Welcome!

We, the members of St. Patrick Parish are a faith-filled, loving and welcoming community. We strive through the daily living of our Catholic faith to praise and give glory to God. Inspired by Christ's selfless love, we commit ourselves to build up the Body of Christ by being present to all in Christian love.

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free.
- Lk 4:18

El espíritu del Señor está sobre mí, porque me ha ungido...para anunciar la liberación a los cautivos y la curación a los ciegos, para
dar libertad a los oprimidos.
- Lc 4, 18

A MESSAGE FROM DEACON JOHN NASH

Jesus' religious beliefs grew on the word of God. Through boyhood and family life, visits to the synagogue and prayer, he heard the word of the Father. Gradually He knew what it meant. Now was the time to speak that word and to begin His ministry.

For Mary and Joseph this was a proud moment. They had given their time and love to Jesus' upbringing and now it would bear fruit. Today parents worry about the faith of their children. They see a different attitude to religion, prayer, morality and many other aspects of life. They wonder did they do their job well?

Much of the culture today goes against God and religion. Parents cannot fight the culture. But they can hand on the best of the gospel by their own faith and by the way they live their lives, by their love and by speaking the truth as they see it. What is handed on, in faith is beyond words. Be that example.

UN MENSAJE DE DIACONO JOHN NASH

Las creencias religiosas de Jesús crecieron en la palabra de Dios. A través de la niñez y la vida familiar, las visitas a la sinagoga y la oración, escuchó la palabra del Padre. Poco a poco supo lo que significaba. Ahora era el momento de hablar esa palabra y comenzar Su ministerio.

Para María y José este fue un momento de orgullo. Habían dedicado su tiempo y amor a la crianza de Jesús y ahora daría sus frutos. Hoy los padres se preocupan por la fe de sus hijos. Ven una actitud diferente hacia la religión, la oración, la moralidad y muchos otros aspectos de la vida. Se preguntan si hicieron bien su trabajo.

Gran parte de la cultura actual va en contra de Dios y la religión. Los padres no pueden luchar contra la cultura. Pero pueden transmitir lo mejor del evangelio por su propia fe y por la forma en que viven sus vidas, por su amor y hablando la verdad tal como la ven. Lo que se transmite en la fe está más allá de las palabras. Sea ese ejemplo.
