Our Mission

The Mission of The Church of the Immaculate Conception is to proclaim and celebrate our Lord Jesus Christ. We fulfill our mission as Christian disciples by intentionally responding to God's call to grow in holiness.

From the Pastor's Desk

Two by Two

Within the Gospel for the Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time we read that Jesus sent out His Disciples, “two by two” (Mark 6:7). This simple decision had significant ramifications for his followers. While I could expound upon these ideas in prose, I was inspired to put together a brief poem about it:

*The Lord Jesus sent His friends to proclaim the Good News,
Sending them out with each other walking twos by twos.
They didn't carry money, food, or a great earthly treasure,
Just sandals on their feet and a message beyond measure.
They journeyed as companions to tell others to repent,
To heal the sick and the hurting with joy as they went.
We too are sent on this thrilling mission by God,
Though some might think us a little bit odd.
But we press on with kindness and heartfelt care,
As we share the Gospel both here and there.
May the Grace of Christ help you in all that you do,
Support you and bless you 'til your journey is through!*

Mercy with Christ,
Fr. James

Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

The origins of this feast reach all the way back to the Old Testament. In the book of Kings, we read the story of the prophet Elijah. Much of his prayer, fasting, and public ministry occurred from Carmel, a mountain in Israel. Christian hermits—seeking solitude—made their homes on the mountain during the first millennium. Over time, the hermits assembled into a community and were given a Rule of Life. They named their church after Mary—Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Political upheaval forced the Carmelite order out of the Holy Land and into Europe, where they established monasteries for both men and women across the continent. Many great saints and doctors of the Church have come from the Carmelite order, including St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, and St. Edith Stein.

Eucharistic Adoration

“May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.” (Ephesians 1:17-18)

Eucharistic Adoration is where we can pray in the real presence of Jesus and receive the peace and enlightenment only He can give. All are welcome to join this prayer-filled ministry.

We have eliminated some of the restrictions for our chapel and have opened the chapel to more adorers. We want to keep adorers healthy, so please continue to follow CDC Covid prevention guidelines. Masks will be optional.

We are asking people to sign up for a preferred hour. If you already have an hour of adoration scheduled, you can keep that hour and do not need to sign up again. There will be an information/sign-up table in the church narthex after each of the Masses this weekend. An adorer will be available to answer any questions.

Our chapel is open Monday through Friday beginning at 7:00 am. We are looking for volunteers to cover Tuesdays at 9:00 am, Wednesdays at 7:00 am, 10:00 am, and 1:00 pm, and Fridays at 10:00 am. We also have evening hours available and are open to having partner adorers. Visitors are also welcome; however, they will need the door code to enter the chapel. If you would like to schedule an adoration hour, if you are unable to attend your scheduled adoration hour or if you would like to visit our chapel, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246.

School News

Our 8th grade students are given an assignment near the end of the year to share their own ICS Story and offer advice to the upcoming 8th graders. The students’ essays are inspirational. I often use many quotes from their written word to put together a talk delivered at the graduation Mass. Please enjoy these thoughtful quotes from our graduates who are now beginning high school! And, thank you to their fine teacher, Megan Toninato, for instructing them in language arts and religion. And continued blessings to our graduates of 2021!

“My experience here at ICS has boosted my confidence, and I know, somewhere in your future, it’ll boost your confidence, and you can help boost others’ confidence. Don’t quit, don’t say you can’t, just do it and see what your results will be.” — Ginah

“In my 2nd grade year, I became very interested in God and the Catholic Faith. Every religion period, I was amazed at the stories of the Bible. When we would attend Mass I was very interested in Father John’s teachings. The main thing that I thought was cool about Mass is the Sacrament of Communion. I didn’t know what it was, or what the significance of it was, but I was very interested. So I learned about the Catholic Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. I was instantly hooked on wanting to become a Catholic. So I went home and begged my parents to allow me to be baptized at the school. My parents agreed and I was baptized in the Immaculate Conception Church. My parents chose Mrs. Kulikowski to become my godmother because she introduced me to the Catholic Faith. This was the beginning of my Journey of Faith. I believe second grade was the year where I had the most spiritual growth.” — Nikolaus

Discipleship

What We Carry from Town to Town

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don’t.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we’ve been — whether it’s a private home or a public bathroom — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we’re tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the “town” God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don’t let a past disappointment constrain you. Don’t allow yesterday’s failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today’s witness, whatever form it might take.

Why Do We Do That?—Catholic Life Explained

Question: What kind of religious practices should we begin, once we marry, to help us practice our faith each day?

Answer: Your spiritual life as a couple is important. The sacrament of Marriage is a gift and a grace, but living it well isn't always easy! It requires intentionality and perseverance. Growing your spiritual life as a couple also requires a plan. Life can be incredibly busy. There's never "enough time" for everything we want to do. But we can live by our priorities. If we don't prioritize prayer, we'll find it slowly disappear from our lives.

If you're not already praying individually, that's a good place to start. If your schedules are similar, take some quiet time at the same time to help hold each other accountable. Praying together is also important! You could start by looking at the religious practices of your family and of families around you that you respect. Talk with your spouse about the ones who make the deepest impression on you or were most meaningful when you were young. Think about what you want your future children to experience. Making faith a commitment now will mean it is engrained habit when you grow your family. Ultimately, these faith practices should help us grow in our love for God and for one another.

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

God calls us to bring His Word to all corners of the earth. What does that mean for you and me? We are just simple and humble folks trying to find our way through the Gospel and our world. After all, we are not professional preachers but gentle servants. Jesus summons us to take his message on the road and bring it from the pew to the pavement. We cannot keep the joy of the Gospel to ourselves but must bring it into every aspect of our lives: our families, our schools, our work, our corporations, our politics, our social circles, and our philosophies. We cannot just accept the wisdom of the world as true and conduct our lives as if the Good News is a separate matter. They are one. Jesus never asked his friends to go and construct buildings where people could come to hear the truth. He asked them to go to their homes and meet them one on one, face to face. When the rubber meets the road and the message is challenging, rejection is quite possible. That's the litmus test for whether we're really doing what we have been asked.

Word of Life

For families considering adoption:
May the Lord guide and bless their journey,
and grant them peace along the way;
We pray to the Lord:

"Adopting Andrew has made us more aware of God's power and of his love for us. We realize that he always has a perfect plan for our lives."

—USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "An Adoption Love Story"

Gospel Meditation

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the “road less traveled.” Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.

Saints & Snacks with Meg Hunter-Kilmer

Friday, July 16, 10:00 am at Church of Saint Paul, Ham Lake
Bring your family to hear stories of scared Saints, brilliant Saints, grumpy Saints, overjoyed Saints, disabled Saints, (and more) and how all their stories tell the One Story of the love of God and how very possible holiness is! Meg Hunter-Kilmer is author of the new book Saints Around the World. Visit churchofsaintpaul.com/meg-hunter-kilmer.

Millennial Saints with Meg Hunter-Kilmer

Young Adult Event — Friday, July 16, 6:15 pm at Church of Saint Paul, Ham Lake

Join Meg Hunter-Kilmer for a presentation on Millennial Saints: Saints can seem impossibly irrelevant, immaculate souls living in a world so different from ours we hardly recognize it. But Saints are still being made, and there are a number of millennials with open causes for canonization. These young men and women lived with television, soccer, CDs, and even Google — and let those things make them Saints. Through their witness (and their intercession) we can do the same. Visit churchofsaintpaul.com/meg-hunter-kilmer.

Stop Your Taxes from Paying for Abortion!

Congress is trying to force Americans to pay for abortion. For decades, Congress has protected your money from paying for abortion. Now, some powerful government officials are trying to change that.

HOW? The Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from funding elective abortion for 45 years. Now, powerful members of Congress want to take away these laws that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century.

WHAT HAPPENS WITHOUT THESE PROTECTIONS? Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion.

TAKE ACTION! Sign the petition to Congress at NoTaxpayerAbortion.com!
