Saint of the Week

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

Young Adults

We had a wonderful College Aged Young Adult Christmas Party at Rudy's Red Eye Grill over the holidays. Whether you're away at college, living at home, working, or doing something else, all college-aged young adults (typically ages 18-24 and post-high school) are invited to update their contact information to reflect your current situation. Make sure you never miss another invite again! Scan the QR code to submit the form. Reach out to Michelle Boris mboris@stmarys-wbl.org to get connected to young adult ministries at St. Mary's.

Youth Ministry Series

St. Mary's is hosting a three-part series on youth ministry, and everyone is invited to join. The second session is on January 26 from 6:30-7:30 PM via Zoom. It will focus on the mission and vision of youth ministry, with an eye toward how we can create that for St. Mary's. In our final session on February 9 (6:30-7:30 PM), we will take the knowledge we have learned to begin brainstorming the mission, vision, and short-and-long term goals for St. Mary's. All parishioners are invited to join for one or all the sessions, whether you're a teen looking for a supportive faith community, a parent, an adult leader, or anyone else interested in how St. Mary's can help young people encounter Christ. Contact Michelle Boris mboris@stmarys-wbl.org with questions and for the Zoom link.

Welcome New Parishioners

Rodger and Jenna Tabet
John and Christy Slawson

Small Groups

We look forward to offering a number of small group options during Ordinary Time. Are you interested in joining a small group and wondering what options are available? Go to the website and fill out a small group interest form. There you will select when and how you can meet and what type of group focus interests you. If you have general questions about small groups at St. Mary's, contact Sr. Mary Kerber for information: mkerber@stmarys-wbl.org.

The Conversion of St. Paul

On Tuesday, January 25, the Church will celebrate the Conversion of St. Paul. We celebrate this feast with particular joy in this archdiocese, named after this great saint. But, as we know from scripture, Paul was not always a saint of the Church. In fact, he persecuted the early Church with great tenacity, including being present for and apparently approving the killing of St. Stephen. Later, Paul (then known as Saul) was on his way to Damascus to arrest men, women and children for professing their faith in Jesus Christ when a light knocked him to the ground and blinded him. The Risen Lord spoke to Saul and, after being led into the city and baptized, Saul became Paul. The one who had persecuted the Church became the Church’s greatest preacher and evangelist. Though persecuted, arrested, beaten and threatened with death, Paul grew in his conformity to Christ in life until, finally, in Rome, he conformed himself to Christ in death. May each of us be able to say with our life as St. Paul did: “I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance.” St. Paul, pray for us and our local Church.

Episcopal Ordination of Bishop-elect Joseph A. Williams

On Dec. 10, 2021, Pope Francis named Father Joseph Williams, a priest of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, as Auxiliary Bishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis.

The Episcopal Ordination of Bishop-elect Joseph A. Williams will take place at 1:00 PM on Tuesday, January 25, Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul the Apostle. The ordination will take place at the Cathedral of Saint Paul and is open to the public. A public reception will follow. The Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis thanks all attendees for wearing masks during the various ordination events. The ordination will be livestreamed on the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis’ Facebook page, carried live on Metro Cable Channel 6 (on cable and online), and broadcast live on Relevant Radio 1330AM. It is also scheduled to replay on Metro Cable Channel 6 Sunday, January 30, 1:30 p.m. Please join in praying for our new auxiliary bishop! Learn more about Bishop-elect Williams and watch video interviews.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus will be handing out information in the Gathering Space this weekend, January 22-23. The Knights of Columbus is a fraternal organization that was founded 140 years ago. Our council was started here at St. Mary's 66 years ago. There are currently almost 200 members of Our Lady of the Lake Council 4145, but new members are needed to carry on the work of defense of life, religious liberty and support for family values. Archbishop Hebda recently wrote in an open letter that was in the Catholic Spirit, "I strongly encourage each man in this Archdiocese over the age of 18 to prayerfully consider joining the ranks of this fine organization. My experience suggests that it may be just the boost that you need— and what our Church needs as well!"

Plan for a day of skiing and snowboarding at Wild Mountain – February 21, 2022.

Adults and families with younger children can take advantage of the group lift rates, drive separately and meet us there. We will have your lift ticket waiting for you. See the St. Mary's website for details and registration form.
