SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28, 30

From Our Pastor

A Reading from the First Letter of Father Zehren to the Snowbirds:

Here's an open letter to all of you good and faithful St. Vincent de Paul parishioners who, every year when the weather forecasters start using phrases like "wind-chill factor" and "icy arctic front," migrate south for a few months.

I thought I'd float this out there to see how many of you are keeping up on parish news – checking the bulletin or the website while you are gone. Send me a postcard if you are reading this and I'll send up a prayer for you. It's important for us to keep connected.

Meanwhile, while you're away, don't let the natives down there make fun of your Minnesotan accent. That just ain't right, dontcha know! If, on the other hand, you are walking around the beach or the desert wearing black socks with flip-flops, they have every right to make fun of you. You have it coming.

It has been dark and cold and bleak here. It has been so cold that my anointings have been gumming up and I have had to switch to a lower viscosity holy oil. It has been so cold here that people have been begging me to preach more about the fires of hell.

To keep our minds active through the dark nights we also have been contemplating something that comedian Steven Wright once asked, "If it's zero degrees outside today and it's supposed to be twice as cold tomorrow, how cold is it going to be?" We've kept quite busy thinking about that.

I hope when you go to Mass down there you're greeting the priest afterward and telling him what a nice parish you come from. I figure he owes me some sort of compensation for having you for so long. See if you can work out a parish-swap between me and him for a week next January. I'll take his parish for a week and he can cover for me here for a week. Until then, I'll start shopping for black socks and flip-flops!

So long for now. We miss you here at St. Vincent de Paul. See you snowbirds back home soon!

ADULT ACTIVITIES

Pre-Baptism Class

This Tuesday, February 1
from 7-8:30 PM
in the Community Rm

Registration is required (call the office) and babysitting is not available. We recommend attending before the birth of your child. Both parents are required to attend. Parents are encouraged to attend for each child and are required to attend if it has been 5 years or longer since attending. Note: Godparents must be practicing Catholics who are confirmed, one male and one female, and at least 16 years of age.

Beware of Fraud

Beware of any emails or texts claiming to be from Fr. Zehren, Fr. Zipp, or other staff members asking you to send cash, gift cards, etc.

We will not solicit donations in this way. Do not respond to the message, just delete it immediately. Our only authorized method for online giving is through saintvdp.org/giving.

Arms of Hope Miscarriage Ministry

Learn more about the ministry by picking up a brochure in the kiosk in the Gathering Area, or contacting Margaret Schauer at 763-762-7410.

Nothing can prepare parents, family, and friends for a baby dying prior to birth. During this difficult time, we encourage you to contact our pastoral staff. We are able to assist families as they journey through the many emotions that they will face.

For families that have experienced miscarriages in the past, we encourage you to honor the memory of your baby by inscribing the child's name on the monument in our cemetery.

World Day for Consecrated Life

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Wednesday, Feb. 2 and in parishes over the weekend of February 5-6.

Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day.

We pray for those who are consecrated to God by the vows of chastity, poverty and obedience. May they always reveal the love of Christ to those they encounter and continue to enrich our world by their dedicated lives of prayer.

FAMILY & YOUTH ACTIVITIES

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week.

We kick it off this weekend by celebrating our Parish, St. Vincent de Paul with our Parish School Students participating in each Mass. Thank you for your continued prayers, involvement, and financial support, especially during yet another unprecedented school year. We are so blessed with a strong Parish community. Thank you again, from all of us at your Parish School.
