HEART

"For from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks."

LUKE 6:45

A MESSAGE FROM FR. BLAKE

During the month of March, Second Harvest Food Bank has a campaign to raise funds to help their mission of ending hunger. This campaign aligns well with the season of Lent this year. We know that as Catholics we are called to engage in the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. We are called to feed the hungry and give drink to the thirsty.

During the season of Lent, we emphasize the practice of almsgiving, along with prayer and fasting. As you prepare for Lent this year, I encourage you to prayerfully consider supporting the Second Harvest Food Bank campaign. This is a practical way to enter the season.

We will be receiving donations throughout the month of March. If you are interested in financially contributing to the cause, you can write a check to St. Joseph's or St. Augustine's with Second Harvest in the memo line. During the retreat weekend of March 18-20, we will also make a special push to support this great cause.

As a community of faith, I look forward to making a great impact collectively to aid individuals and families in having access to adequate meals. I will remind parishioners about this opportunity throughout the month of March and the different ways that we can contribute.

Another thing that is taking place during the next couple months is the diocesan Let's Listen initiative. Bishop Daniel has written about this initiative in the Northern Cross. If you would like more information about Let's Listen, you can read his articles on the homepage of the diocesan website www.dioceseduluth.org/letslisten.

This initiative gives opportunities to Catholics to be heard in relation to their experience of the Catholic faith.

The Hibbing Deanery has a kickoff session at Blessed Sacrament in Hibbing on Thursday, February 24 at 6:30 pm. Everyone is welcome to attend. You will find the basic structure for these gatherings with the information on the diocesan website. We are also looking to host at least a couple Let's Listen gatherings in Grand Rapids.

There will be more information to follow in this regard. We pray this is a fruitful initiative that will help the Church to bear more good fruit for the glory and honor of God in the months and years ahead.

May the peace of the Lord be with you always.

Fr. Blake

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

As we approach Lent, it is a good idea to take stock of our spiritual lives and examine the state of our relationship with the Lord.

Each of the three circles above represents our life. The cross is Jesus and the dots are the other things that take up our time: work, sports, hobbies, school, friends, etc. Looking at this graphic, which one most accurately represents your relationship with Jesus. Is he not in your life? Is he there, but just part of the furniture, not a priority? Is he the center; does this relationship set the standard for how you spend your time? Be honest with yourself and look at where you are and where you want to be.

You could also look at it as even if your relationship with Jesus is currently nonexistent it doesn't have to stay that way. God is a good dad. He never gives up on us even when we push him away or ignore him. Is he not in your life because you don't know him to invite him in? Is he outside because you have so many other things taking up your time? Is he not in your life because you pushed him out? In each of these situations, he is with you, waiting to be invited in.

What is the center of your life? If it's not Jesus, what is that center dot? If your center is not Jesus, I would bet that whatever is in your center is causing stress—jobs, bills, making the team, getting the grade.

Whatever that thing is, as you move your relationship with Jesus toward your center, he takes away those stresses. It's a big shift from trying to handle things ourselves to trusting that God can and will take care of us if we just trust him. It's a big leap, but one you will never regret taking.

Lent usually brings to mind three words—pray, fast, give. The easiest is to give up something like chocolate or if you want to make extra sure you don't fail, Brussel sprouts. But what if you used this time to pray more? To pray intentionally, and listen to where God is calling you?

This is your invitation.

—God bless you, Lisa

Jesus, I trust in You.

—St. Faustina

VIRTUES IN PRACTICE

St. Joseph School is participating in the Virtues in Practice Program, a three year study developed by the Dominican Sisters of Saint Cecelia. Their website is www.nashvilledominican.org.

This study teaches students about three main virtues - Faith, Hope, and Charity. This year, we are learning about Charity. In addition, the students learn about 27 other virtues and 81 saints who model these virtues.

Our wonderful Kindergarten teacher, Ms. Goshey, adds these monthly virtues to a window in our School entry.

HOOP SHOOT & SISTERS

St. Joseph's School says THANK YOU to the Knights of Columbus for sponsoring the Annual Hoop Shoot for children ages 9-14.

During Catholic Schools Week, we had two special visitors come to the gymnasium during the Hoop Shoot. Sr. Magdalena and Sr. Therese' Marie, from the Handmaids of the Heart of Jesus (Duluth, MN), who came to the school to talk about vocations, also knew how to play basketball. Sr. Therese' even juggled basketballs—WOW!

PRAYER CHAIN REQUESTS

Your prayer needs are very important to us. Let us pray for you.

Philippians 4:6-7 tells us:

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

ST. AUGUSTINE: Marlene Cole 218-328-5458

ST. JOSEPH: Arlyce Perrault 218-326-6983

"The Eucharist is the secret of my day. It gives strength and meaning to all my activities of service to the Church and to the whole world. Let Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament speak to your hearts. It is he who is the true answer of life that you seek. He stays here with us: he is God with us. Seek him without tiring, welcome him without reserve, love him without interruption: today, tomorrow, forever."

—St. Pope John Paul II

FOSTERING FELLOWSHIP

Looking for a way to serve?

ST. AUGUSTINE

Sign up to bring treats on Sundays; sheet is on the kitchen counter.

ST. JOSEPH

Consider coordinating coffee and donuts (or treats) after Mass on Sundays. Partner with some friends (or families can partner together) to plan what this time of fellowship might look like.

*"For which is the greater, one who sits at table, or one who serves?
...But I am among you as one who serves." —Lk 22:27*
