REFLECTION

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What We Carry from Town to Town

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don't.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we've been — whether it's a private home or a public bathroom — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we're tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the "town" God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don't let a past disappointment constrain you. Don't allow yesterday's failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today's witness, whatever form it might take.

YOUTH MINISTRY

God, creation, and children – Youth Ministry at Como Zoo!

This past week Youth Ministry visited Como Zoo. After we had surveyed impish orangutans, muscular gorillas, and vibrant flamingos, I asked the students what they had learned about God. “He’s amazing!” gasped a 7th grade boy.

The work of an artist tells us about that particular artist. As God’s handiwork, creation tells us about God. He is beautiful, majestic, fierce, and even wild!

There’s more! By observing God’s creation, I can discover, at least in part, the way that God intends the world to be. The author of Genesis observes that God creates human beings as male and female (Gen 1:27). God says, “Be fruitful and multiply” (Gen 1:28). Then, God pronounces his completed work, “very good” (Gen. 1:31). According to Genesis, God wants human beings to be male and female; and, as men and women, God wants them to have children. Back at the Zoo, I asked the students where a baby monkey comes from. “It’s mother!” someone said. “Who else?” I asked. In fact, a baby monkey comes from its mother and its father. This is no fluke. No flaw in the system. When God made the world, he willed that monkeys, tigers, bears – and yes, especially human beings - have both a mother and a father.

The author of Genesis agrees. The natural world agrees. Every child has a mother and a father. That is why, at least in part, the Catholic Church teaches that marriage can only be a union between one man and one woman.

We had a great time at Como Zoo! If you would like to be involved in Youth Ministry activities, don't be shy! Message Maria Philips at MKRAKER@SAINTROSEOFLIMA.NET

Rejoicing at the Gift of Faith

Wednesday of the Fifteenth Week in Ordinary Time

At that time Jesus exclaimed: “I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike.”

Matthew 11:25

This passage is in stark contrast to the passage just before it in which Jesus chastised the towns of Chorazin, Bethsaida and Capernaum for not repenting and believing in Him. And as soon as Jesus issued those rebukes, He turned His eyes to Heaven and offered praise to the Father for revealing the hidden mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven to those who were “childlike.”

One of the greatest threats to a pure and childlike faith is intellectual pride. Those who consider themselves as “wise and learned” are often tempted to rely upon their own reasoning abilities to come to conclusions and beliefs in life. The problem is that even though the matters of our faith are fully reasonable, they go beyond the conclusions that human reason alone can achieve. We cannot figure out God by ourselves. We need the gift of faith for that, and the gift of faith begins with a spiritual communication from God through which He reveals to us Who He is and what is true. Only the childlike, meaning, those who are humble, are able to hear this form of communication from God and respond.

This passage also reveals to us that Jesus passionately rejoices in this form of humble faith. He gives “praise” to the Father in Heaven for witnessing such faith, because Jesus knows that this form of faith originates from the Father.

In your life, it is important that you regularly ponder whether you are more like the wise and learned or like those who are childlike. Though God is an infinite and incomprehensible mystery, He must be known. And the only way we can come to know God is if He reveals Himself to us. And the only way God will reveal Himself to us is if we remain humble and childlike.

As we come to childlike faith, we must also imitate the praise that Jesus offered the Father for the faith that He witnessed in the lives of His followers. We, too, must turn our eyes to those who clearly manifest this pure knowledge of God by the gift of faith. As we see this faith lived, we must rejoice and offer praise to the Father. And this act of praise must be given not only when we see faith alive in others, it must also be given when we see the gift of faith grow within our own soul. We must foster a holy awe of what God does within us, and we must rejoice in that experience.

Reflect, today, upon Jesus giving praise to the Father as He witnesses the faith born in the hearts of His followers. When Jesus looks at you, what does He do? Does He issue chastisements? Or does His Sacred Heart rejoice and give praise for what He sees. Give joy to the Heart of Christ by humbling yourself to the point that you, too, are counted among the childlike who truly know and love God.

My rejoicing Lord, You are attentive to the workings of grace in every human heart. As You see the Voice of the Father speaking to Your children, You rejoice at such a sight. Dear Lord, I pray that my own heart will be the cause of Your joy and Your praise of the Father in Heaven. Please speak to me and help me to believe with all my heart. Jesus, I trust in You.

EVENTS

Invitation to You from Our Lady to join the Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary here at St. Rose of Lima Church invites all to join us in this nine-million member strong, international Apostolate dedicated to serving God under the banner of Mary through the Spiritual Works of Mercy.

Active members meet on Mondays at 10:30 am in the Parish Community Room of St. Rose of Lima Church. The Community Room is next to the Narthex. Active members say the Rosary and Legion Prayers (of the Tessera) together. Meetings are about one hour in length.

Auxiliary members, who do not attend meetings, support the Legion through the Holy Rosary and through the Legion Prayers in the Tessera. Tessera is a Latin word, used in the Roman Army to signify a “watchword” which fostered unity. The “prayers” of the Tessera are the “watchword” of the Legion, and unite us in prayer to the Holy Spirit and to Our Lady.

Discover the power of the Holy Rosary, and strengthen your personal devotion to the Holy Spirit and to Mary!

To learn more about “Mary’s Army” email Kathyne (Kay) Kuhns at KKUHNS1696@CENTURYLINK.NET or call her at 651.647.4927.

OUR PEOPLE

Val and Mary Lou

Val Gyurci’s first association to Saint Rose began in 1953 when her family moved to Hamline Avenue directly across the street from the church. She has maintained this connection to the parish for more than six decades. During that time she formed a special relationship with a cousin and parishioner Mary Lou Gavin, and discovered the enduring value of the Adoration Chapel.

“This is the only church I have been a part of since I moved to this area,” she says. “Right now this is the happiest and most content I have been as a member of Saint Rose.”

Connecting with Mary Lou (right in photo) got Val involved in the Keystone Food Shelf and the money-counting group. She was also a member of the Art and Environment team.

The Adoration Chapel has been a special blessing to Val. She has been a regular adorer at the same time for more than 30 years. “Before Adoration I was not a lot into prayer,” she recalls. “But having that special time set aside for prayer has been so rewarding. Now I schedule my activities around my Adoration hour. It is a regular part of my life that I really look forward to.”

Other things to know about Val:

- Before Saint Rose her family were members of St. Columba parish. She graduated from Ramsey High School and the College of St. Benedict with a major in home economics and a minor in art. After college Val spent two years in the Peace Corps in Bolivia. She taught in the Mounds View School District for 30 years—at Johanna Junior High and Chippewa Middle School.
- Val is an award-winning quilter. She specializes in wall hangings, with emphasis on free-flowing design.
- Val’s father and Mary Lou’s mother were brother and sister who immigrated as teenagers from what is now Romania, traveling for six weeks to America by boat. Once their parents died the cousins became much closer. “For many years we attended the same Mass at Saint Rose and sat in different areas,” says Val. “Now we sit together at every Mass. It is such a wonderful experience to be with her at Mass.”

Next week in this space you can read all about Mary Lou, including her special connection to the Saint Rose Eucharistic ministry at St. John’s Hospital and what happened once she ended her reluctance to get on an airplane.
