Children of God

There is a popular Christian song by the musical group Hillsong Worship called, "Who You Say I Am." Within the refrain are the striking words, "Who Son sets free, O is free indeed. I'm a child of God. Yes I am." To recognize our true identity as beloved sons and daughters of our Heavenly Father is to give Glory to God and to help us move onward in this life. Within the Second Reading at Mass for this Sunday we will hear, "See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are" (1 John 3:1).

Because of sin in the world and poor choices made by people not all of us have grown up in a loving home or family. Betrayals of trust, lies, deception, and even abuse are sometimes the only memories that we have from our upbringing. However, the profound reality of our faith declares that we are so much more than the hurts that we have experienced. In the eyes of God, we are precious and have an inestimable value. Understandably the moral weaknesses and failures of those in authority—perhaps most painfully by ordained ministers of our Church—have caused some to doubt the existence of a loving and merciful God.

That is why all of us must humbly dedicate ourselves on a daily basis to live who we are meant to be. As children of God we are part of the same family and are called to support one another, correct one another when necessary, and keep our hearts set on our Heavenly Homeland. May the Grace of our Risen Lord help us to live joyfully and freely as children of God.

Joy with Christ,
Fr. James

The Queen of May is Almost Here!

This spring the Queen of May benefit will be a virtual event! We always make it special, so this year you can bid on items for 5 full days and view the video of the program throughout the week of May 2-7.

We are collecting auction items from the school families and are going to have some great things! We are also reaching out to parishioners to see if they would consider donating an item, basket or gift card to the auction. Your generosity with all of our fundraisers is truly appreciated! If you are able to donate, please drop off an item at the Parish Office between 8:00 am - 4:00 pm.

Watch for the event link on the ICS Facebook page and our website as it gets closer to the event.

Questions? Contact Jami Bridgeman at 763-788-9065.

8th Grade Bake Sale

Please consider helping our school's 8th graders with their graduation celebration by purchasing Bake Sale items next weekend. Your support helps to pay expenses. As always, your support and prayers are appreciated!

Eucharistic Adoration

*"I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me."*

(John 10:14)

Adorers hear Jesus' call to Eucharistic Adoration and they faithfully go to their hour of Adoration each week. These followers of Jesus often say their hour of Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament is the best hour of their week. Come and join these prayer-filled followers of Jesus.

Our chapel is available Monday through Friday, with some regulations we must follow:

- Only registered, scheduled adorers are allowed in the chapel (No walk in visitors will be admitted at this time)
- Masks are required
- All adorers are asked to sanitize any surfaces they touch during their adoration hour
- If you are not feeling well, please stay home

If you would like to register and schedule an adoration hour, or if you are an adorer unable to attend your scheduled hour, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246.

Volunteers are needed to cover Mondays at noon, Tuesdays at 2:00 pm, Wednesdays at 10:00 am and 11:00 am, Thursdays at 9:00 am and Fridays at 2:00 pm.

Discipleship

Confidence in Princes

Have you ever confided your problems to a friend, only to get the answer, "have you prayed about it as much as you've talked about it?"

Like all good advice, it can really irritate the recipient at first. Here I am, vulnerable and wounded, unloading my problems, and this joker tries to load them right back up and ship them off to Someone with a higher pay grade.

But again, like all good and irritating advice, it rings true if you sit and think about it.

Sure, venting is helpful. We all need that friend or family member who can listen to our problems. But if we ever start to think that person can solve them, it's a good sign that we're losing perspective.

Are you looking to the world for an answer? Are you looking in the mirror, expecting to find a solution to your problems? Are you expecting happiness, peace, contentment or justice to come from any place other than God?

"It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes," the Psalms tell us. Well, I've never put much confidence in princes. But when it comes to problems, I often find myself telling God to take a step back — "I've got this."

It's tough to pray about any problem as much as you talk about it. We want so badly to tackle the issue ourselves. But I'll let you in on a secret: it doesn't matter what the question is, we don't have the answer. Take it to the One who does.

Why Do We Do That?—Catholic Life Explained

Question: What are the requirements for being a confirmation sponsor?

Answer: Although many dioceses have specific requirements for who can be a sponsor for the Sacrament of Confirmation, the Code of Canon Law identifies certain requirements that are true for all dioceses and parishes. First, the sponsor should be chosen by the one to be confirmed (or, in some cases, by the parents or even the pastor). Second, a sponsor must be at least sixteen years old (unless the local bishop has chosen another age, or a special exception has been made). Third, the sponsor must be a Catholic who has been confirmed and who has already received the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Beyond this, they must lead “a life of faith in keeping with the function to be taken on.” Fourth, they can have no sort of canonical penalty or impediment. Finally, they cannot be either the father or mother of the one to be confirmed (See Canons 893, §1 and 874, §1).

In some cultures, it is customary for one of the confirmand’s godparents to act as sponsor, although this is not required by Church law. To learn about the requirements for your parish or diocese, you can consult your pastor or your parish or diocesan director of religious education or the diocese’s office liturgy and worship.

Word of Life

“Current laws in our country fail to protect the lives of unborn children. ... People of good will must boldly stand up against this intrinsic evil [of abortion], especially when it is occurring on a massive scale, implemented in law and funded, in some instances, by the government.”

—Most Reverend Joseph F. Naumann, Chair of the USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities, “Priorities at the Polls”

Gospel Meditation

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point. Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope, and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation. It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions. The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures.
