Our Mission

The Mission of The Church of the Immaculate Conception is to proclaim and celebrate our Lord Jesus Christ. We fulfill our mission as Christian disciples by intentionally responding to God's call to grow in holiness.

From the Pastor's Desk

"The Love of Christ Impels Us"

The quote that serves as the title of this bulletin article is from the Second Reading at Mass for this Sunday wherein St. Paul was writing to the community of Christian believers in the ancient city of Corinth. For further context he wrote, "For the love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died" (2 Corinthians 5:14). It is not often that we hear the word "impel" in casual conversations. It's a word that originally comes, "from Latin impellere 'to push, strike against; set in motion, drive forward, urge on'" (<https://www.etymonline.com/word/impel>).

With the Love of Christ firmly rooted in his heart, St. Paul was able to push onward in the midst of the challenges, misunderstandings, and opposition that he faced. He struck against the pagan beliefs that he encountered with the "conviction" that Jesus died for the sake of saving all of humanity. St. Paul was set in motion by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit to share the Good News of salvation. He was driven forward and urged on in his mission because he knew who he was and Whose he was. May the great Patron Saint of our Archdiocese pray for us to have that same conviction and be impelled onward to share this message of Divine Mercy with everyone we meet.

Mercy with Christ,
Fr. James

the old things have passed away;
behold, new things have come." (Ez 17:24)

DISCOVERING A DEEPER RELATIONSHIP WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

Baptism in the Holy Spirit & Fire

As we celebrate the Nativity of John the Baptist this week, we remember his words: "He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire" (Mt 3:11). Jesus came to baptize us in the Holy Spirit, and the power and grace that comes from baptism in the Holy Spirit changes lives. Explore the meaning of this sacrament in this episode of The Wild Goose!

Discipleship

Waking God

A show of hands, ladies and gentlemen. Have any of you been given the silent treatment and had absolutely no idea why?

On the flipside, have any of you have sworn you're not going to demean yourself by explaining, for the thousandth time, that you need extra help with the kids before soccer practice, or that you feel ignored when your spouse doesn't ask how your day went?

But sadly, love doesn't give you the ability to read minds. And in the end, we learn the lesson again and again, we have to verbalize our feelings, our needs, our wants. Expecting your partner to anticipate your needs is guaranteed to end badly.

It's the same with God, even though, oddly enough, He does have the ability to read minds. But He still desires us to explain ourselves to Him, doesn't He? "I'm feeling scared of this." "I'm really worried about that." "God, I think I need x, y and z. Help me. Please."

Jesus slept on that boat, as it was tossed and turned by the waves, until his disciples woke him. "Why were you sleeping?" they ask. Well, geniuses, he was sleeping because they hadn't woken him up yet. They had wasted time cowering in fear, waiting for him to act. They gave him the silent treatment and they didn't even know it.

God doesn't desire us to verbalize our needs as a way of keeping us submissive. He's not that petty. What He desires is the communication — that's what really counts. That act of opening yourself up, of becoming vulnerable, of relying on Him, trusting Him. If it feels like God is asleep in your life, ask yourself this, have you tried waking Him up?

Eucharistic Adoration

*"He hushed the storm to a gentle breeze
And the billows of the sea were stilled."*

(from Psalm 107)

As Jesus calmed the storm at sea for his disciples, He also calms our life storms. Adorers bring their problems and concerns to Jesus during their adoration hour and know He is there for them. They often leave the chapel with the peace they were looking for. As we begin to open up our chapel at the beginning of July, consider signing up for an hour of Eucharistic Adoration. Our chapel is available Monday through Friday beginning at 7:00 am.

At this time we are asking adorers to continue to follow these requests:

- Only registered, scheduled adorers are allowed in the chapel (no walk in visitors will be admitted at this time).
- Masks are required.
- All adorers are asked to sanitize any surfaces they touch during their adoration hour.
- If you are not feeling well, please stay home.

If you would like to register and schedule an adoration hour, or if you are an adorer unable to attend your scheduled hour, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246.

Volunteers are needed to cover Mondays at noon, Tuesdays at 5:00 pm, Wednesdays at 7:00 am, 10:00 am and 1:00 pm, and Fridays at 9:00 am and 2:00 pm.

Back To Mass MN

Sunday Obligation Dispensation Update

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation will be reinstated beginning the weekend of July 3-4, 2021.

Q: How are parishes keeping us safe when we attend Mass?

A: Parishes follow stringent liturgical protocols to ensure the safety of all participating in the Mass. Find the latest liturgical protocols from the archdiocesan Office of Worship at archspm.org/liturgicalprotocols.

Q: Will Mass look different?

A: Yes, it might. Even though social distancing is no longer mandated indoors, parishes may still have designated seating areas as they transition back to full capacity. While there is no longer a mask mandate in Minnesota, your local municipality or parish may still require face coverings indoors for all those ages five and over. Additionally, baptismal fonts and holy water stoups may be empty, restrooms may have capacity limits, congressional singing may be discouraged, coffee and donuts may not be offered yet, and parishes may provide hand sanitizer for all those participating in the Mass.

Yet more powerful than the differences are what remains the same: Jesus in the Eucharist. The sense of community and fellowship among those worshiping. And the opportunity to participate in the sacrifice of the Mass, just as believers have since the very beginning of Christianity.

Why Do We Do That?—Catholic Life Explained

Question: What do the colors of the priest's and deacon's vestments mean?

Answer: In the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, the colors of the vestments evolved over the course of several centuries and there was wide variation both in the colors used, and in the feasts and seasons associated with particular colors. It was Pope Innocent III (d. 1216) who gave us the basic outline that was later prescribed by Pope Saint Pius V in 1570. The various colors remind us of the dominant themes of a particular season or celebration.

White: Used for the seasons of Christmas and Easter and in celebrations of the Lord, of Mary, the angels, and saints who were not martyrs. This color is also used in Masses for the dead, at baptisms, weddings and other festive celebrations.

Red: As the color of both blood and fire, red is used on Palm Sunday and Good Friday, as well as Pentecost and special celebrations of the Holy Spirit. Moreover, red is used on the feasts and memorials of the Apostles and those saints who died as martyrs.

Violet: The color for Advent and Lent. Violet may also be used in Masses for the dead and on All Souls Day (November 2).

Green: A color of life and hope, green is used throughout Ordinary Time.

Other colors: Rose may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent, black may be used in Masses of the dead and on All Souls Day, gold or silver may be used on solemn occasions in place of white, red, or green.

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

Do we trust that God will take care of us and has things under control? When life gets difficult, shaky or painful, we may find ourselves wondering what we may have done to deserve this fate. Often, we go to great lengths to explain suffering away, as if it has no purpose and ought not to exist. In an attempt to get God on our side in our battle against suffering, our prayer can mirror a question asked by the disciples: do you not care that we are perishing? As we are asking that question of God, God is asking of us: do you not yet have faith? It is for certain that God does not intentionally inflict pain upon us. God has no sinister plot to test our faith or trip us up. Rather, the unconditional, restorative and rejuvenating power of God's love can bring light out of the greatest darkness and gives hope in the midst of deep despair. We have to be patient and ride out the storm. It is our task to deepen our faith that God will calm the wind and draw meaning out of that which seems senseless.

Word of Life

"Through our prayers and through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron of fathers, may fathers come to know the irreplaceable role they hold in the lives of their children, and the responsibility they share in welcoming God's gift of new life!"

—Most Reverend Shelton J. Fabre, Bishop of Houma-Thibodaux

Religious Freedom Week 2021—

Solidarity in Freedom takes place June 22 – 29. The Week begins with the Feast of Sts. John Fisher and Thomas More, ends with the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, and includes the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. Many resources are available to help the faithful pray, reflect, and take action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad. Resources, including graphics, lectionary notes, bulletin inserts, and daily prayers and reflections are available at usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek.
