“If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” -Mark 8:34

WHAT IS EXODUS 90? It is a spiritual exercise based on three pillars:

(1) prayer, (2) fraternity, and (3) asceticism. The disciplines last ninety days.

HOW DID I HEAR ABOUT IT? Three years ago a group of six priests from the Diocese of St. Cloud brought it up. I was nearby assigned as a priest in Brainerd at the time. It proved to be an amazing experience.

WHAT DOES IT INVOLVE? Taking up many difficult, life-changing, but healthy commitments. For prayer: one hour a day. For fraternity: weekly meeting, daily check-in with partner. For asceticism: no snacking, no sweets, no alcohol, regular exercise, no tv or unnecessary internet use, and cold showers.

This year will be my fourth time doing Exodus 90. The past three years I have joined a group of laymen from the Cathedral in Duluth. I am very grateful to God for inspiring and providing this opportunity.

What do I most look forward to? Growing closer to God by striving to be less distracted by tv, internet, and comforts.

What is my least favorite and hardest discipline? Regular exercise. But the prayers, accountability, and encouragement from the group is so helpful!
