Parish Bulletin

December 19, 2021 | 4th Sunday of Advent

Fr. Pat Sullivan, Pastor

Our Parish Mission: We, the faith community of Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church, faithful to the teachings of the magisterium, are committed to forming Disciples of Christ by embracing Stewardship through Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service.

WELCOME We're So Glad You're Here

God created humanity for greatness and calls each of us to continually grow in holiness. This is no small task and something we can't do on our own. So Jesus gave us the Church and its many treasures to guide us; providing a perfect road map to salvation. It's my prayer that everyone comes to know the truth of the gospel.

I want to take this opportunity to personally invite you to grow deeper in your faith, and allow myself, and the many other professionals and volunteers at SHOJ to assist you however we can; let's help each other get to heaven. You can't do it without the Church, and we can't do it without YOU.

Our doors are open to any and all who desire to hear the truth in a loving and peaceful setting. As a physician of souls, I care deeply about your well-being, and want to help you stay spiritually healthy. If it's been awhile since you've had a "checkup," come on in and we'll chat. If there's anything else we can do for you, please ask.

I look forward to ministering to you as your spiritual Father.

In Peace,
Fr. Pat Sullivan

Daily Gospel Reflections from The Word Among Us	Emotions are temporary but God is eternal. He is always with you, even in life's difficulties. Like Mary, you can always trust that God knows the right path for you.	In the next days before Christmas, be alert to the Lord's presence, both in silent prayer and in the people around you. Believe that as you open your heart, he will fill it w/joy.	These days will have distractions but stay focused on the One who is present in the manger and in your heart. Trust that if you do, his goodness will shine through you!

In Sympathy:

Let us remember in our prayers the repose of the soul of recently departed Michael J. Hiersche, brother of brother of Raymond Hiersche of our Parish.

Recycle Advent Candles

Arts and Environment will be accepting used advent candles through January 9. Look for a labeled basket in the Narthex. We will recycle your purple, pink and white candles into new candles to be used next year! Thank you.

Reflect on the Word

First Reading: Micah prophesied a Messiah (“ruler”) would come through the line of David (“Bethlehem-Ephrathah”) and bring peace and harmony. In what ways does the upcoming birth of Christ bring you comfort?

Second Reading: As the season of Advent draws to a close, the author of Hebrews reminds us that as disciples of Christ, we must strive to do God’s will above all else. How do you stay focused on such an important task?

Gospel: Luke is the only Evangelist to record the story of Mary visiting Elizabeth and only a portion of their conversation was preserved. What else do you imagine they talked about

Advent Meditations

Fourth Sunday in Advent

Rest. It’s ok to rest! In fact, it’s a law of growth, whether in nature or in our bodies’ health, that rest is an essential component for recovery.

In the quiet soil, life grows. And in the quiet soil of Advent, we’re asked to stay and wait a little longer, allowing Christ to take root and grow in us.

Mary waited and trusted in the Lord, and when it came time to act, as we hear in the reading this Sunday, she acted in haste, not delaying in visiting her cousin Elizabeth who would bear John the Baptist.

While it’s tempting to cram in every last-minute item for the Christmas feast this week, it’s important to find time to be still and meditate on this great mystery that God became man.

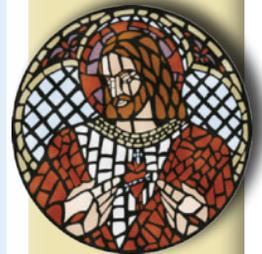

Rest. And let God do the work.

Questions for Additional Reflection:

- Do you find it difficult to rest?
- Is it easy or difficult for you to trust that God is at work and in control?
- What’s one thing you can do to slow down this week and allow time for prayer?

Generosity Challenge: Family

“Love begins at home, and it is not how much we do, but how much love we put in the action that we do.” Mother Teresa

One of the greatest parts of the Christmas season is the opportunity to be surrounded by our family and loved ones. It’s easy to grow distant throughout the year, so it is such a blessing to have time together to celebrate during the holidays.

As we prepare for Christmas this Advent season, let us be intentional about loving and appreciating those closest to us. Sometimes it is our family that is most difficult for us to be vulnerable with, reach out to, and evangelize.

The Lord showed us the beauty, dignity, and importance of the family when He entered into the world through the Holy Family at the first Christmas. With grateful hearts for the gift of our own families, let us strive to love them better this Advent season.

Here are a few ways you can extend generosity to your family this Advent. Pick one or two that you’d like to commit to this season!

- Tell your parents that you love them
- Invite a family member to come to Mass with you
- Pick up an extra chore to help out a family member
- Ask your spouse and children how you can better love them
- Tell a family member you will pray for them - then actually do
- Reach out to a family member you haven’t spoken to in a while
- Set aside time to do something your spouse or children love most
- Ask your children (especially the little ones) how you can pray for them
- Buy a family member a special treat - something simple like a coffee or their favorite pastry!
- Take a minute at a family meal to go around the table to say something you love about each member of your family

Saint of the Week, St. Peter Canisius Feast Day is December 21

Born in Holland, St. Peter Canisius (May 8, 1521 – December 21, 1597) was a preacher, teacher, and writer throughout his whole life. At the age of 19, he received a master’s degree from the university at Cologne. Soon afterwards, St. Peter met Peter Faber, the first disciple of Ignatius of Loyola, who influenced him so much that he eventually joined the Society of Jesus.

St. Peter Canisius founded colleges and seminaries, served as a missionary, cared for the sick or imprisoned, and wrote close to eight volumes of letters — many about St. Cyril of Alexandria and St. Leo the Great.

A man blessed with many talents, St. Peter Canisius is a wonderful example of a man who developed his talents to further God’s work here on earth.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

Did you ever find yourself wishing that God would just step in and fix all that is wrong with the world? After all, how much longer can all of this go on? There is so much inequity in life. Our world's political, economic, and environmental systems do not always serve the best interests of people. We read stories about injustice, disregard for human life, greed, heartache, and people being hurt and deprived every day. People are still starving and there is often little regard for human life. This is not the way God intended it to be. Realizing that we have caused most of these problems ourselves, we look to God for an answer and a way out of the difficulties we have created. Taking responsibility for our actions is not something that comes easily. What we fail to see is that God has already sent the answer in the person of Jesus Christ. God did fix our problem! Mary had to set her needs aside in order for the Son of Justice to come into the world. We need to do the same. It is only by believing in, listening to, and acting upon what God has spoken that true peace will ever come to be, and God's fix be made known.

Family Daily Conversations & Prayer Starters

- Sunday, December 19

What is involved in opening your home to a guest? (share time/space, consideration of their needs/wants, get to know better) What does it mean to be "open to" an idea, a possibility, help, a person? (not self-sufficient) What is being open to God?

- Monday, December 20

How would you feel meeting an important person? (excited, nervous, unimportant) Jesus is greater than any world figure, yet he entered the world as a newborn, in poverty. What does this reveal about God... for yourself... for the world?

- Tuesday, December 21

On the year's darkest day, our wreath is bright—as the sky before sunrise. Jesus, our Light, is coming! What is your relationship to light? (helps see, allays fears, allows work, brings joy) How can Jesus be Light?

- Wednesday, December 22

Emmanuel means "God is with us." In the Old Testament, God dwelt with the Israelites in a tent. John 1 says Jesus became "flesh" and made his dwelling ("pitched his tent") among us. Sunday's Gospel tells of Elizabeth and her child sensing the physical presence of Jesus inside of Mary – dwelling in her. In an ordinary day, how is "God with you"? How do you shut/open to him?

Formed.org Feature of the Week for Families

Based on Milam McGraw Propst's award-winning novel, A Flower Blooms on Charlotte Street, The Adventures of Ocjee Nash is a delightful and inspiring film you won't soon forget! Although nine-year-old Ocjee loves roaming Mississippi's 1898 rural landscape, her widower father (Keith Carradine) feels that Ocjee lacks a role model to help her become a "young lady." So, Ocjee boards a train to North Carolina, to be raised by her Aunt Mamie (Mare Winningham).

Although Ocjee meets heroes like the Wright Brothers and the U.S. President, she ultimately proves that she, too, is capable of greatness in this heartwarming, rewarding film the whole family will enjoy.

Entering into Advent for TEENS

Life Hacks for Advent

- Tune into some lovely Advent jamz and hold off on the Christmas hits until the Christmas season... well at least try your best. You can only listen to “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel” so many times until you need a little “Joy to the World” in your life.
- If people say “happy holidays” to you while you’re shopping for Christmas gifts, don’t get in a high and mighty rage and demand that they say “merry Christmas” to you... just remember that Christ dwells in every human being, that they are worthy of love, smile and say “thank you.”
- Spend a little bit more time in prayer, preparing your heart for the coming of Christ... and preparing your mind for the many Hallmark Christmas movies you’ll have no choice but to watch.
- Bake something sweet for a friend. Or a foe.
- Stop thinking about what’s on your Christmas list for a minute and try being Santa Claus to someone in need.
- Try walking around with an attitude of gratitude, even while department stores and online marketplaces try to cultivate an attitude of greed... nobody likes a Scrooge.

Everyday Stewardship Recognize God in your Everyday Moments

Baby Jesus' Wish List

Odds are you've got a Christmas list going by now — gift ideas for everyone from your nephew to your goddaughter to your mailman. But what about the birthday boy? What's the gift Jesus gets from you this Christmas?

If you've ever read the Book of Leviticus, you know all about the sacrifices God asks of the Israelites, referred to in the reading from Hebrews today. Leviticus can be a chore to read — a little repetitive, a little intimidating. There's a lot of very specific actions that God asks His Chosen People to complete to make up for whatever they have done wrong. In essence, it's a bit of a wish list for gifts. But it's a wish list that can really confuse you. What's God going to do with a cereal offering? The kidneys of an animal? If you look closely, what God is doing here is beautiful. He's customized his wish list to only those things He knows the Israelites can give. It's God saying, in what amounts to theological baby-talk for folks who barely know of Him and His ways, exactly how they could be stewards. "Do this, but don't do that. If you do that, do this and you will find My mercy." Our guide to stewardship — the Gospels of Christ — is less precise because by the time of Christ, God's people have grown in understanding of love and mercy and relationship with the divine. Through Christ, we find out that God's real wish list didn't really consist of cereal offerings and the kidneys of various animals. It's far simpler, but luckily, it's something we still have on-hand. All He wants is our whole heart.

Why do we do that? Q&A

Question: Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Answer: Epiphany means “manifestation,” or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6. In the US, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

This part of Matthew’s infancy narrative differs from Luke’s account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph’s long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text.

Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

“Honor the LORD with your wealth, with first fruits of all your produce...” Proverbs 3:9

As 2021 comes to a close, we are reminded of the beautiful gift God gave us in Jesus. Thank you to all Sacred Heart parishioners who have supported our parish throughout this past year. It is through the generosity of our current parish community that we have been able to chip away at our tithing deficit.

While we are still experiencing a shortfall, we are hopeful that 2022 will bring our community many financial blessings.
