PROFESSION OF FAITH - Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(all bow as able)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(all stand upright as able)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

Dear Parishioners,

How appropriate it is that we revisit this weekend the first chapter of Luke’s Gospel, as we are at the beginning of the liturgical calendar. We hear from Luke of how Jesus begins his ministry after being baptized by John in the Jordan. Jesus teaches in the synagogue and reads the words of the prophet Isaiah. These words foreshadow very well what Jesus would do in his ministry.

He would anoint, he would preach to the poor and oppressed, and would praise the Father will all his good works. Most important is what Jesus says at the end of the Gospel passage, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.” Jesus is speaking about himself, as he is the living Word. Isaiah’s words are fulfilled in Jesus, as the New Testament is the fulfillment of the Old Testament.

The words of Isaiah and Luke invite us to pay attention to what we will hear in the Gospel passages within the upcoming weeks of Ordinary Time. Let us recognize how all the attributes of Jesus described in Luke’s Gospel are fulfilled in Jesus. This will help us to develop our understanding of who Jesus was during his time and who Jesus is for us in our spiritual life.

Blessings, Fr. Quay, C.Ss.R.

Estimados feligreses

Qué apropiado es que visitamos de nuevo este fin de semana el primer capítulo del Evangelio de Lucas, ya que estamos al comienzo del calendario litúrgico. Escuchamos de Lucas cómo Jesús comienza su ministerio después de ser bautizado por Juan en el Jordán. Jesús enseña en la sinagoga y lee las palabras del profeta Isaías. Estas palabras presagian muy bien lo que Jesús haría en su ministerio.

Ungiría, predicaría a los pobres y oprimidos, y alabaría su Padre por todas sus buenas obras. Lo más importante es lo que Jesús dice al final del pasaje del Evangelio: “Hoy se cumple este pasaje de la Escritura en presencia de ustedes.” Jesús está hablando de sí mismo, porque que él es la Palabra viva. Las palabras de Isaías se cumplen en Jesús, como el Nuevo Testamento es el cumplimiento del Antiguo Testamento.

Las palabras de Isaías y Lucas nos invitan a poner atención a lo que escucharemos en los pasajes del Evangelio en las próximas semanas del Tiempo Ordinario. Reconozcamos cómo todos los atributos de Jesús descritos en el Evangelio de Lucas se cumplen en Jesús. Esto nos ayudará a desarrollar nuestra comprensión de quién fue Jesús durante su tiempo y quién es Jesús para nosotros en nuestra vida espiritual

Bendiciones, P. Quy, C.Ss.R.

HACIENDOSE CATOLICO

John Kamara

Nací en Liberia y crecí en Guinea. Cuando era niño, el primer idioma que hablé fue el kpelle, que es el idioma de mis padres que aprendí antes de ir a la escuela de francés.

He estado yendo a la iglesia católica pero nunca he tenido la oportunidad de aprender sobre ser católico o ser bautizado. Vine aquí en 2006 desde Guinea pero no hablaba inglés. Ahora sí y este es el momento para mí de aprender y ser bautizado como católico.

BECOMING CATHOLIC

John Kamara

I was born in Liberia and grew up in Guinea. When I was growing up as a kid, the first language I spoke was Kpelle, which is my parent's language that I learned before going to French school.

I have been going to the Catholic church but have never had a chance to learn about being Catholic or to be baptized. I came here in 2006 from Guinea but I didn't speak English. Now I do and this is the time for me to learn and to be baptized as Catholic.

RESPECT FOR LIFE MINISTRY

"Many people know someone personally who is suffering because of an abortion. If a friend confided in you tomorrow that she had an abortion, would you be able to respond in a way that brings her closer to healing? ... Even a woman who doesn't go to church or think of herself as religious can be afraid that God will never forgive her for having an abortion. She should know that God loves and forgives those who are sorrowful. He wants to comfort them and give them his peace."

(USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities - "How to Talk to a Friend Who's Had an Abortion")

MINISTERIO DEL RESPETO POR LA VIDA

"Muchas personas conocen a alguien personalmente que sufre a causa de un aborto. Si una amiga mañana te confía que tuvo un aborto, ¿podrías responder de manera tal que la acerque a la sanación? ... Hasta una mujer que no va a la iglesia o no se cree religiosa puede sentir temor de que Dios nunca la va a perdonar por haber abortado. Ella debería saber que Dios ama y perdona a quienes se arrepienten. Él quiere consolarlas y darles su paz"
