LIFE CHAIN

Since 1973, approximately 62 million people were killed by abortion in the United States. This is about 61 million more than all of the US soldiers in all of the wars since the American Revolution. As a nation, how can we stand idly by and let this continue?

If we took a moment of silence for each person lost to abortion, we would be silent for over 100 years. – Frank Pavone

Today is the day to take a few moments (1 hour) out of your busy life to stand up for those who cannot stand up for themselves. Today is the day that we join thousands across the nation and pray for an end to abortion. Please join us for the Miami County Life Chain. Join us at 2 pm on Sunday, October 3rd in front of Landmark Bank, 1310 Baptiste Dr, to show your support for Life.

Youth Group News

Youth News

It is so wonderful having a good-sized group at youth group! There is such a variety of conversations and viewpoints. (Also sometimes very random.) One thing that is always special is how a group comes together from different ages and different interests to share an hour learning more about their faith and to socialize.

God did not create man to be alone and that is definitely true with youth. They thrive on interacting with their peers, but what about those youth who are left out of the crowd? This was the topic of youth group this week. Cliques are a real part of teenage life (and with many adults). How are we excluding others and what can we do to make those who are "left out" feel more welcome?

Dates

Wednesday, October 6th, 5:45-6:45- J-High youth
7:00-8:00- HS youth

Sunday, October 10th, 10:00 Mass- Confirmation- Rite of Enrollment. Parent/Confirmandi meeting following Mass in church basement.

Sunday, October 10th, 3:00-7:00- Family Festival Tour- Steve Angrisano at Prairie Star Ranch

Peace,
Ms. K.

Friendship is Important for Children

As our kids have been back in the classrooms, some have had a connection with their friends, and some are having feelings of rejection. The pandemic has offered some new challenges for maintaining friendships.

Friendship is important as it can lead us toward growth, connection, and personal improvement. On the other hand, however, it can lead us toward emotional pain, and distractions if we are not careful with those we choose to be our friends. Friends influence our children within three core needs:

1. A Sense of Belonging– Ask, “Do you feel like you belong, or that you have to find ways to fit in with your friends?” In other words, “Are you stressed about what they think of you? Or are you at peace when you’re hanging out with them?”
2. A Sense of Worth– You can ask, “Do your friends make you feel like you’re a valuable person to them? Or are you constantly guessing whether they really care about you and your friendship?”
3. A Sense of Competence– You can ask, “Do your friends build you up and encourage you, or do they constantly put you down?”

These three areas help a child discover their identity and will form a foundation for their identity and character. Ask your child what they like about this friend or these friends. Every relationship has some “give and take.” One of the reasons why friendship is important is that, as friends, our kids can contribute to the growth and encouragement of their friends as well. If children do not form healthy friendships in their formative years, the odds of having relationship issues later in life significantly increase.
