MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

Welcome to the New Year. It is my fondest hope and prayer that we will continue to experience blessings, trials, surprises, and much of the same old stuff together. I look forward to going through this year with you, as you have so patiently and graciously gone through the last year with me (broken ankle and all). Sometimes that is referred to as “accompanying” people in both their joyful and sad times. I desire to do that. Usually there are sacraments for these peak and valley moments: Baptism for babies and the joy of new life, Anointing of the Sick for times of illness, weddings for beginning life together, confession for when we stumble, Confirmation for transitioning into the maturity of adulthood, and Eucharist for the daily sustenance to keep us going. Sacraments are a priority in any priest’s ministry. So don’t hesitate to ask for Confession or Anointing of the Sick. I have been looking for a time which is convenient for Confessions, and will try Fridays after Mass as well as Saturdays before the 5 PM Mass, and of course by appointment. We who know God’s mercy, understand His love more deeply.

As for Anointing of the Sick, please do not wait for someone to be comatose to call. The sacrament offers peace to those who are suffering and to those accompanying him/her. Any time an illness takes a turn for the worse, especially in us older people, it is appropriate to receive this sacrament. I like to have families gather together, as many as is possible (often on short notice), so that they can celebrate together and pray for the one who is ill. It is a great consolation for the WHOLE family. Though it may be hard to face, it is also a huge consolation to know that the Lord is there in your suffering and in your loss, blessing the transition to eternal life or bringing about healing and extending our lives here on earth. One parishioner who was in hospice (dying) told her daughter that she was going to be OK, and that “Fr. Albert has prepared me for this.” While I recognize that it is really the Holy Spirit and her faith at work, not me, I have never received a compliment that meant more to me, nor have I been so consoled. In the monastery we monks consider it a privilege to be with another monk when he dies and transitions into eternity. At Night Prayer (Compline) the final blessing is: “May the Lord grant you a restful night, and a peaceful death.” It is a sacred moment when one enters into eternity, and we spend our lives preparing for it one way or another. It is possible and a great blessing to make this transition peacefully.

Catholics are often criticized for having so many rules. The celebrations of Christmas time provide a great example of this. We had four Masses for Christmas, three on the day before and one on the day of. Then there was no Mass on Saturday night for either Christmas or Holy Family. That was because we would have had to use the readings and prayers from Christmas, since Christmas takes precedence over the Feast of the Holy Family, instead of the normal readings for the Feast of the Holy Family. Rather than explain how the Mass on Saturday night “counted” for Sunday (Holy Family) in terms of satisfying your obligation, even though the readings were for Christmas which took precedence, I chose to cancel the Mass. Then the next week, the Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God (Saturday) is not a Holy Day of Obligation when it falls on a day (Saturday or a Monday) next to the Epiphany. So we had only the vigil Mass for Mary’s feast, assuming people would not come on a Saturday morning after New Year’s Eve. Saturday night is the normal Vigil Mass in anticipation of the Feast of Epiphany, which takes precedence over the Marian feast. I should also say that having only one priest as well as finding people to staff all those Masses close together is challenging. For those who wanted to know, that is the explanation.

It is a joy to accompany this community on our journey to heaven.

Father Albert, O.S.B.

Parish Notes

Thank you to everyone who donated cookies for the Maryville Treatment Center inmates. We received well over the 50 dozen that were asked for. This is a highlight for prisoners each year, and we thank you for your dedication to making their holidays a little bit brighter.

thank you

The Walter family would like to thank Fr. Albert & Fr. Peter for the beautiful funeral service for our mom, Luella Walter. Also thank you to the Women’s Guild for the delicious dinner. We are so blessed to be a part of St. Gregory’s Parish Family.

Happy New Year!

Is one of your goals this year to deepen your faith? If so, St. Gregory's has many resources available. Our library is full of books on various spiritual topics. Our Dynamic Catholic partnership also provides us with books intended to help us with our personal relationship with Jesus and enrich our prayer life. In addition to printed materials, you can find lots of resources on our website. Check out the Faith Formation Spiritual Resources page for more information. Here you will also find Formed, a video site which is full of wonderful content for all stages of faith formation. I highly recommend "The Search" by Chris Stefanick. I also just finished watching "Metanoia" which in addition to great messages, is full of beautiful scenery of the Holy Land. We also provide in person faith formation through RCIA, prayer groups, ministries, and small faith groups.

It seems like everyday I am hearing about more email programs, videos, podcasts, and apps that are available to help us with our daily routines. I personally enjoy my daily email reflections from Conception Abbey and Blessed is She. I'm not really a podcast person, but I occasionally listen to an episode of "You Were Born for This" by Father John Riccardo. Bishop Robert Barron's "Word on Fire", the Augustine Institute, and Ascension Press are also generating a lot of great content. I recently signed up to do "Bible in a Year" with Father Mike Schmitts and have been receiving email notifications about his content on YouTube. There are Apps that provide links to daily Mass readings, inform us about the saints of the day and so much other information. The ones I have heard of are "Laudate", "Amen" and "Hallow"

My point is, If you are looking for resources, there are many available. So many that it can be overwhelming at times. It helps to have people to ask for advice and recommendations, feel free to call the office for information. While every person has their opinions about what is best, the best resource for you is the one that helps you feel connected to the Holy Spirit, guides you in the format you like best, and fits into your schedule. I hope you find what you are looking for.

Thank you for sharing your gifts. – Chris Kuhlemeyer

Catholic Charities

Marie's New job- I know it may not seem like a big deal, but it is HUGE to me. I was working with Catholic Charities and their employment services on my resume. They helped proofread my spelling and grammar. We worked on my interview skills...and I found a job!

I don't mind the work; I like to clean, and I like the feeling of leaving something clean and fresh. I also don't mind working alone, which I will for the most part. I like to get right down to it and get the job done.

Will this be my job forever? I don't know. I can't say, "I don't care" because I really do care. I am so thankful for the job and the chance to earn my own living.

Reminder that Little Saints/CGS will resume classes on Wednesday, January 12th! Happy New Year!

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd
at St. Gregory's Parish

The place where catechesis takes place in the atrium is the heart of the child. We sometimes are allowed a peek into what the child is experiencing through their "work." These drawings occurred after experiencing Scriptures about the birth of our Lord.

Want to Help?

St. Gregory's offers time in Adoration each Wednesday following 8 AM Mass until the evening hours. Certain people commit to spending time with the Blessed Sacrament in quiet prayer during that day. We never are to leave Jesus alone on the altar, so there is a group of faithful people who help Adoration to happen in our parish for all who might want to just stop in to pray.

One of our regular adorers will be gone January through March and we are needing one or two people willing to commit to 30 minutes with Jesus at 2:30. If you are interested and would like to help, please call Michele at 660-541-5157.

LIVE THE LITURGY
Inspiration for the week

Human beings easily get bored. Life’s routines can become so predictable that there is often little time for excitement or freshness. Today is all about the new and the wonderful. In celebrating the beauty and simplicity of the Epiphany, we see in tangible ways God’s creative, redemptive, and restorative power. This refreshment and revitalization is offered not only to a select few but to everyone throughout the world. There is nothing routine or static about God. Surprises, wonders, miracles, opportunities, healings, and joy without measure are available to those who believe. There are never any endings, just beginnings. And, when darkness, boredom, and gloom seem to be the order of the day, a bright new light now shines pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

Prayer For Those Living Alone
 I live alone, dear Lord, stay by my side.
 In all my daily needs, be Thou my Guide.
 Grant me good health, for that I pray.
 To carry on my work from day to day.
 Keep pure my thoughts, my every deed,
 let me be kind and unselfish in my neighbor’s needs.
 Spare me from fire, from flood,
 malicious tongues, from thieves, from fear, and evil ones.
 If sickness or an accident befall me,
 then humbly, Lord, hear Thou my call.
 And when I am feeling low or in despair,
 lift up my heart and help me in prayer.
 I live alone, dear Lord, yet have no fear,
 because I feel Your presence ever near.
 Amen
