

From Our Pastor

We had a seminarian, Peter Romens, in residence with us for a couple of weeks this month. Our Teaching-Parish seminarian, Deacon Joseph Nguyen, begins now his last semester before being ordained a priest in May.

We have a few men from our parish who are in formation for the Permanent Diaconate. We also have several young people from families in our parish who are in formation for religious life.

If anyone feels creative, I would love to have something on display here that shows all the people connected to our parish who are discerning the call to religious or consecrated life – so that we can pray for them and so that others might see and be inspired to answer God's call in their own lives.

I have grown more and more convinced that we need to help one another to discern our vocation and to understand what God is doing in our lives. It can be like having spinach in your teeth. Often everybody else can see it but you have no idea it's there.

Pay attention to the children and young people around you. You will notice that some have gifts from God that they themselves haven't recognized yet. Tell them what you see! Let them know that you believe God has specially gifted them in this way. You will see a smile come over their faces – and they will start to get in touch with that call of the Lord deep inside of them

Encouraging vocations is important for all of us – and it can be inspiring and great fun too. God calls – let's all watch and listen.

~ Fr. Dennis Zehren
