TOGETHER IN SPIRIT

2nd Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come." - Jn 2:4

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 16, 2022

FROM FR. MIKE'S DESK

On the Second Sunday of Ordinary time the Church always proclaims John's gospel story of the wedding at Cana. (John 2:1-11). John reports this as the first sign (manifestation) of Jesus' glory as the Son of God. Three years ago, January 20, 2019 Pope Francis gave his Angelus address concerning this Gospel. He gives wonderful advice to all believers as he reflects on the role of Mary and Jesus' response to her. He tells us:

"And then, let us turn to Mary. The words that Mary addresses to the servants crown the spousal picture of Cana: "Do whatever he tells you" (Jn 2:6). Today too, Our Lady tells all of us to "Do whatever he tells you". These words are a precious legacy that our Mother left us. And indeed, the servants in Cana obey: "Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out and take it to the steward of the feast.' So they took it" (vv. 7-8). Truly, a New Covenant is pledged at this wedding. And a new mission is entrusted to the servants of the Lord, namely, the entire Church: "Do whatever he tells you". To serve the Lord means to listen and to put his Word into practice. It is the simple, essential recommendation of Jesus' Mother. It is the programme for a Christian's life.

I would like to highlight an experience which many of us have certainly had in life. When we are in difficult situations, when problems arise that we do not know how to resolve, when we feel a lot of anxiety and distress, when we lack joy, go to Our Lady and say: "We have no wine. The wine has run out: Look at the state I am in, look at my heart, look at my soul". Say it to the Mother. And she will go to Jesus to say: Look at this one: he or she has no wine. And then, she will come back to us and say: "Do whatever he tells you".

For each of us, drawing from the jar is tantamount to entrusting ourselves to the Word and to the Sacraments in order to experience God's grace in our lives. Then we too, as the steward who tasted the water that had become wine, can say: "you have kept the good wine until now" (v. 10). Jesus always surprises us. Let us speak to the Mother so that she may speak to her Son and he will surprise us.

May she, the Holy Virgin, help us to follow his invitation: "Do whatever he tells you", so that we can fully open up to Jesus, recognizing in everyday life the signs of his vitalizing presence."

STAFF CORNER

We did it! What you might ask? What did we do? We made it through 2021!! Congrats to each and everyone of us. 2021 has been a very tough year for many different reasons and I know I found myself turning to prayer more than ever to calm my fears, find an answer or whatever it was I needed at the time. After reading the following prayer, I found myself with a sense of excitement and hope for the new year, something I have not had for a bit. I hope by sharing it with all of you, it does the same for you and your loved ones.

Prayer for Hope After a Difficult Year

Dear God, Thank you for helping us to make it through this difficult year. Thank you that you've carried us through the uncertainty of deep waters, through the flames of trials, and through the pain of hard losses. We are constantly aware of how much we need you, your grace, your strength, your power working through even the toughest days.

Fill us with your joy and the peace of your Spirit. Direct our hearts and minds towards you. Thank you for your reminder that both in seasons of celebration and in seasons of brokenness, you're still with us. For you never leave us. Thank you for your daily powerful Presence in our lives, that we can be assured your heart is towards us, your eyes are over us, and your ears are open to our prayers. Thank you that you surround us with favor as with a shield, and we are safe in your care.

We choose to press in close to you today and keep you first in our hearts and lives. Without You, we would surely fail, but with you, there is great hope. Thank you for your healing power, thank you for bringing us into this new season up ahead. We look forward to all that You still have in store. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

- Debbie McDaniel

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. But the generosity of God knows no limits—the miracle at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!
