SAINT ROSE OF LIMA MISSION STATEMENT

*Glorify God. Follow Jesus.
Love one another. Invite everyone.*

FROM OUR PASTOR

Brothers and sisters,

This weekend is Commitment Sunday at Saint Rose. Please bring your completed Commitment Cards to Mass and bring it up to the altar at the offertory! You can also send your card via mail, drop it in the collection baskets as they come by at Mass, or use the drop box at the school entrance facing Hamline Avenue.

I want to thank you in advance for your generosity.

Our generosity is an expression of our gratitude to God and our belief that our role in his Kingdom begins now – placing our gifts in his service out of love for God and neighbor. Giving to our parish isn't the only way to serve God's kingdom, but it's a very important way. Our parish is our family, and all of us know the need to take care of our own family even as we look for ways to help other families as well.

As a parish we are striving for a 100% response rate to our Annual Stewardship Renewal, regardless of what you have prayerfully decided in the four pillars of prayer, community, service, and financial generosity. I ask our parish leaders to lead the way and encourage others to do the same.

Tracy Welliver, writes about keeping thanksgiving as the "Main Thing" of the Thanksgiving holiday: "...God is alive. Don't believe the naysayers and the critics. God is alive and well. And God has given you gifts that you could never buy. He has given you time, that if wasted, can't be gained back. He has given you life and a world that is always more good than bad. And if you search your heart and soul, He has given you more than you usually realize. Not one of us is immune to suffering and hardship. But also, not one of us has been given nothing. This week, and every week that follows, make giving thanks the Main Thing. If you commit yourself to becoming more grateful, I believe you will be truly surprised. The world will start seeming much different to you before you know it."

In the love of Christ.

SCHOOL NEWS

Our Grades 3 and 4 had a friendly competition to see which class could "give up" the most Halloween candy to a good cause. All proceeds were donated to the Minneapolis Ronald McDonald House. The Ronald McDonald House provides housing and support for families with seriously ill children.

The mountains of candy will be shared with families staying at the facility. Congratulations to both the Third and Fourth Grade classes on a very successful service project!

COMMUNICATIONS

Did you know Saint Rose has a new staff role supporting communications? All communications about events, opportunities, small groups, or activities from Saint Rose of Lima, now goes through the Communications Coordinator, Leah Heselton.

What is a Communications Coordinator, though? Leah's role is to develop, implement, and maintain the parish communication channels and create the content, printed and digital, for publication. The intent is to align the messaging from the parish, staff, and all those involved with Saint Rose, with our mission to Glorify God, Follow Jesus, Love One Another, and Invite Everyone.

With Leah's role, all communications will be streamlined to align with the Saint Rose of Lima vision and mission. If you would like your group featured in one or more of the Saint Rose communications channels, contact Leah at LHESELTON@SAINTROSEOFLIMA.NET or by phone 651.357.1215. She will ask you questions about what you want communicated to the parish or the larger community so that it can be broadcasted effectively.

“My life’s work has been aiding individuals, families and organizations discover and build on their strengths to respond more ably to disruptive changes and the resulting loss and grief.”

Ted Bowman is an educator, author and consultant who specializes in change and transition. Ted taught Family Education courses at the University of Minnesota from 1981 to 2014. He was an adjunct faculty member at the University of Saint Thomas from 2006 to 2019, teaching a graduate social work course on grief and loss. His two booklets, Loss of Dreams: A Special Kind of Grief, published in 1994, and Finding Hope When Dreams Have Shattered, published in 2001, are widely used in grief and bereavement settings.

Ted is the father and stepfather of four children, and a grandfather of five “grand” children, four alive, one dead but alive in memory and love. His wife, Marge, died in July 2020. Their rich marriage of 41 years reminds him of the gift of their love, even as he also grieves her death.

Art & Environment

Are you looking for a new way to become involved at Saint Rose? Give Art & Environment a hand this Christmas season! Art & Environment decorates the Sanctuary and church building for each liturgical season. As each season draws to a close, one set of decorations comes down and another goes up. Regardless if you are a creative person full of ideas or you can't draw a straight line with a ruler, there is something for you to do each time we meet. Decorating typically takes a couple hours or so, and it goes a lot faster the more help we have. Come once for an hour or come every time the whole time, we welcome any amount of help! It's also a great opportunity for middle and high school students to rack up some service hours. We hope you'll join us this Christmas season!

OUR PEOPLE

After Leah Heselton joined the Saint Rose staff this summer as Communications Coordinator she quickly learned some things about herself and about the parish and its people.

First, she discovered the joy of commuting—a 35-40 minute drive from her parents’ home in Lakeville to Roseville—which on the face of it doesn’t sound like much fun. However, for Leah it was an ideal way to start her day. “Prayer and meditation was how I spent my 20-minute drive to high school,” she recalls. “That routine was curtailed the past four years in college when my morning started with a two-minute walk to class.

“I missed that quiet time with God,” she continues. “I don’t like beginning my day with distracting thoughts bouncing around in my head. Now, on my ride to Saint Rose, I have gone back to meditation in the morning. I pray the rosary and listen to Bible-reading podcasts. I want my focus to be on things that lead me closer to Christ.”

Second, Leah has been very impressed with how many parishioners volunteer so much of their time to the various ministries here. “For example, the Communion services for St. John’s Hospital (currently suspended due to COVID), nursing homes and the homebound is amazing. I have never seen that level of dedication before.”

Third, in her newly-created position, Leah is excited about working with others to create a communications pipeline that will streamline and enhance the process for parishioners to publicize their ministry events and other church-related activities. For more information, see page 2.

Other things to know about Leah:

- She grew up in Lakeville, the oldest of four girls. She attended All Saints School (Lakeville) and Holy Cross School (Webster). During her time at New Prague High School Leah started a Christian faith club. She graduated from the University of St. Thomas in May, majoring in English and Catholic Studies. As an undergraduate Leah was involved in campus ministry.
- Leah is back at St. Thomas pursuing a Master’s degree in Catholic Studies. “The fact that the Catholic Studies program has a number of other disciplines integrated into it’s curriculum—theology, philosophy, literature, science and art—is something I really like.”
- An avid reader, Leah reread the Harry Potter books every summer from age nine to 19. She lived in Italy for four months during a University of St. Thomas study abroad program. She learned to speak Italian, but now says her language skills are “pretty rusty.”

In our thoughts and Prayers

Please remember those who have recently died especially Valerie Greenstein. The Saint Rose of Lima parish community extends our sympathy to their families.

REFLECTION ON CHRIST THE KING

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Long Live the King

Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself "Laird So-and-so." Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee.

My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their "king," but most of us have those we think of as "our people."

Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition.

We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends.

There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
