FROM THE PASTOR

This weekend we are privileged to celebrate many of our children receiving Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time! Personally, these moments are always a highlight for me. It is so wonderful to see the joy and anticipation of each child as he/she comes forward to finally receive our Blessed Lord. During distribution of Holy Communion each week, there are often children who evidently cannot wait to receive the Eucharist—looking at their parents with inquisitive eyes as to why they are only given a blessing, sometimes even reaching out for the Host themselves. Then, after a few short years and preparation, the moment finally arrives when they can unite themselves to Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, receiving all the graces it offers.

I think we can learn from the example of these children. The purity of their faith, the intensity of their joy, and the excited anticipation to receive is a manifestation of a disposition we all can have. As we reflect on who it is that we receive each weekend, and the more often we ponder the great mystery of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, the more our own spirit will long to experience a deeper union with him—a union given in mystery in Holy Communion and perfected in Heaven.

As we celebrate these First Communions this weekend, let us ask for the grace to have the same reverent joy in our own reception of our Blessed Lord, so that we can truly become united in him as the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church.

In Christ,

Fr. Froehle

GOSPEL MEDITATION

“Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start.” (Pope Francis) We have a difficult time figuring out what is true and best for us. There are many voices talking and so many trying to get our attention. We wrongly convince ourselves that the true voice is the voice of progress, the one that speaks of contemporary wants and desires, enticing us with the latest trends and causes. We are taught, by listening to the voices around us, that truth is found in feelings and thought, and ideals must match current and popular human wants. Because we feel a particular way it must be true. Then, we find a shepherd who empathizes with us and affirms us. We follow that voice even though listening to that voice will render us powerless and lead us to harm. There are many with me in this procession to this pasture. I must be on the right path and listening to the right voice.

We are very confused. What can keep us safe and from harm? Where do we go to find life, love, and happiness? Jesus tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to get to Truth, who is God, is through him. There is no other way. The Church, the gate around God’s pasture of life, is charged with the mission of directing us where God desires that we go. In the midst of all of the conflicting voices around us, the voice of truth is often muffled in all of the noise, but it beckons us to a life of virtue and grace. Helping us understand who we are and where we have to be, it discerns the voice of God, providing us with the safety net we need to stay straight on our path to life eternal.

We have to trust the voice of God, the true Shepherd, even when it does not mirror what we want and what others may believe. Faith goes way beyond feeling and involves a radical trust in Someone who can lead us and form us. At day’s end, if we do not know to find our way home, we will be truly lost. ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do we hear and follow? Before we can welcome Jesus as the Good Shepherd, we have to hear his voice. God's voice breaks into the dialogue of our lives in myriad ways, but we have to be attentive and receptive in order to hear it. It comes through the beauty of creation, the warmth and energy of love, the gift of compassion both received and given, the sacred miracle of life, and the orderly and purposeful design of things and in the truth found in God's commandments. Once we see the wisdom behind the commandments and teachings God places before us and are attentive to listening for His direction, we can begin to take the necessary steps and follow Him. We are easily misled and there are many convincing "shepherds." Only one is Good. It is only the Good Shepherd who can lead us away from the evils that can hurt us and bring us to the good. We may not always like where God asks us to go, and it may not be the path others prefer to take. But we have to follow it because we trust that our kind Shepherd will keep us safe. ©LPI

REFLECT

First Reading: (Acts 13:14—52)

We hear today how Paul and Barnabas were met with resistance and hostility in Pisidian Antioch on their first missionary journey. How do you not get discouraged when your spiritual journey is difficult?

Second Reading: (Rv 7:9—17)

During John's vision of heaven, he often has "one of the elders" teach him about the vision he is seeing. Who has been a good spiritual guide for you?

Gospel: (Jn 10:27—30)

Jesus speaks of an unbreakable solidarity between him and those who follow him ("my sheep"). In what ways do you experience this unity with Jesus already in your faith? ©LPI
