WHAT: SPIRITUAL RETREAT

WHEN: MONDAY, JANUARY 24 TO FRIDAY, JANUARY 28

WHERE: PACEM IN TERRIS, ST. FRANCIS, MN.

I entered seminary when I was 22 years old in the fall of 2009. Every year since I have spent 5 to 8 days in quiet prayer for retreat in some fashion. My favorite retreat is at Pacem In Terris staying in one of the hermitages. This sort of retreat entirely removes one from the day to day noise of life. It is an opportunity to ‘unplug’ from internet, phone, work, and communication.

I learned about Pacem my first semester at seminary. We had a 3-day weekend for fall break. A group of us travelled to St. Francis, MN. to the retreat center. The lady who was inspired to found a place ‘where people could come and be alone with God’ was named Shirley. We were blessed to meet her that time before heading to our individual hermitages. The setting is simple. A bed. A rocking chair. A gas stove to heat water for coffee or tea. A jug of water. A basket of bread, cheese, and fruit. This will be my 5th time retreating to Pacem. I have been there in fall, winter, and summer. Everyday I will offer Mass for the individual intentions. Know of my prayers while away. Fr. Daniel Weiske from Blessed Sacrament in Hibbing will be available in case of any urgent needs.

CHISHOLM CATHOLIC WOMEN

CCW NEWS

Chisholm Catholic Women have been busy this past month. There was a Taco Feast where 65 parishioners joined us. The hall was decorated and after the CCW set up for the children's bazaar on December 15th.

The children's of St. Joseph's were treated to a shopping spree, free raffles, Hershey's candy bars and the high school had pizza and pop. So much help went into that day; from donating, to decorating, to displaying, to help with shopping and the gift wrapping. Thank you to all!

We also, donated 45 Christmas bags to the parishioners at Heritage Manor, Serving Hart and Lincoln Center. These gifts were all donated from our CCW (Chisholm Catholic Women).

Lastly, we donated 30 pounds of socks to the Salvation Army of Hibbing. They put toward their Christmas presents.
