active, engaged and most important part of their journey!

Prayer – the community, either individually or as household, is encouraged to pray daily by name for a particular catechumen or candidate.

Support – find our RCIA seekers before or after a Mass and offer words of kindness and support.

Example – strive to live the Gospel in all aspects of life – worship, service to each other, prayer and even leisure. Our catechumens and candidates are constantly observing our community to better understand what it means to be a Catholic.

Your words of encouragement and support will make a significant difference in how they perceive our faith community. Your words will help them persevere in their journey with Christ and officially feel welcomed into this blessed SHoJ community! ~Thank You for sharing the love of Christ!

Congratulations on the Rite of Welcome and Acceptance this past weekend!

Saint of the Week, St. John Damascene Feast Day is December 4

St. John Damascene (676 -749) was the son of the chief of the revenue department in the city of Damascus. Through his father, he received a classical and theological education and attempted to follow in his footsteps by serving in a government position. However, the Lord was calling him to a different life, and a few years later he resigned from his position and went to the Monastery of St. Sabas, where he wrote books and composed hymns along with his adopted brother, Cosmas.

St. John Damascene is best known for his writings against the iconoclasts, who opposed the veneration of images; his treatise, Exposition of the Orthodox Faith, a summary of the Greek Fathers; and his work as a poet, one of the two greatest of the Eastern Church. His devotion to the Blessed Mother and his sermons on her feasts are well known.

Blest Art Visiting SHOJ

Blest Art will be visiting our parish on December 4-5 on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Their mission is to support those families in the Holy Land. When Blest Art visits our parish, they will have hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries, and many other pieces of beautiful olive wood art. We kindly invite you to visit their display in Meeting Rooms 1 & 2 and to consider purchasing a piece of art from the Holy Land. In doing so, you will help support the many families who depend on this form or art for their living. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christian families.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

Any human success requires vigilance. Opportunities and powerful moments of encounter can easily be missed when we are not attentive. It is all too easy today to live distracted and preoccupied lives. There is so much vying for our attention that it can be hard to be selective and really focus. Caught up in this whirlwind of busyness and anxiety, we become tired and almost sleepwalk through life. Advent is a time to selectively focus. These beautiful four short weeks are a time to look backward and forward and be attentive to the human journey and God's revelation. From the beginning of time, God has been seeking our attention. He constantly reminds us of the justice he desires to bring and the promise of his abiding unconditional love. Understanding and growing in these truths requires alertness so that we can be strengthened in our faith and prepared for whatever will come.

“BLESSED ARE

THIRST FOR RIGHTEOUS-

– Matthew
5:6

Advent Feast Days to Share with Family

December 6: St. Nicholas Day

- * Learn about this 3rd Century bishop at The St. Nicholas Center.
- * Have kids put their shoes/stockings by the fireplace/front door the night before. Fill them with chocolate coins, candy canes, fruit, nuts or other gifts.
- * Make a homemade card to mail your own bishop, assuring him of your prayers.
- * As patron of bakers, honor St. Nicholas by starting your Christmas baking – and in the spirit of the saint's hidden generosity, secretly deliver the goodies to neighbors.
- * As patron of children, honor St. Nick by asking the children's hospital if there is anything they need – toys, cozy stockings, or hospitality items for the families of sick kids.
- * Recite 'Twas the Night Before Christmas. Add a St. Nicholas prayer to mealtime grace.

Formed.org Feature of the Week for KIDS

Zeal and excitement are a part of every child. This picture book celebrates a young boy's enthusiasm to put into practice the words of Christ: to feed and clothe the poor, help the needy, and love one's neighbor.

As Thomas shows his family the items he has packed into his suitcase after hearing a stirring homily at church, they marvel at his inventiveness and loving heart—he is traveling to the Kingdom of Heaven, and he knows what it takes to get there! Thomas and his family figure out a way, with his suitcase, to accomplish the goal that Thomas is so excited about: to arrive at the Kingdom.

21st Annual Angel Tree Gift Drive

“I, THE LORD, YOUR GOD, TEACH
YOU WHAT IS FOR YOUR GOOD, AND LEAD YOU ON THE WAY YOU SHOULD GO.”

– Isaiah
48:17

Spread the true joy of Christmas, by participating in the 21st Annual Sacred Heart Angel Tree. This is our opportunity to provide a brighter Christmas to others in our community. Many needs have been brought our way! Angel Tree works with numerous local organizations to gather requests from our community, in turn allowing us to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

The Angel Tree is Virtual again this year, so scan the barcode on the sign in the Narthex and choose from the MANY gifts needed this year. Buy the gift noted on the tag, wrap your gift and return the package to the tree on November 27-28 or December 4-5.

May God bless the Sacred Heart community with the true spirit of Christmas through the love and peace of his Son, Jesus Christ. Any questions, please contact Carol A. Coyle 913.441.1851 or email cac\_537@yahoo.com.

St. Mary's Food Kitchen

The Food Kitchen is serving warm meals in their dining room. We will be serving a full, warm meal of meatloaf and all the fixings. Our day to serve is Tuesday, December 14. Please look for sign up in the Friday email to donate food (25 meat loaves, 10 desserts and 10 loaves of bread/water are needed) and/or volunteer on that day. Thank you for helping to feed the hungry!

Everyday Stewardship Recognize God in your Everyday Moments

Preparing the Manger

Where do you fall in the “Christmas-songs-in-November” debate — do you like them, tolerate them, or outright hate them? There’s no theological problem with Christmas songs in November outside of worship, even if it’s not everyone’s cup of tea. But there is a problem with getting so caught up in the baggage of the season — the trimmings, the gifts, the celebrations, all of which are marvelous in their own way — that you forget to prepare the manger.

Every good Catholic knows that Lent is a penitential season. It’s hard to miss that point — Lent doesn’t even have any fun songs you can groove to on the radio. We are pretty good at recognizing that Lent calls us to examine ourselves. To deny ourselves. To give of ourselves. And most of all, Lent calls us to prepare, as a good steward does, for the return of our master. It’s harder for us to remember that with Advent, but Advent is just as much of an opportunity for penance, preparation, and reconciliation to God — and just as much reason, too. The very name of the season — “advent” — encourages us to focus on what is coming, not what is already here. Be on guard, the readings tell us today, “so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and (the coming of the Lord) catch you unexpectedly, like a trap.”

So let us not forget — our master’s advent is upon us. And let us ask ourselves: how can we prepare the manger?

Why do we do that? Q&A

Question: How are the feasts of the baptism of Jesus and the account of the wedding feast of Cana related to the Epiphany celebration?

Answer:

The Epiphany season focuses on revealing Jesus to the world. Following the Christmas celebration, the liturgical year lays out a series of manifestation points in which Jesus is made publicly known. From its very beginning, the Christian community highlighted three events in the life of Jesus. These are the Epiphany, the Baptism of the Lord and the wedding feast at Cana.

The Epiphany discloses Jesus to the world of the Gentiles, represented by the magi from the East. The accounts of Jesus' baptism reveal his identity and mission, along with exposing him to those to whom he was sent to minister. The miracle of turning water to wine at the wedding feast of Cana, unique to John's Gospel, is the first public sign that Jesus performs, thus manifesting his public identity and his powers.

Today in the Roman Church, these are usually celebrated on three successive Sundays: Epiphany, the Baptism of the Lord which is usually the next Sunday, and the wedding feast of Cana, which is proclaimed on the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time in lectionary year C.

These feasts connect around the concept of epiphany, public manifestation of Jesus to the world. They help us get to know more intimately who Jesus is and what he is about. Spend some time delving more deeply into your understanding of who Jesus is. Continue to cultivate these "epiphany" moments in your life.

"Honor the LORD with your wealth, with first fruits of all your produce..." Proverbs 3:9

DID YOU KNOW? Even if you don't itemize deductions for 2021, the IRS allows taxpayers to deduct up to $300 ($600 if married; filing jointly) on your tax return? If you have yet to offer a monetary gift this year, this is a great way to reduce your tax bill while at the same time assisting Sacred Heart with our operating budget shortfall! Already giving? Please consider an extra "one time amount" before December 31st. THANK YOU!!!
