Jesus said to his disciples: “When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me.”

- Jn 15:26

MAY 23, 2021 - Pentecost Sunday

SAINT ROSE OF LIMA MISSION STATEMENT

Glorify God. Follow Jesus.
Love one another. Invite everyone.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Brothers and sisters,

Pentecost means so many things: it is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, the birthday of the Church, the ceaseless impulse to evangelize. A church that is young always remains rooted in the Pentecostal renewal always at work among God's people.

Next fall, Saint Rose is renewing our offerings for young children so that we remain young and rooted in Pentecost:

- Our in-church nursery will serve 3 and 4-year-olds during the liturgy.
- During the school year, young children can attend Children's Liturgy of the Word in the back of church, and then return to their families after the homily.
- First-grade catechesis will be taught approximately once a month after Mass. Parents and other parishioners are invited to stay for fellowship and a concurrent time of adult faith formation.

This summer, our parish will hire a new Director of Evangelization and Catechesis, as well as a Sunday Morning Coordinator. If you or someone you know would like to apply for these positions, contact our parish office.

Happy Pentecost – alleluia, alleluia!

In the love of Christ,

Father Marc Paveglia

Pastor

SCHOOL NEWS

Rose Garden Auction and Gala

A big THANK YOU to everyone who watched, bid, donated, and participated in our virtual Rose Garden Auction and Gala! The evening was a great success! Our online auction brought in just over $8,000 and the Fund A Need raised almost $46,000! If you missed watching the livestreamed event, you can view a recording on the school website's Support page at

HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/SRAUCTIONANDGALA

You can also still help build our Fund A Need account to fund our new music classroom, adjustable basketball hoops for our youngest learners, and lockers and desks for our middle school students. We would happily accept your donations at school or in the collection baskets at church. Please indicate Rose Garden Fund A Need in the memo line of your check. Thank you again for supporting our wonderful school, students, and staff!

Grade 5 Works of Mercy

Our fifth graders have been learning about the sacraments this year and doing works of mercy. Recently, our fifth grade families donated several items that will be donated to the Women's Life Care Center in Little Canada to help young mothers care for their babies. This is a wonderful way to show Christ's love and care for those in need!

WITH APPRECIATION...

Debbie McPherson, Director of Faith Formation, Retires After 31 Years of Service to the Parish

In 1996 Debbie McPherson had been a member of Saint Rose for 22 years, had directed the Sunday pre-school of religion from 1984 to 1990, just received an advanced degree in organizational communications from Bethel University, was a parish trustee and on the hiring committee to select a new Director of Religious Education.

When she came to a committee meeting one day school principal Randy Stanke unexpectedly asked her to interview for the job. Debbie did, and was hired by former pastor Fr. Walter Sochacki, who had come to Saint Rose a couple of years earlier. And by saying “yes” she soon discovered the vision of Fr. Sochacki. “He wanted all phases of faith formation tied together,” recalls Debbie. “That had not been done before.”

Fr. Sochacki’s vision initially proved to be somewhat of a challenge for Debbie. “He wanted a good, solid comprehensive program that served the very youngest through junior high school and Confirmation and adults,” she says. “That first year on the job I selected and worked on a new curriculum for everyone. It also took me into the school—where I had a second office—helping teachers with planning and providing them with support. I also worked with the teachers in planning student participation in the Mass.”

Today, 25 years later, much of Fr. Sochacki’s vision is still apparent in the parish’s religious education program. Debbie, however, is retiring at the end of May, ending a 31-year career of bringing the Word of God to thousands of parishioners and family members.

“My goal from day one was to make the faith formation program the best it could be regardless of how many children participated,” she says. “I wanted both students and parents to have the full Catholic experience.”

As a result of this coordination, most of the school and religious education program have the same curriculum. At the same time Debbie had to get comfortable with the other part of her job—adult education and R.C.I.A.

“I had to scramble to catch up and juggle several balls at the same time,” she recalls. “It was quite a challenge.”

The adult education program, which eventually formed a partnership with Corpus Christi Parish, included R.C.I.A., missions, retreats and many prominent authors/speakers on every aspect of Catholic Life, and also encompassed the annual winter scripture series.

“We had an all-star lineup of speakers, many of them from the University of St. Thomas,” says Debbie. “The winter scripture series, which was held for at least 20 years, often featured scholars who had taken national roles in their area of expertise. For example, Dr. Corrine Carvalho was asked to be an editor when The New American Bible was reviewing their Old Testament. Another, Dr. Elaine James, joined the faculty at the Yale University School of Divinity shortly after presenting a series to our group. We were so fortunate to have such a group of stellar speakers at our parish events.”

Another achievement that makes Debbie proud: In her 23 years directing R.C.I.A. only one candidate stepped back from the program. “That is remarkable,” she says.

As Debbie retires as Director of Faith Formation she has no doubt about the most rewarding part of her job. “Without question the people of Saint Rose. I have met so many accomplished and kind people, and a lot of wonderful families. They have gifted me with so many fond memories.”

She says being a member of the parish often helped her in the job. “I was able to stay connected to parishioners through the programs and through worshipping with them,” says Debbie. “And that gave them easy access to me.”

In retirement she is staying involved with the parish that has been her home for 47 years, leading the monthly transforming grief ministry and joining the women’s discussion group. Her travels will have her heading west—one son lives in Colorado and another in California. Her third son lives in Woodbury.

Words are inadequate when thanking Debbie for all she has done for our parish. Her incredible service to the Saint Rose faith formation program is deeply appreciated by all. We wish her joy and contentment in retirement. It is richly deserved. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts. You will be missed!

OUR PEOPLE

Growing up in a fishing village in the Philippines, the most Catholic nation in Asia, and the third largest Catholic country in the world, Susana Aries-Winton participated in some of the most sacred traditions—sacramental practices, devotions to saints, especially to Mary through the Holy Rosary, novenas, pilgrimages, reenactment of events during Lent and Easter, Flores de Mayo, Misa de

Gallo, fiestas to celebrate a patron saint and processions. On Easter Sunday in 1521 the first Catholic Mass was celebrated in the Philippines by a priest chaplain of the Spanish explorers. This past March marked 500 years of Christianity in the Philippines.

“Faith and education are at the top of my family’s list of values,” she says. “My parents would identify us as Roman Catholics first before being a Boholano (from the island of Bohol). I am so appreciative of being a cradle Catholic. What a blessing to be raised in the one and only Catholic faith of truth, goodness and beauty, and experiencing the fullness of the faith.”

The first Mass Susana attended when she came to America in 1993 was at Saint Rose. She officially registered in 2002 when her son Nikko started at Saint Rose School. Another reason is the Adoration Chapel. “It’s a beautiful and peaceful place of refuge and a sanctuary to create a closer and more intimate relationship in the real presence of our Lord Jesus Christ,” she says.

Susana is a regular Lector (as is son Nikko), a member of the choir and a member of the Legion of Mary. The Pentecost Mass this weekend is special to Susana because she has been a foreign language reader (Visayan dialect) for several years.

Other things to know about Susana:

- Before coming to America Susana received a degree in accounting from a Catholic college, Divine Word College. She has been working at one of the business units of a leading global financial printing, communications and technology solutions company in St. Paul for 22 years. Her hobbies include cooking, gardening, traveling and shopping. She also loves camping, hunting and fishing. As the daughter of a fisherman she grew up eating seafood and other edible marine life such as jellyfish, seaweed, sea cucumber, shark and sting ray as part of her regular diet.
- Husband Randy Winton (in photo with Susana and Nikko) read about Susana’s story as a Filipino immigrant in an Asian American newspaper and began searching for her. Finally, on a Sunday afternoon in 2003 he found her at the Lexington and Larpenteur Fanny Farmer store where she worked as a manager. Seven years later Randy became Catholic. “One of the most joyful times in our married life was every time Randy and I prayed together in the Adoration Chapel,” she recalls. Randy passed away in 2015.
