THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." - Lk 3:16bc

MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

Today is the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. It is the Sunday when we transition from Christmas Time to Ordinary Time. So next week is the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

It has been suggested that I address some myths about the Catholic Church. These are things that non-Catholics (and some Catholics) believe about the Catholic Church, which usually indicates a misunderstanding about what we believe. I have a list of eight right now, and if you want me to address something like this, then submit your question to me and I will put it on the list.

Question #1 is: Catholics think they one can earn his/her way into heaven. Response: No, that is not true. Catholics believe that (except for Baptism by Desire) before baptism, we are in a state of separation from God due to the sin of Adam and Eve, called Original Sin. We cannot extricate ourselves from that predicament, so cannot achieve heaven or salvation or union with God, no matter how many "good deeds" we perform. Only God can cross that chasm. Fortunately, God does this by, sending the 2nd person of the Blessed Trinity to save us. To be saved, to attain heaven, we must believe that Jesus Christ became incarnate as God and man (totally both, born of Mary and conceived by the Holy Spirit), that he suffered, died, and rose from the dead in order to bridge the chasm which separated us and made possible our salvation. To make any progress towards union with God (heaven, salvation), we humans must believe the basics of salvation – that is the only way 'back' to God. But faith demands that we behave according to our belief, that our faith manifest itself not just as an intellectual conviction, but is also reflected in our actions. Jesus himself said that his disciple is "the one who hears the word of God and keeps it." The phrase "keeps it" is called love or works of charity which flow from our faith. James 1:22 says, "Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves." In James 2:17 it says that faith without works is dead. I like to say that faith is an assumption on which one bases his/her action(s). This is true on both the natural and supernatural level. On the natural level, if you believe that there is extraterrestrial intelligent life, you will favor spending money to look for communication from this life. If you don't, you won't. On the supernatural level, if you believe that we are called as humans to live in union with God for all eternity, it is something you will strive to accomplish while here on earth. I do need to add that after having made an act of faith in the saving actions of Jesus, actions of love which we do as a result of our belief in Christ do have merit, as these acts are done in union with the redeeming acts of Christ. Faith makes that possible.

Question #2: We worship Mary, not Jesus. This is a myth. We do not believe that Mary existed before she was conceived (as we do Christ), we do not see her as part of the Blessed Trinity (as we do Christ), we do not see her as conceived by the Holy Spirit (as we do Christ). We honor Mary in a special way as we would the mother of anyone who is special to us, more so because she is the mother of our savior. In this case, Jesus is God and man, God by the Holy Spirit and man by the nature which Mary agreed to give Him. She is special because she was favored by God ("Rejoice, O highly favored one!" said Gabriel), she is a model of what it means to be a disciple (to hear the word of God and keep it, to obey, cooperate in God's plan), she is thus a model of what the Church is meant to be, and she had privileges which are befitting of one who bore and reared the Son of God. It may appear to outsiders that we have more statues of Mary than Jesus, and emphasize devotion to Mary more than to Jesus, but it is our experience as Catholics that one who has a true devotion to Mary will always be lead by her to her son, Jesus Christ. To be continued. Please submit other questions you may have.

Let us have a blessed year in 2022!

Father Albert, O.S.B.

St. John Vianney Inaugural Luncheon

Thursday, February 17th , 2022, 11:30 – 1pm, Hotel Kansas City 1 228 Baltimore Avenue Kansas City, Missouri, 64105 Tudor Ball Room. Tables: $1,000 Sponsorships.

Join Bishop Johnston for the 1st Annual St. John Vianney Luncheon to support the Seminarians of the Diocese of Kansas City – St. Joseph. We are pleased to launch this inaugural event as we look to support the young men in our diocese studying for vocations. This event will feature a celebration of the priestly vocation and all the work that is needed to ensure that we have priests for generations to come. Your support will help the Diocese to provide resources needed to support these young men on this special and important journey. This event will end promptly at 1 pm so that you may plan for your day. Those who wish to support by purchasing a table or donating may return this envelope or register online at www.kcsjatholic.org.

Little Saints and CGS classes resume this next week at 6:00 pm on Wednesday, January 12th. Looking forward to seeing everyone!

Want to Help?

St. Gregory's offers time in Adoration each Wednesday following 8 AM Mass until the evening hours.

Certain people commit to spending time with the Blessed Sacrament in quiet prayer during that day.

We are never to leave Jesus alone on the altar, so there is a group of faithful people who help Adoration to happen in our parish. All are welcome to stop in to pray at any time.

One of our regular adorers will be gone January through March and we are needing one or two people willing to commit to 30 minutes with Jesus at 2:30 each Wednesday.

If you are interested and would like to help, please call Michele at 660-541-5157.

THE PEACE ROSARY

Following Mass each Wednesday morning, a group of people pray The Peace Rosary in our parish.

So what is the Peace Rosary? The Peace Rosary is a long tradition prayed by families in Croatia. The Rosary consists of 21 beads, arranged in seven groups of three beads, and a pendant or single bead. Begin by praying the Creed, on the first bead (or medal), then pray one Our Father, one Hail Mary and one Glory Be on each of the 3 beads respectively. All are welcome to join in this time of prayer!

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
and all people shall see it together;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. (40:5)

PSALM:

O bless the Lord, my soul. (Ps 104)

SECOND READING:

He saved us through the bath of rebirth
and renewal by the Holy Spirit. (Ti 3:5)

GOSPEL:

After all the people had been baptized
and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him
in bodily form like a dove. (Lk 3:22)
