THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD—MAY 29, 2022

GLORY

“I have given them the glory you gave me.” - JOHN 17:22

PENTECOST

June 5, 2022

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit - Acts 2:4a

A MESSAGE FROM OUR SHEPHERD

We continue with our celebrating and gratitude during this Eastertime. Liturgically we celebrate the Ascension of Jesus and Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples 50 days after Jesus rose from the dead. Our celebration of Pentecost concludes our Easter season.

During this time of year, we also celebrate graduations. I congratulate our sixth-grade graduates from St. Joseph's Catholic School. I pray and hope they continue to incorporate our wonderful faith into all aspects of their lives. I also congratulate all our high school graduates. As they enter the next chapter of their lives, pray that they may faithfully follow Jesus the Good Shepherd.

The beginning of summer is a celebration in my mind. Prior to writing this article, I swatted a mosquito. First swat of the year! After our long winter, I was happy to do that! However, I will not go so far to express gratitude for the mosquito... that is asking too much!

Memorial Day weekend is the unofficial beginning of summer. It is right for us to take time to recall the sacrifice of the men and women who have gone before us in service of our great nation. They should be honored. Memorial Day is first and foremost a day to pay our respects. We are grateful for their sacrifice!

I conclude this article by mentioning the road project near St. Joseph's. I know many of you are familiar with the phrase that states that we really have two seasons in Minnesota... winter and road construction. We will be seeing our share of road construction over the next number of months. This City of Grand Rapids project has been planned since the time the church was being planned and built. Though it has taken many years, the city recently received a grant, and the road is going through.

Some of you were able to make the road information meetings to give you an idea of the implications of the road project. We plan to give you updates as the project progresses in relation to how this project will impact our entering and exiting the church parking lot this summer and fall. I have been informed that we will find updates through the City of Grand Rapids website. I thank you in advance for your patience and cooperation while this project is taking place.

Let us enjoy summer together!
May the peace of the Lord be with you always.

Fr. Blake

SAINT JUSTIN MARTYR

FEAST DAY

©LPI

As early as the second century we have the witness of St. Justin Martyr for the basic lines of the order of the Eucharistic celebration. They have stayed the same until our own day for all the great liturgical families. St. Justin wrote to the pagan emperor Antoninus Pius (138-161) around the year 155, explaining what Christians did:

On the day we call the day of the sun, all who dwell in the city or country gather in the same place.

The memoirs of the apostles and the writings of the prophets are read, as much as time permits.

When the reader has finished, he who presides over those gathered admonishes and challenges them to imitate these beautiful things.

Then we all rise together and offer prayers for ourselves... and for all others, wherever they may be, so that we may be found righteous by our life and actions, and faithful to the commandments, so as to obtain eternal salvation.

When the prayers are concluded we exchange the kiss.

Then someone brings bread and a cup of water and wine mixed together to him who presides over the brethren.

He takes them and offers praise and glory to the Father of the universe, through the name of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and for a considerable time he gives thanks (in Greek: eucharistian) that we have been judged worthy of these gifts.

When he has concluded the prayers and thanksgivings, all present give voice to an acclamation by saying: 'Amen.'

When he who presides has given thanks and the people have responded, those whom we call deacons give to those present the "eucharisted" bread, wine and water and take them to those who are absent.

Source: Catechism of the Catholic Church, Second Edition; Paragraph 1345

The liturgy of the Eucharist unfolds according to a fundamental structure which has been preserved throughout the centuries down to our own day. (Line 1 of p. 1346)
