Could This Be You?

Did you request that your photo from the previous directory be used again in our new directory? A parishioner came to the parish office in October trying to get scheduled for an appointment on one of the last dates. Nothing was available that worked, so he requested that we use his previous directory photo. Unfortunately, his name did not get captured. We are hoping this gentleman will read this and recognize the conversation. If so, please call the Parish Office at 651-439-4400 so we can follow through on getting your photo into the upcoming directory. Thank you!

Thank You from Mrs. Dorothy Gerson

A special thank you from Mrs. Dorothy Gerson for all who helped celebrate her 100th birthday at the end of November. Your kind words and presence at her birthday celebration were most appreciated!

Phishing Scams via Text & Email

Just a friendly reminder for parishioners who may receive emails or texts from someone pretending to be Fr. Izen or Fr. Barnes, asking for help and/or money: please be aware this is a phishing scam and never reply to such correspondence. Flagging the email as spam is helpful, but please do not reply to such emails or texts. If you are unsure about a communication appearing to come from parish staff, please call your parish office.

Parish Nurse News

Are you the parents or caretaker of someone with special needs? When I took this position 3 years ago, one of my focus points was to make sure our most vulnerable families had the support they needed. This is an area of need I am passionate about as the parent of a 17-year-old with various medical/cognitive needs. I am hoping to start a support group sometime after the holidays where we can gather for coffee, treats, and prayer, supporting each other as we walk this journey with our loved ones. Please email me at mgibbons@costm.org if this is something you would be interested in partaking in! -Mrs. Maria Gibbons, Parish Nurse

Nativity Celebrations in the Atria

“And the angel said to her in reply, “The holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God” (Luke 1:35). The children’s voices rise up singing hymns of Christmas celebration in the atriums this time of year. In Luke’s gospel, we hear the story of the birth of Jesus. Even though they may be familiar with this account, the children look forward to its proclamation in the Atrium. The children are drawn to this story as they hear how the great and the small are placed side by side. We read about a tiny baby being welcomed by angels. His birth is announced to lowly shepherds. He is visited by kings, yet laying in a manger. We spend time in the atrium after reading the narratives to reflect together on each moment, asking questions to provoke deeper thought. Who is this Baby? What gift would you bring Him? Who would you share Baby Jesus with? We end the celebration with songs of joy and thanksgiving!
