RELIGIOUS EDUCATION REVIEW:

The 2020/2021 RE year began in September with our 12th graders meeting three times to prepare for Confirmation. On October 3rd, eight of our young people received the Sacrament.

Our 1st through 6th grade and 7th through 11th grade students began RE on October 7th led by our Religious Education Coordinator, volunteer teachers, and priest. In November 6 of our young people met three additional times with their parents to prepare for and receive their First Reconciliation.

This past Wednesday our elementary students and high school students spent an evening in Church with Adoration and Confessions. This Wednesday will conclude the 2020 RE year with a shopping spree. Thank you all who have helped make such a great start!

UPCOMING FAITH SERIES:

I have been grateful to Dennis Barry for not only video recording Sunday homilies but also the 5-part Faith Series on Prayer and the 4-part Faith Series on the 'Last Things.' These have all been posted and can be found on our parish website by clicking the tab 'FAITH SERIES' and/or by visiting our parishes YouTube channel. I look forward to offering more Faith Series in 2021.

PARISH FAMILY ROSARY:

I plan to offer the rosary weekly in both parishes throughout 2021. Every rosary will be offered for a family/individual from our parish. Keep your eye out for more details soon!

RECTORY PHONE:

A new phone number is available to reach the priest for important matters outside of business hours. This is the number I have been using to call parishioners. Especially with the impact of social distancing I will be striving to make more regular phone calls to parishioners.
