DECEMBER 13, 2020—THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

SAINT ROSE OF LIMA MISSION STATEMENT

Glorify God. Follow Jesus.
Love one another. Invite everyone.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Brothers and Sisters,

As Advent draws closer to Christmas, we contemplate the coming of the Christ-child in the humble nativity scene. In the account of that night the angels sing and the shepherds speak, but Saint Joseph says not a single word. In fact, in the whole Gospel, Joseph has no recorded speech. Only his righteous deeds are written down. While Mary is “Queen of all Saints” and received the transcendent gift of the Immaculate Conception, Joseph also has a lofty place in God’s plan of salvation. He was the bridge between Old and New Testaments, he watched over the Holy Family, and he is invoked as the patron of the Universal Church.

On December 8 this year, our Archdiocese is beginning a special “Year of Saint Joseph.” Like previous commemorations such as the Year of Mercy or the Year of Saint Paul, this spiritual year is meant to bring us into deeper faith, hope, and love through a particular aspect of our life in Christ.

No matter our vocation in life, Saint Joseph has something to teach all of us. To those wanting more faith, Joseph teaches trust in God. To the laborer, Joseph shows the sacred meaning of work. To the husband or wife, Joseph models what Christian married love looks like. To those who are migrants, Joseph makes the pilgrimage of following where God leads. To those who struggle with their sexuality, Joseph is the chaste man calling them to virtue. To those who are afflicted in any way, Joseph is a helper and friend through trials.

All of us should participate personally in this Year of Saint Joseph in some way. Here are some practices you might find helpful starting this Advent and Christmas season:

- Pray the Litany of St. Joseph as part of your daily prayers (right)
- Read Joseph’s story in the gospel infancy narratives of Matthew and Luke.
- Make a consecration to St. Joseph, using a book such as Fr. Donald Calloway’s Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of our Spiritual Father.
- Make a visit to our Holy Family shrine before Sunday Mass.
- Wear a St. Joseph medal and say a prayer when you put it on each day.
- Make a personal pilgrimage to a parish named after St. Joseph.

In the love of Christ,

Father Marc Paveglia

Pastor

FRPAVEGLIO@SAINTROSEOFLIMA.NET

The Litany of Saint Joseph

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

God, the Father of Heaven, have mercy on us.

God the Son, Redeemer of the world, have mercy on us.

God the Holy Spirit, have mercy on us.

Holy Trinity, One God, have mercy on us.

Holy Mary, pray for us (repeat after each line)

Saint Joseph, pray for us...

Renowned offspring of David,

Light of Patriarchs,

Spouse of the Mother of God,

Chaste guardian of the Virgin,

Foster-father of the Son of God,

Diligent protector of Christ,

Head of the Holy Family,

Joseph most just,

Joseph most chaste,

Joseph most prudent,

Joseph most strong,

Joseph most obedient,

Joseph most faithful,

Mirror of patience,

Lover of poverty,

Model of artisans,

Glory of home life,

Guardian of virgins,

Pillar of families,

Solace of the wretched, Hope of the sick,

Patron of the dying,

Terror of demons,

Protector of Holy Church,

Lamb of God, who take away the sins of the world,

Spare us, O Lord.

Lamb of God, who take away the sins of the world,

Graciously hear us, O Lord.

Lamb of God, who take away the sins of the world,

Have mercy on us.

V. He made him the lord of His house:

R. And ruler of all His substance.

Let us pray: O God, who in Your unspeakable providence chose blessed Joseph to be the spouse of Your own most holy Mother: grant, we beseech You, that we may deserve to have him for our intercessor in heaven, whom we reverence as our defender on earth, who lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

CHRISTMAS MASS

Christmas Eve Mass at 2:00pm 4:00pm and 9:45pm; Christmas Mass at 9:00am. Sign Up to attend in-person by December 21 at HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/STROSEMASS or by phone at 651.645.9389.

CHRISTMAS VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

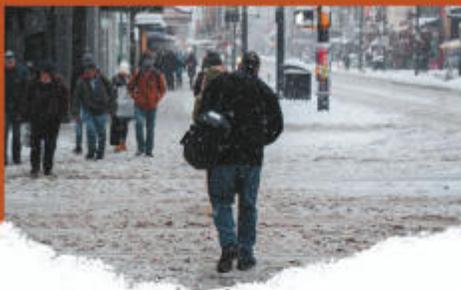

Christmas Cleaners: We're looking for 5 people to help spray and do a quick wipe-down of the pews and other high-traffic areas in the Church on Christmas Eve (after the 2:00 pm and 4:00 pm Masses) and Christmas Day (before the 9:00 am Mass). There are 15 volunteer slots to fill in total. All the cleaning supplies will be provided as well as gloves and extra masks. With a group of 5, it should take no more than 20-30 minutes.

This is a great chance for anyone looking for volunteer hours, or anyone who would just like to help out the parish at one of our busiest times of the year!

Sign up at HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/SRCLEAN or by calling 651.645.9389. Thank you!

Art & Environment: Helpers needed Sunday, December 20 at 10:00 a.m. to help decorate the Church. Masks are required; there is plenty of space to spread out given the many parts of the Church that will be decorated.

Additional helpers needed January 10 at 10:00 a.m. to change decorations from Christmas to ordinary time/winter.

Winter Clothing Drive for Veterans

Extended through Advent - Drop off new or gently used winter clothing at Church. For more information, or to request a pickup of donation, please call Tom (612.968.4416)

ADVENT PROJECT

Merry Christmas Saint Rose! It is time for the 41st Annual Giving Tree. Saint Rose Girl Scout Troop 57542 invites you to participate either in person or virtually. All donations will be going to help those at Theresa Living Center in East St. Paul and Tubman Shelter.

Due to Covid-19, everything is a little different this year. In order to change with the times, we are adding a virtual giving tree option for those who are not attending church in person. To donate virtually, visit our wish list at <https://www.dreamlist.com/for/strosegivingtree>. Please note that gifts purchased virtually will have to be dropped off at the church. We will also be sharing this link on our Facebook page for easy reference.

If you choose to donate in person, Christmas trees with gift tags will be located at the church entrances starting on December 4th. Please take a tag, purchase the gift listed, return the unwrapped gift with the tag attached, and place it back under the tree. Gifts must be dropped off by December 21st. Gift cards are also a wonderful contribution. Donations can also be made by check to Saint Rose.

Thank you for your generosity this Advent Season! If you have any questions, please contact troop leader Jeanna Palkowitsch at palkowitschj@gmail.com or leave a message with the Parish Center and the troop will get back to you.

Are covid-19 vaccines morally acceptable to receive?

Several covid-19 vaccines, using different biological mechanisms, are currently being researched, submitted for emergency authorization, and shipped for distribution. While vaccines have the ability to greatly reduce suffering, illness, and death, Catholics should rightly ask questions about whether such advancements are created using moral methods.

A particular problem is the association of using the tissue of aborted unborn children to develop fetal cell lines, as has happened in the past. The California Catholic Conference has studied the Pfizer and Moderna covid-19 vaccines and recently stated that they are "morally acceptable" to use. The Charlotte Lozier Institute, a pro-life research institute, also affirms that the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines are ethically "uncontroversial" and do not use any abortion-derived cell lines. Other vaccines in development (e.g. AstraZeneca) are ethically problematic, but if these two early mRNA vaccines make it to public distribution first then Catholics can be confident about receiving them for the sake of their own health and their neighbor's.

— Father Paveglio

OUR PEOPLE

Steve Laumakis didn't waste any time becoming a volunteer at Saint Rose. Shortly after he and his wife Mary joined the parish he signed up to be a religious education teacher. He has been a Wednesday evening fixture in the classroom for 29 years, likely one of the longest serving instructors.

"I owe a debt to the nuns who taught me at Incarnation School in Philadelphia," says Steve, "and this is my way of recognizing what they did for me." He received the Jane Stuckynski Memorial Award for extraordinary service to the Religious Education program at Saint Rose.

He was a full-time 7th grade teacher for three years at Immaculate Conception school in Jenkitown, PA. He also taught religious education at a parish in South Bend, IN while he was getting his Ph.D. in philosophy at Notre Dame.

After kindergarten Steve only attended Catholic schools, including Cardinal Dougherty High School (at one time the largest Catholic school in the world with 6,000 students), St. Joseph's University, St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, Villanova University and Notre Dame. Since 1990 he has taught in the Philosophy Department at the University of St. Thomas. "I wanted to be a teacher since I was in the fifth or sixth grade," says Steve. "It was just a matter of discovering what I wanted to teach."

Other things to know about Steve and Mary:

- Steve taught grades five through eight at Saint Rose. He has also been on the Parish Council and the school advisory board, and a Eucharistic minister. Both he and Mary coached sports while their girls were in the parish school.
- Mary, who goes by the name Mary Thomas, was raised in Caledonia, NY, and graduated from Hamilton College where she played soccer and softball. She met Steve on a Notre Dame softball field while pursuing her M.A. degree. "I showed up expecting to play third base," says Steve. "I saw Mary playing the position much better than I could and I headed for the outfield." Mary received a Ph.D. from the University of Minnesota where she is administrative specialist for the Program in the History of Medicine and teaches in the History of Science and Technology program.
- The two Laumakis daughters graduated from Saint Rose School and DeLaSalle High School. Maggie is a senior at Drexel University studying fashion apparel design. Molly is a freshman at the University of Chicago majoring in physics and astronomy. Both girls are long-time Irish dancers.

Update on Religious Education Classes

Religion classes for Grades 2 through 9th Grade Confirmation are currently being lived streamed into students' homes. In person Sunday classes for our little ones—age 4 through First Grade—are on hiatus until at least January 10, 2021.

We, like the rest of the state, are closely watching as circumstances continue to unfold, and are trying to make the safest possible decisions for you, our parishioners. We will be in constant contact with our parents and have appreciated your gracious adaptability as events occur.

Please don't hesitate to either call or email the Religious Education Office or Program Coordinators with any questions or concerns that may arise. Our complete staff information is in the directory page of each bulletin, or on the Saint Rose of Lima website.

Note: Temporarily, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, (R.C.I.A.), and the Transforming Grief Group are both being conducted over Google Meet. You can call Debbie McPherson if you are interested in participating in one of these offerings.

Books on Loss of Dreams and Finding Hope are Available

Whether you attend the Transforming Grief Group at Saint Rose or not, books by author, teacher, and presenter, Ted Bowman, on loss of dreams and finding hope when dreams are shattered through loss, are available in the Saint Rose Faith Formation Office. Contact Director, Debbie McPherson for assistance, (651.357.1212).

Our parish grief support group will begin discussions on these topics January 4 at 10:00 am. More details to follow.

Advent Wreath Prayer

The Third Week of Advent

Three candles are lit.

Leader: As we draw near to you, Lord God, keep us aware of your presence in all we do. Come with power to enlighten us by your grace, that we may live in praise and peace all our days. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

SCHOOL NEWS

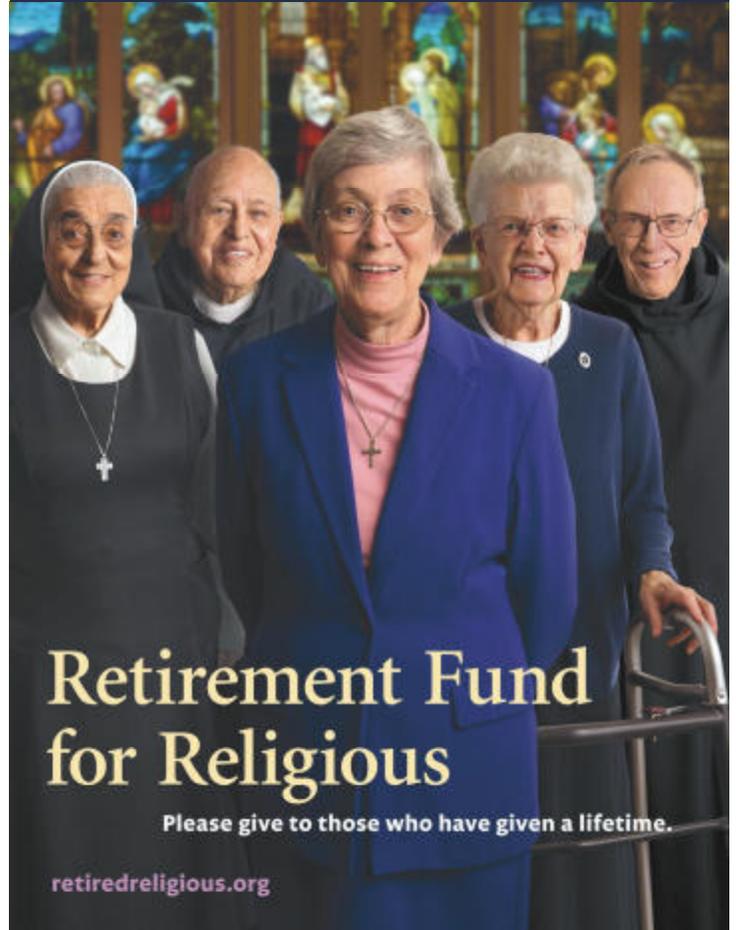

Warm Welcome New Teachers!

Mrs. Ana Thornton, Prekindergarten - Originally from Spain, my family and I were sent as a missionary family to New Jersey when I was young. After receiving a Master's degree in Museum Studies, I worked for eight years in museums in New York, especially in Family Programs and Early Childhood classes. This led me to pursue further training and a degree in Montessori education, after realizing that our youngest learners are just amazing to work with and guide. Both my husband and I are teachers and advocates of our faith and education, and therefore, I am very excited to join the community of Saint Rose of Lima. I have already been struck by the warm welcome from both staff and students alike!

Mr. Chris Smith, Middle School Social Studies/Religion
I am very excited to join the Saint Rose community to serve as the middle school religion and social studies teacher. I grew up on a dairy farm and graduated from Medford High School before going on to earn a degree in history and a secondary social studies teaching license from the University of St. Thomas. I met my wife, Lynn, at St. Thomas and we have raised three children, Joey, 23, a graduate of Concordia University in St. Paul, Emma, 22, a graduate of the University of St. Thomas, and Grace, 17, a senior at Owatonna High School.

I enjoy spending time with my family, baking, reading, walking, exploring the great outdoors, and investigating historical people, places, and events.
