Our Mission

The Mission of The Church of the Immaculate Conception is to proclaim and celebrate our Lord Jesus Christ. We fulfill our mission as Christian disciples by intentionally responding to God's call to grow in holiness.

Unsolved Mysteries

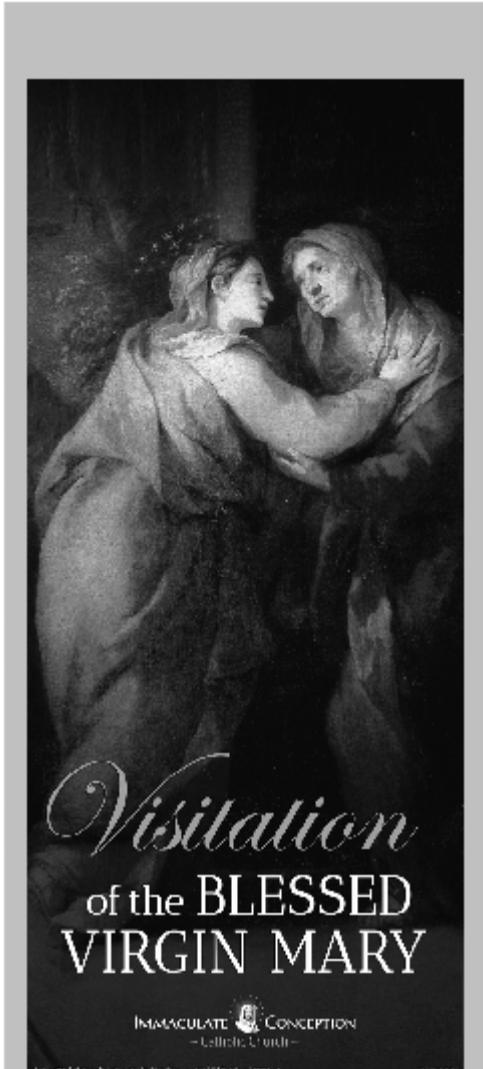

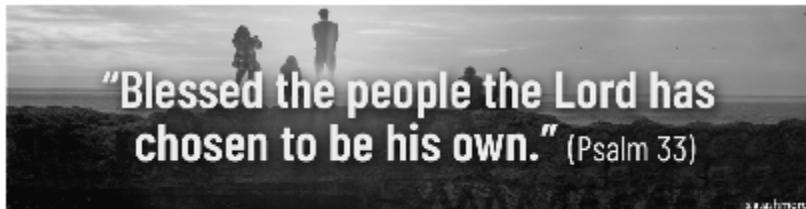

When I was growing up one of my favorite television programs was Unsolved Mysteries with the late Robert Stack as the narrator and host. There has been a recent revival of the show on the streaming service Netflix which focuses its attention — like the original series — on unusual, extraordinary, and at times unexplainable mysteries that have taken place over the course of human history. At the risk of being accused of a logical equivocation (wherein a person uses a word that can have multiple meanings so as to appear clever) I would say that the world's greatest unsolved mystery is that of the Most Holy Trinity.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them." (CCC 234). From a faith perspective the mysteries of our faith are not necessarily historical events that can be totally analyzed, fully comprehended, or solved in the traditional sense. Rather, they are meant to be prayerfully and reverently contemplated.

In regards to who God is we are blessed to know by divine self-revelation that He is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Three distinct Persons but inseparably one divine nature. While we have absolute confidence in that declaration of faith we are nonetheless limited in our appreciation of God because He is unlike anything else in the known universe.

Thankfully by revelation in Sacred Scripture and lived experience we know that God is kind, merciful, generous, creative, just, wise, all-powerful, and ultimately Love. Made in His image and likeness we gratefully praise Him on this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity by praying, "Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen."

Joy with Christ,
Fr. James

Upcoming Changes in Liturgical Practices

After reviewing Archdiocesan guideline updates, IC will make the following changes in liturgical practices beginning the weekend of June 5-6:

Returning to pre-pandemic liturgical practices—

- Traditional communion distribution lines. Eucharistic Ministers will continue to be masked until that requirement is ended.
- Hymnals and worship aids will return for congregational use.
- Processions will return, including bringing up the gifts for the Liturgy of the Eucharist.
- Removal of social distancing restrictions and blue tape. Worshippers may sit where they choose.
- Votive candles will again be available for lighting and books of intentions available.
- Altar servers will return.

Not changing at this time—

- Videotaping Masses and posting to YouTube will continue.
- Holy water stoups will be unavailable.
- Chalices of wine will not be available.
- Confessions will continue to be heard in the Visitation Room.

The adoration chapel will also be returning to normal operations (scheduled adorers with walk-ins permitted) hopefully in July.

We are still awaiting the reinstatement by the Archbishop of the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days.

Discipleship

God Doesn't Take a Break

An acquaintance who works in church ministry once told me a story about one of the students she had in Faith Formation. This student informed my friend that his family doesn't come to Mass in summer. "God takes a break in summer, and so do we," he said.

There's a lot to unpack here. First, it's tragic to think of anyone voluntarily missing out on the Eucharist for so long. It's also a real problem in the church today that a lot of our folks don't understand the beauty of the Sunday obligation. But if I had to dissect this situation and pinpoint the thing I find most troubling, it's the idea of God taking a break.

I hope it's starting to look like summer where you are. We've still got a few weeks left before it's official, but the school year should be winding up for most kids, the birds should be chirping a little louder, and hopefully your lawn is starting to green up nicely. You're probably daydreaming about the annual cabin getaway weekend or waterskiing on the Fourth of July.

All in all, summer is going to be a nice break, even if — like typical Americans — our break is full of productive work.

Thank God — literally — that He doesn't take a break, even if we do. Can we try to remember that, even in the midst of our many wonderful distractions? Let's enjoy this summer. Let's live it to the full. But let's see it for the gift that it is — and remember the thanks we owe the Giver.

Eucharistic Adoration

"I am the way and the truth and the life says the Lord;
No one comes to the Father except through me."
(John 14:6)

One way to get to know Jesus better is through Eucharistic adoration. Time spent in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament opens one's mind to better understand the truths Jesus teaches. Come and spend some time with Jesus in Eucharistic adoration. Our chapel is available Monday through Friday beginning at 7:00 am.

At this time we are asking adorers to continue to follow these requests:

- Only registered, scheduled adorers are allowed in the chapel (no walk in visitors will be admitted at this time).
- Masks are required.
- All adorers are asked to sanitize any surfaces they touch during their adoration hour.
- If you are not feeling well, please stay home.

Hopefully very soon we will be able to revise the requirements and fully open our chapel again.

If you would like to register and schedule an adoration hour, or if you are an adorer unable to attend your scheduled hour, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246.

Volunteers are needed to cover Mondays at noon, Wednesdays at 7:00 am, 10:00 am and 1:00 pm, and Fridays at 9:00 am and 2:00 pm.

Note

The chapel will be closed on Monday, May 31 for the Memorial Day holiday and will reopen on Tuesday, June 1 at 7:00 am.

A Prayer for Memorial Day

God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride

Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.

Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Reflections

Why Do We Do That?—Catholic Life Explained

Question: If it isn't only for people who are dying, when should someone receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

Answer: One of the unfortunate realities in the Church today is that so few people understand the meaning and value of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, largely because so many people still mistakenly think of this sacrament as "Last Rites" or "Extreme Unction."

In his life and ministry, Jesus healed the sick. In this sacrament, the Church continues the healing mission of Jesus and, in hope, prays that God will grant healing to the person who is suffering. But even if there is no physical healing, the sacrament offers spiritual healing through the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage. And so, anyone who is living with serious illness (including emotional or psychological illness) and the elderly are encouraged to celebrate this sacrament when it is needed.

The ritual for Anointing of the Sick does also include special prayers and blessings for those who are facing death, including viaticum (communion given to the dying, trusting that the Lord Jesus will be their companion along the way, as they make their final journey).

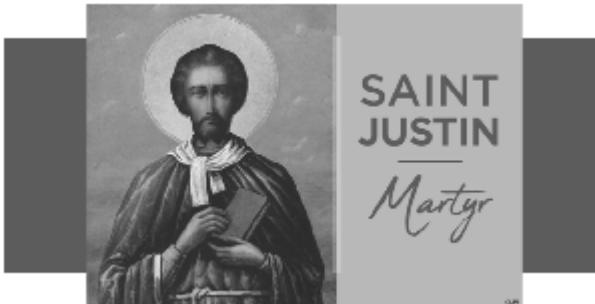

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

The immensity, scope, intimacy, and pervasiveness of God's presence is too intense for the human mind. We often limit God by our expectations of Him and have a hard time just letting God be God. Some people all too easily lose faith because God does not meet their expectations. Worse still, the idea of faith is rejected altogether by others because of polarities and experiences they have that don't square with who they need God to be. The Holy Trinity is one of those teachings that is best encountered rather than dissected. It is only through being present with the Trinity that we can experience both the immensity and otherness of God's presence as well as the intimacy of the God who wants us to call Him "dad." We feel the loving guidance of a God who wants to take us from fear and give us confidence. Our God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow is a God of all ages whose three-fold Presence invades all senses, seasons, and times. God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is much more than any of our expectations if we simply let God be who God is.

Word of Life

"In modern times, children in their mothers' wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the 'least of these' in our world's estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern. ... Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life."

Gospel Meditation

The Most Holy Trinity

Let God be who God is. This is often one of the hardest things to do. Rather than allowing the mystery of being created in the image and likeness of God unfold and take root in our lives, we change the dynamic. We want to be the creators who want to make God into the image and likeness we need God to be. We have a hard-enough time letting the people in our lives be who they are. We struggle even more so with God. It is almost as if we want God to be our imaginary friend who is not only with us whenever we need but becomes the Being we need God to be. Who is it that we want God to be today? A protector, disciplinarian, champion for justice, healer, advocate for our cause, grantor of prayers, guardian of my life, or the avenger? Our prayers tell an interesting story. When you pray, what does God look like?

Recently, a young woman who was feeling invisible, overlooked, ignored, and misunderstood by her husband struggled to make her feelings known and get his attention. Finally, she screamed, "Listen to me!" Thus, birth was given to a renewed and healthier relationship. We spend so much time storming heaven with our agenda and trying to make God into a "god" of our desires that we do not hear God saying, "Listen to me!" God is desperately trying to get our attention. God is saying, I am here among you as not one but three, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Many people seldom notice God's presence because they are so caught up with other spiritual cares and concerns. And, when the "god" they fashion and create doesn't produce as they desire, they shake the dust from their feet and move on. "I tried," they exclaim, "but God didn't listen."

Healthy relationships aren't built on making someone be who we need them to be. Healthy relationships are built on encounters of persons and the development of an appreciation of someone solely for who they are. Deeper relationships can even be found with two people marveling at each other and almost experiencing a childlike joy and giddiness when they see the other coming. Do you ever have these feelings about God? Believe it or not, God does for you! There is a joyful laughter that gives rise to and connects all three members of the Holy Trinity. It is this laughter, flowing from the very depths of the God-head that not only keeps the Trinity in joyful unity but spills over into the creation of all beings and things. It is an expression of Divine Delight! Have you ever taken time away from your agenda to experience the Divine Joyfulness of God?

We can reach a connection of Presence wherein even the smallest of creatures suddenly radiate the fullness of God: the wonderful creation of their being, the innocence and playfulness of their movements, and the sustaining life breath that flows through their veins. The same God who created the heavens and the earth is the same God who wants you to call him 'Dad' and the same God who preserves your life and has all things in His care.
