A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

The past number of months have been trying for all of us. These months have included sickness, stress, anxiety, loneliness, financial hardship, family & community tension, and even death. Of course we have recognized good things in the midst of these experiences, but it is fair to say that these days have not been the easiest of times. This weekend though we celebrate! Easter has arrived! Our faith gives us hope, and Easter shows us that our hope is fulfilled in Jesus. Jesus Christ is risen today, alleluia, alleluia! Suffering, sickness, and death do not have the last say... life does! As long as we choose to follow Christ, in the midst of our joys and sorrows, our anxieties and peace, we know that ultimately we will come to know the Kingdom. This is our hope, and this hope is fulfilled in Jesus. This is why we sing and rejoice as a Christian people. We can persevere through anything that comes our way because we have the greatest Shepherd leading us to life everlasting, a place where every tear will be wiped away, as the Book of Revelation reveals. My prayer and hope as your pastor is that this Easter you will be open to being renewed in God's amazing love for you. You are not an exception to receiving this Good News. This Good News of salvation is open to all people. Jesus made this clear. He sent his disciples to the ends of the earth to communicate his salvation. We have heard so much bad news, especially over the past number of months. This weekend we must allow ourselves to receive the Good News of Christ our Savior once again and then renew our commitment to following Him. As a Church, we can then go forth and reveal the light of Christ with the utmost intensity. And in the darkness of our world today, this would be a gift - the greatest gift!

I hope you and your families have a blessed Easter. I know I am going to celebrate and the celebration this year is going to feel all the more meaningful because of all that has recently transpired. Let us give thanks and praise to God! It is right and just!

... and of course part of the celebration for me will include eating ice cream, just for your information... this will be pretty amazing too!

May the peace of the Lord be with you always.

Fr. Blake

FAITH FORMATION NEWS!

Easter Sunday. What an amazing day. A day of victory over death. There's a meme that goes around this time of year with a picture of an empty tomb and a caption that says "a lot can happen in 3 days." But if you only look at Easter as just a Sunday morning without the other 2.5 days, it doesn't seem like a big deal. Easter is exponentially more amazing when placed in proper context of the Triduum.

See, when I was a kid Easter was kind of a meh holiday. And it was straight up boring as a teenager and young adult. Jelly beans and ham. Then sit around all day. Whoopee. Most everybody knows that I became a Catholic as an adult and that I didn't have much religious formation before that. If you've never experienced a secular Easter, let me tell you, it leaves a lot to be desired. Especially once you're too old for an Easter basket. Then came Easter 2010. The first time I was exposed to the Triduum. Holy Thursday, the day the Eucharist was instituted. Imagine my surprise to learn there is a named and celebrated day behind that picture "The Last Supper" I'd seen a thousand times. Then there's Good Friday, the day Jesus was executed. The most excruciatingly sorrowful day I can imagine, again an actual named, celebrated day (and an explanation of why the most terrible day imaginable is called "good"). Then the Easter Vigil. That Saturday night when we had the candles lit from one flame. That night I was baptized, confirmed and received my first communion. It was a big day to say the least. The next morning was my first Easter as an official Catholic. I have never looked at Easter as boring since.

When we know the truth about Easter, and place it in the context of the Triduum, the picture comes into focus. We can see the whole of the Lord's passion from the Last Supper to the Resurrection in stunning detail. That, my friends is not boring.

I think this year's Holy Week celebrations will be almost as glorious for me as the first time I experienced them after the loss of last year's celebrations. I had never imagined not being able to attend Holy Week services until it actually happened. I can't wait to celebrate our risen Lord with all of you. One thing that always sticks in my mind is something Fr. Jerry once said; "We are an Easter people, and alleluia is our song." So, if you see me smiling like a goon this week, you'll know why.

I wish you all the most blessed Easter. -Lisa

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

QUESTION:
Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

ANSWER:
If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900's, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young woman, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come."

What exactly is a "Daily Mass Intention"? A priest "Saying Mass" for someone has been a long practice in the Church. Many times the priests prayers are for a deceased family member or friend. They can also be for a living person's health or in celebration. The stated Mass intention for the day is only the intention of the presider, not the entire congregation. We have "Mass Cards" in the parish office that you may fill out to have a Mass intended for someone you know. Many times parishioners offer a Mass to the families of those who have recently died. If you have a Mass offered for a special intention, you should be there for its celebration. Please contact the parish office if you have any questions and we will be glad to help!

Charity and Justice Commission Presents - Racism from the Catholic perspective

If you want to learn more about the Catholic perspective on racism, Father Blake suggests the following two video links:

The Catholic Advocacy Network provides a 2-hour discussion titled "The Catholic Church Confronts Racism" on https://www.mncatholic.org/openwideourhearts/

Father Mike Schmitz and Fr. Josh Johnson envision how Jesus would deal with racism based on what is revealed in the Gospels in a 1 hour and 20-minute discussion. It can be accessed on https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ddmw5Sd7yeE

Links to these videos can also be found on our parish homepage.

PLEASE think of our parish neighbors: When you see cars stopped at the stop signs on 3rd Avenue heading North or South– PLEASE STOP and let them "in"! When we are heading into or out of Mass and don't let these folks "in" they are waiting for a looong time.

PLEASE remember to SLOW DOWN and WATCH FOR CHILDREN TOO! This is a friendly reminder to us all as we have received a notice from the City about this issue.

Thank You!
