FROM THE PASTOR

“Would you please pray for me. . .”

How many times has someone asked you to pray for them? When you are asked, please receive it as a GREAT compliment! The requestor has recognized you as someone they want to bring into their confidence and that you exhibit a closeness to God. They are inviting you to become more intimately involved in their life. The two great commandments are to love God and love our neighbor. St. Thomas Aquinas defined love as “a choice to will the good of the other.”

When asked, it is very easy to say Yes, you will pray for someone. WHEN is the right time to pray? We can have great intentions, but if I promise to pray later sometimes life can get in the way, or in my case a ‘squirrel’ or a ‘shiny object’ shows up and I fail to follow through on my commitment to pray. So, when someone presents you the opportunity to pray FOR them, ask if you can pray WITH them right then. St. Paul in his 2nd letter to the Corinthians (2 Cor 6:2), says:

For he says:

“In an acceptable time - I heard you,
and on the day of salvation, I helped you.”

Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

Now that we have established WHEN we should pray, the next question is often WHERE. We should match the where with the when. Wherever the request is made is likely a very acceptable place to pray. Prayer is simply a conversation that includes God. You may want to step aside or find a quieter location, but you should not need to go far.

Next, we move on to the dilemma of HOW. Many people express an insecurity on the “how” of prayer. As with everything in life, we get better as we practice. It is the same with prayer. The more we pray the easier it becomes. We develop prayer ‘muscles’. “People don’t care how much you know, until they know how much you care.” People asking you to pray with them want your care, not your knowledge. We often show our caring by our physical presence and interaction; it may be the clasp of a hand, a hug, or simply eye contact.

The last topic to cover is WHAT to pray. You can always ask for the intercession of a patron saint, St. Peregrine for cancer, St. Monica for wayward children, St. Anthony for lost items, etc. One of my GOTO prayers is to ask for the intercession of our Blessed Mother by asking Mary to take our prayer request to her Son Jesus. I can find no reference in sacred scripture where Jesus told His Mother “no”. We simply ask Mary to take the prayer request to Jesus, asking for God’s will to be done. Adding a Hail Mary—invites and can involve all present to join—is also a powerful way to love our neighbor by showing them how much we care.

In summary, when someone asks you to pray for them... Pray WITH, THEN, and THERE!

Deacon Jim Bauhs

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Deserts can be lonely, isolated, and treacherous places. When a person wanders in a desert, they can easily get disoriented, dehydrated, confused, lost, and vulnerable. Temptation is at its peak, especially when confronted with something that may offer some respite or relief, even a mirage. Deserts can bring us to our weakest moment and tempt our faith. The Christian journey can be described as a desert experience as we vacillate back and forth, falling victim to the mirages of our lives versus the true, life-giving water offered by God. We need a burning bush experience in our lives that convinces us of the power of God and reveals Him as the "I am" of all existence.

Moses was leading his flock across the desert when he found himself at Mount Horeb. Mountains give us a fuller perspective of life, a panoramic view of what would otherwise be hidden from the limitations of our sight. That's when Moses met God. We have to find our way to a mountain experience where our vantage point can take on a wider view of life. Many things can do this for us: the birth of a child, the death of someone we love, the joy that comes from marveling at the beauty of God's work, the pondering of life's mysteries, and the ache of longing found deep within our souls. There are many things in life that can wake us up, give us a clearer, better view of things and become occasions where a bush may burn and God's presence as the eternal uncreated One is revealed.

God is very patient and gives us the time and space we need to figure things out and bear some good fruit. He doesn't rush to cut us down or get frustrated with our barrenness. But we have to remember that the desert journeys of our lives come with some risks. The major risk is that we will mistakenly believe that the mirages are real. Thus, we fall victim to thinking that the respite and refreshment we seek is discovered in a place other than where it actually is. Our faith and the life of the Church are the safeguards we need to keep us properly orientated so that we don't get lost or confused and stay on course. ©LPI

REFLECT

First Reading: (Ex 3:1—15)

In his initial encounter with the Lord, Moses learns the name of God, "I AM." What insight does this give us into the nature of the divine?

Second Reading: (1 Cor 10:1—12)

Paul believed that the past mistakes of the ancient Israelites in the desert served as an example of the dangers of too much self-confidence. How can one best avoid arrogance in faith?

Gospel: (Lk 13: - 9)

In the parable of the barren fig tree, Jesus taught the crowds of the need to repent in order to bear good fruit. For what do you need to repent in this season of Lent?
