"Christ in the Desert," Ivan Kramskoi (1872)

"Great things begin in the desert, in silence, in poverty, in abandonment. . . The desert teaches us to fight against evil and all our evil inclinations so as to regain our dignity as children of God. It is impossible to enter into the mystery of God without entering into the solitude and silence of our interior desert."

-Cardinal Robert Sarah

Gospel Reflection: 1st Sunday of Lent

St. Oscar Romero said, “Aspire not to have more, but to be more.” These powerful words provide the perfect framework for a conversion oriented Lenten experience. God is giving us this Lenten sign to stop being concerned about what you have and focus on who you are. This requires that we create a desert space and listen more attentively for God to reveal His presence. It is all so wonderfully simple on the one hand and so incredibly challenging on the other. The message is simple: love God, neighbor, and self. Those simple words make great sense, but we struggle translating them into reality. Our attachments, compulsions, obsessions, addictions, routines, and busyness all anchor us to the “idol of the self,” keeping us mired in our compulsive need for self-aggrandizement. It’s not about us!

God vowed, long ago, to nurture, sustain and protect the relationship He has with His people. He called us into being, nurtures us in being, and sustains us in being. Without the Loving Divine Presence, all life would cease. Once we slow down a bit and clear away some of the clutter, we can see how the journey of our life is unfolding. We can see what brings us in and out of tune with God’s love and how we can better imitate God’s loving fidelity in our relationship with Him. In short, we will see our myopic short sightedness and figure out how we can better share the Divine Fire within with others. Lent isn’t just about giving stuff up for forty days and indulging again at Easter. We need to push things much farther and wrestle with the question of how we can be more. “Being more” means becoming more fully alive and in touch with the holiness of life and the divinity that lives in and empowers all beings and things. It is realizing that the “quality” of our presence is crucial to being an effective witness and herald of God’s unconditional love.

The illusion we have bought into causes us to believe that the wrong things and systems matter. We tirelessly fight to keep things the way they are, to return to the former ways of doing things or restore some nostalgic fantasy memory of “life in the good old days.” Lent isn’t about maintaining what we have or returning to something that is gone. It’s about becoming something new. It’s about being more focused, centered, convicted, and grounded so that we can be a person who truly loves and treasures being made in the image of God. The secret to Gospel living is not found in accumulating anything for ourselves, even merit points for heaven. Gospel living means learning how to live with less so that others can live with more. The thought of permanently giving something up makes us feel uncomfortable. Truth often does. ©LPi

Respect Life: Pray for Moms

May all expectant mothers see within their children the light of Christ the Savior.

This month, the Church celebrated the Solemnity of the Presentation of the Lord, commemorating the visit of the Holy Family to the Temple to present the infant Jesus to the Lord, according to Jewish law. The feast of the Presentation recalls that Jesus came to be “a light for revelation” (Luke 2:32), as Simeon declared while prophesying the Christ Child’s mission of salvation. Simeon also prophesied of the Blessed Mother’s role in this redemptive mission, which would include her own crosses.

Each of us is also called to participate in Christ’s mission of salvation, to bear his light in the world, and to see his face in every person. Through the gift of human life, we are invited to encounter God in a profound way. Mothers fulfill this call in a special way, nurturing the lives of their children within themselves. The Blessed Mother’s witness of sacrifice, faithfulness, and humility is an example for us all, and in a special way, for mothers entrusted with God’s gift of new life. Like Mary, may all expectant mothers see within their own children the light of Christ our Savior. (www.respectlife.org)

In-Person Sessions: PreK—Confirmation Classes meet this week!

Armor of Light

During Lent, the third through sixth grade children in the Level III atrium will hear a series of “Armor of Light” scripture meditations to prepare for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In the first meditation, the catechist begins by reading Ephesians 5:8-14a and Romans 13:11-13a: “For you were once darkness, but now you are Light in the Lord” and “Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of Light.”

The children reflect on these passages and ponder the gift of the Light they received at their Baptism. What is this armor that protects the Light? God’s word, the maxims, and the parables. There are times this Light does not shine as bright as it should. We wander away and the Light dims. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the gift of forgiveness of sins and healing is offered and the beautiful Light of Christ received at Baptism is renewed and strengthened.

Over the next several weeks, the children will look at several scripture passages: the Parable of the Insistent Friend, the Healing of the Paralytic, the Prodigal Son, and John 20:21-23, where Jesus gives the ministry of forgiving sins to his Apostles. In addition to studying these scriptures, the children will spend time looking at the Maxims, the beautiful teachings of Jesus, and choosing one to reflect on, work with, and live throughout the week. The focus of the five weeks of meditations given during Lent is on preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation by looking at the Light we receive at Baptism and how we are given the “armor” to protect this great gift by looking at and pondering God’s word, the maxims, and the parables.
