Our Mission

The Mission of The Church of the Immaculate Conception is to proclaim and celebrate our Lord Jesus Christ. We fulfill our mission as Christian disciples by intentionally responding to God's call to grow in holiness.

From the Pastor's Desk

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ — Greetings to you! How are you? I hope that you are well. It's amazing to think that we are already here at the celebration of Pentecost, the day when the Holy Spirit descended upon the followers of Jesus like "tongues of fire" (Acts 2:3). The Lord desires to set our own proverbial hearts on fire with Divine Love that can then be shared with others. In a metaphorical way we are candles that are set ablaze with the radiant Mercy of Christ so as to shine upon those around us for the greater Glory of God. To do this well we must have a disposition or openness of prayer to the work of the Holy Spirit.

While there are many prayers asking for the help of the Holy Spirit in our lives one of the most powerful that I've come across is: Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of Your love. Send forth Your Spirit and they shall be created and you shall renew the face of the earth. Let us pray. Oh, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit did instruct the hearts of his faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit, we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolations. Through, Christ, our Lord, Amen.

I first came across that prayer when I lived a Cursillo Retreat in the Fall of 2012 and its words and message continue to impact me each time I pray it. I would encourage you to invite the Third Person of the Most Holy Trinity — that is to say the Holy Spirit — through this particular prayer into your life so that the Lord can shine upon you and then through you.

Mercy with Christ,
Fr. James

Join us to Pray the Rosary

at Immaculate Conception throughout the month of May:

- In the church on Sundays after the 10:00 am Mass, led by the Council of Catholic Women. (Please remain in your seat, the Rosary will be prayed from the pulpit.)
- In front of the Blessed Virgin Mary Shrine on weekdays at 6:00 pm, led by the Knights of Columbus.

High School Seniors

Are you or someone you know graduating this year? We are gathering names of students to invite to a Mass on Sunday, May 30 when we will recognize and pray for the graduates. Please contact Mary Nawrocki, Director of Faith Formation, at 763-788-9062 x 210 or mnawrocki@immac-church.org to request an invitation. Thank you!

Lost and Found

If you think you may have left behind an item, please visit our Lost and Found table at the north end of the church narthex after Mass this Sunday. A number of items have accumulated and we would love to get them back to their owners! Any unclaimed items will be donated.

Eucharistic Adoration

*“Bless the Lord, O my soul!
O Lord, my God, you are great indeed!”*

(Psalm 104)

The joy and peace found in Eucharistic Adoration are put into words by this verse in Psalm 104. Adorers offer prayers of praise and leave their time of adoration with the peace only Jesus can give. Come and spend some time with our Risen Lord in Eucharistic Adoration. Our chapel is available Monday through Friday beginning at 7:00 am.

There are a few regulations we must continue to follow:

- Only registered, scheduled adorers are allowed in the chapel (no walk in visitors will be admitted at this time).
- Masks are required.
- All adorers are asked to sanitize any surfaces they touch during their adoration hour.
- If you are not feeling well, please stay home.

If you would like to register and schedule an adoration hour, or if you are an adorer unable to attend your scheduled hour, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246.

Volunteers are needed to cover Mondays at noon, Wednesdays at 7:00 am, 10:00 am and 1:00 pm, and Fridays at 9:00 am and 2:00 pm.

Note: The chapel will be closed for the Memorial Day holiday on Monday, May 31. It will reopen on Tuesday, June 1 at 7:00 am.

You Don't Have What It Takes — But You Will

Those of us in ministry love this saying: God doesn't call the equipped. He equips the called.

We all know that sort of queasy feeling we get in the pit of our stomachs when it becomes clear what we're supposed to do, in any situation. It's that feeling of: Oh, no. Not me. Not now. I can't.

We've all got our list of reasons why not, don't we? We do it for everything, from big life problems to small everyday choices. I'm not going to invite my neighbor to church because I don't want to come across as pushy. I'm not going to make amends with my cousin because she'll just walk all over me again. I'm not going to say a Rosary tonight because I'm tired and it'll just stress me out.

However, even if we all put our lists of "reasons why we can't" together, I don't think any of us have reasons quite as valid as the apostles. Their job was to convert the nations — and here they are, a bunch of fishermen who haven't been out of Judea, who speak only their own languages. Were they supposed to preach the Gospel via a particularly compelling game of charades?

But even that big, giant, stop-you-dead-in-your tracks Reason Why We Can't was nothing, because God had a plan. He didn't call a bunch of equipped men. He called them, and He equipped them. Cue the tongues of fire!

God doesn't call us to do His will because we have what it takes. He calls us because He's ready to give us what it takes. Being a good steward is to answer the call of Christ knowing he will provide.

PICK OF THE WEEK

WATCH

St. Philip Neri: The Apostle of Joy

This week we celebrate St. Philip Neri, the Apostle of Rome. To a Rome ravaged by war and wearied by the decadence of the Renaissance popes, St. Philip Neri came as an unlikely reformer. Mystic, hermit, prankster, and effortless leader of men, Neri had a great sense of humor and an even greater heart.

Pastoral Ministry

Volunteers Needed

Pastoral Ministry is seeking individuals to bring Eucharist to our homebound. Together with CCW, we are also looking ahead and preparing for services to begin again at Crest View Senior Living. We will need volunteers to pray the Rosary and lead Word and Communion services on Thursday mornings. Training and ongoing support offered, please contact Vicki for more information at 763-788-9062 x 212

Anointing of the Sick

Individual Anointing of the Sick is available by request — call the parish office at 763-788-9062.

In Need of Prayer? Please Call Us.

To add a name to the Mass petitions or the bulletin, please call 763-788-9062. For private prayer (eight individuals offer confidential prayer for requested needs) call Larene at 763-789-4246.

Pray for Our Loved Ones Who Have Died

Especially all who have died from Covid-19 and all who have died as a result of violence. May God grant them everlasting peace and joy in the kingdom of heaven.

Social Justice

“Coins for Social Justice” This Weekend!

Coins for Social Justice raises funds to support programs that promote the gospel of peace and social justice. The fourth weekend of each month, IC parishioners are asked to fill the collection basket with their pocket change to benefit the Social Justice Ministry. Only the loose change and marked envelopes from this collection are designated for Social Justice.

“Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.” (ACTS 2:3)

Faith Formation

Totus Tuus

Totus Tuus (“Totally Yours”) summer programs offer a week of faith and fun for kids! A team of college students and seminarians will lead a day camp for children entering grades 1-6 on June 14-18 from 9:00 am - 2:30 pm, which includes daily Mass, faith activities, games and water fun. The evening program for youth entering grades 7-12 on June 13-17 from 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm includes Eucharistic Adoration, confession, hot topics, and social time. Cost is $25 per student and $75 max per family and can be written off for tax purposes. Good news—this year the daytime program will include lunch! More information and the registration form can be found at parish.iccsonline.org/totus-tuus or call the Faith Formation office at 763-788-9062 x 210. We hope to see you there!

Why Do We Do That?—Catholic Life Explained

Question: Why are Catholic and Protestant Bibles different?

Answer: Since the earliest days of the Church, Christians used a Greek translation of the Old Testament known as the Septuagint. This collection of the texts of the Hebrew Scriptures included 46 books. At the time of the Protestant Reformation in the 1500s, the Protestant reformers began to create their own translations of the Bible (into local languages) and some began to question why the Jewish Scriptures would have included texts that were written in Greek, because, they assumed, the only valid Jewish Scriptures would have been written in Hebrew. And so, they decided to remove seven books from the Old Testament: Baruch, Sirach, 1 and 2 Maccabees, Tobit, Judith and Wisdom (as well as portions of the Books of Daniel and Esther). This means that the Protestant Old Testament only includes 39 books, while Catholic Bibles continue to include those original 46 books. Both Catholic and Protestant Bibles include 27 books and letters in the New Testament.

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

The phrase “being filled with the Holy Spirit” may summon forth images that are a bit too intense for some folks. They may conclude that when one is filled with the Holy Spirit that they immediately begin speaking in tongues, loudly praise God, sing alleluia from roof tops, and do other demonstrative things. In reality, being filled with the Holy Spirit means being filled with the fullness of God’s life and in touch with the power and wonder of God’s presence. It is the Holy Spirit that draws us together as a community of faith, inspires us with wisdom and right judgment, and turns us from the darkness of sin to the virtues that bring life. We live in a world where it is hard to discover truth. The Holy Spirit, through the ministry of the church, guides us to truth and shows us the way to be the graced human beings God made us to be. Come, Holy Spirit, and fill our hearts!

Word of Life

“The Lord says to us, ‘Do not fear: I am with you’ (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new.”

Gospel Meditation

Pentecost Sunday

Begin by taking a moment to calm yourself, focus on your breathing and become aware of the life force that flows through your veins. Center yourself in the words and affections of St. Augustine’s Prayer to the Holy Spirit, “Breath in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy. Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy. Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy.” Sanctifying, bringing things to wholeness, blessing, restoring and creating are just some of the fruits of the presence of the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Holy Spirit is not always about proclaiming loud cries of praise or singing alleluia from a roof top. It is about unfolding and encountering the ordinary in an extraordinary way. Being filled with the Holy Spirit means being filled with the fullness of God’s life and in touch with the power and wonder of God’s presence. It’s about becoming holy.

It is not just for saints or people who have a religious vocation. Holiness is for the ordinary, simple run-of-the-mill person who desires to love God, others, and all of creation. When an ordinary, humble person becomes connected with life and the wondrous power of God’s love, they begin to live life more deeply, a bit more reverently, desire a simple fare and find themselves relishing in ordinary beauty. Their senses become attuned to the Author of life and they realize that they are not alone. The Holy Spirit connects all of the dots of human experience and existence, bringing everyone to center on the Divine Presence. The Holy Spirit does not just breathe “on me” but “in me” and is the force behind every breath I take. Take a moment to soak that thought in. There is the Divine Presence of the Holy Spirit in me, right now. When a person becomes in touch with truth, they know that when inspired by the Holy Spirit, his or her actions are not solely their own. They realize that they are moved by Divine Grace and drawn to things not found in secular affairs.

We live in a world where it is hard to discover truth. Real truth is veiled by so many imposters that it is hard to find, especially for those who are young. It is easy to get fooled and duped and often, without full conscious awareness of doing so, we choose to walk down a path of self-absorption and destruction. It is only the Holy Spirit, through the ministry of the church most especially, who guides us to truth and shows us the way to be the graced and holy human beings God made us to be. The wonders and inspirations of today’s Feast of Pentecost are necessary to share with both those we love and those who only casually cross our paths. The first disciples, touched by the Holy Spirit, brought the Gospel to the ends of the earth one step at a time. Is it unrealistic to ask that we assist in that same mission by helping people understand who they are and who God is one at a time? Ask the Holy Spirit to alleviate the fear in your heart that prevents you from doing so.
