12th Sunday OT - Fr. Leo

The disciples experience a crisis in today's gospel. While out on the water, gales of wind threaten their lives. Full of fear and anxiety they plea to Jesus to save them. Coming out of his peaceful sleep, he calms the wind and the waters.

Then comes a greater challenge. Jesus says to them, 'Why are you so frightened. How is it you have no faith?' Trusting when life is in peril is a lot to ask. Here the disciples who had witnessed Jesus's power to heal, were still scared to death.

It takes time to come to the fullness of faith. Maybe next time the disciples would be a little more calm about things. As we age and mature, life's experiences can be the arena to grow in faith. Over time, as we continue to trust in God, we slowly come to that inner peace no matter how many or big the crisis is in our lives.

This is a gift we grow into by being open to the internal journeys of our soul. I believe older people who age well, are models here. As they age with grace and every moment becomes a gift, they teach us the beauty of life even as physical life slowly takes away all we think is important in this world. Their souls are liberated as they come to be one with God and all who have gone before them. Many dream of the parents in the days before their transition.

This is the faith Jesus calls us to in today's scripture. The faith that keeps our hearts calm in the worst of times. God is with us and will never let our souls perish. Let us pray for this faith that we may live always in the peace of God's presence. Amen.

Happy Father's Day!

My Jesus, I believe that You are the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. If you are still not receiving our weekly emails or have other questions, please email Erin!

THE SYNOD SMALL GROUPS ARE COMING!
During this fall, the next part of our Archdiocesan Synod Process will take place. We will be having six sessions to give feedback on the three focus areas that Archbishop Hebda and the Synod Committee identified as pastoral priorities from the listening sessions and survey feedback we participated in just prior to the pandemic. The sessions will break down the focus areas into specifics about church teachings and the needs of our parishes and Archdiocese. During the parish small groups, everyone will have a chance to discuss each of the areas and provide written feedback after watching a video explanation about each topic. These sessions will take the place of other Adult Formation for the fall. If you are interested in helping be a table leader or note-taker for some or all of the sessions, please email Erin O'Leary. There will be Archdiocesan training in August/September for those who help.
The Focus Areas Are:

- Forming parishes that are at the service of evangelization
- Forming missionary disciples who know Jesus' love and respond to his call
- Forming youth and young adults in and for a Church that is always young

Please contact Erin O'Leary (ext. 203, erino@churchoftheholyname.org) with questions or thoughts for Faith Formation at Holy Name or Sacramental Preparation at either parish.

T.O.W.- THOUGHT OF THE WEEK Today is Father's Day and a good chance to remember St. Joseph- earthly father to Jesus and a father figure for all of us. We are in the "Year of St. Joseph" as a Catholic Church and our Archdiocese is calling upon the intercession of St. Joseph for our on-going Synod process. In dedicating this year to St. Joseph, Pope Francis said that St. Joseph often goes unnoticed but is "an intercessor a support and a guide in times of trouble."
