Catholic School Week

I want you all to know how proud of our school I am. I encourage those who are not sending their school age children here to consider it as we strive to help each student reach their God-given potential and help create for them the strongest foundation of academics and faith for their future. If you are interested please talk to Ann Dettmann, our principal, myself, or any of our great teachers or staff. We are all working to provide a blessed environment for all who come to our school.

Fr. Mark

Thank You

Each day at CAER, we're reminded of the important role we all have in our community to ensure people receive the support they need during a crisis—whether it might be food, financial assistance, winter wear—or a friendly face and listening ear.

We are grateful to you for keeping CAER in your heart in 2020.

What Saint Andrew Catholic Church and School have donated to CAER:

- $7,643
- 4,669 pounds of food

Gloria - Glory to God

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Psalm Response

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Nicene Creed

Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

Bow

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Stewardship Thought

There is a certain urgency in today's Gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples—Andrew and Simon, James and John. Each one follows Jesus immediately, unhesitatingly abandoning nets and boats and father and fellow-workers. To what is Jesus calling me—at this moment, in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him?

It's Catholic Schools Week, and I want to take a moment to say thank you to all of you. Thank you for your prayers for our school. Thanks for supporting our fundraisers and for giving to the church which also supports the school. Thanks for sending us your wonderful children and allowing us to walk with your family in these formative years for your children. Thank you for letting others know about our school and inviting them to learn more. This school began with the hard work of many people, and it continues that same way. We wouldn't be here without you all. May God richly bless you for your generosity!

Each year we have a theme for this week and we add a bit of fun into each day as we celebrate our beautiful school. This year our theme is "Catholic Schools are Out of This World!" This weekend's Mass readers are some of our own 5th graders. They are such great readers and such excellent leaders in our school. We are sure going to miss them as they graduate this spring.

Thank you all who supported our current fundraiser by purchasing a raffle ticket for the Catholic United Financial raffle. Tickets are on sale through the end of February, so there is still time!

Thank you to all who contacted me and came to visit our school to see all that we have to offer. If any of you have any questions about our school, please reach out. I am happy to help! We have availability in many of the grades.

Mental Health Services Available

The COVID-19 pandemic affects our lives in a multitude of ways, even when we think we are coping well: heightened anxiety, losses, extra stress, uncertainty [We are all adjusting to social distancing, or what psychologists prefer to call physical distancing, since connections with others is all the more important now.] Since the Stay-at-Home order in Minnesota, mental health services may now be delivered in a new way. Catholic Charities is set up for a new delivery of mental health services through Zoom technology. All you need is either a smartphone or camera on your computer. Sister Mary Fran Reichenberger, OSF, MSW, LICSW is available to do mental health therapy in this way without taking you out of your home. She also is meeting with clients at Saint Andrew Parish on Mondays (mental health services are considered "essential services"), observing physical distancing and taking other necessary precautions. You may call to schedule for either mode at 320-650-1660.

Dear Friend,

This month we observe Human Trafficking Awareness Month. Currently, across every continent and every nation, millions of human beings are being sold and enslaved, forced into labor and prostitution against their will.

This crisis – although operating in the shadows – is becoming more and more apparent to us all. In the United States alone, hundreds of thousands are trafficked by transnational drug cartels and criminal organizations.

I believe that Congress must do everything within its power and authority to ensure that resources and judicial tools are available to improve prosecutions, protect victims, and prevent future trafficking. However, while Congress must do its part, you can also be a part of protecting those at risk.

What Is Human Trafficking?

Human trafficking involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to obtain some type of labor or commercial sex act. Every year, millions of men, women, and children are trafficked worldwide—including right here in the United States. It can happen in any community and victims can be any age, race, gender, or nationality. Traffickers might use violence, manipulation, or false promises of well-paying jobs or romantic relationships to lure victims into trafficking situations.

Language barriers, fear of their traffickers, and/or fear of law enforcement frequently keep victims from seeking help, making human trafficking a hidden crime.

Traffickers use force, fraud, or coercion to lure their victims and force them into labor or commercial sexual exploitation. They look for people who are susceptible for a variety of reasons, including psychological or emotional vulnerability, economic hardship, lack of a social safety net, natural disasters, or political instability. The trauma caused by the traffickers can be so great that many may not identify themselves as victims or ask for help, even in highly public settings.

Here are some common myths & misconceptions about human trafficking:

Myth: Human trafficking does not occur in the United States. It only happens in other countries.

Fact: Human trafficking exists in every country, including the United States. It exists nationwide—in cities, suburbs and rural towns—and possibly in your own community.

Myth: Human trafficking victims are only foreign born individuals and those who are poor.

Fact: Human trafficking victims can be any age, race, gender, or nationality. They may come from any socioeconomic group.

Myth: Human trafficking is only sex trafficking.

Fact: Sex trafficking exists, but it is not the only type of human trafficking. Forced labor is another type of human trafficking; both involve exploitation of people. Victims are found in legitimate and illegitimate labor industries, including sweatshops, massage parlors, agriculture, restaurants, hotels and domestic service.

Myth: Individuals must be forced or coerced into commercial sex acts to be victims of human trafficking.

Fact: Under U.S. federal law, any minor under the age of 18 who is induced to perform commercial sex acts is a victim of human trafficking, regardless of whether he or she is forced or coerced.

Myth: Human trafficking and smuggling are the same.

Fact: Human trafficking is not the same as smuggling. “Trafficking” is based on exploitation and does not require movement across borders. “Smuggling” is based on movement and involves moving a person across a country’s border with that person’s consent in violation of immigration laws. Although human smuggling is very different from human trafficking, human smuggling can turn into trafficking if the smuggler uses force, fraud, or coercion to hold people against their will for the purposes of labor or sexual exploitation. Under federal law, every minor induced to engage in commercial sex is a victim of human trafficking.

Myth: Human trafficking victims will attempt to seek help when in public.

Fact: Human trafficking is often a hidden crime. Victims may be afraid to come forward and get help; they may be forced or coerced through threats or violence; they may fear retribution from traffickers, including danger to their families; and they may not be in possession of or have control of their identification documents.

Indicators of Human Trafficking:

Recognizing key indicators of human trafficking is the first step in identifying victims and can help save a life. Here are some common indicators to help recognize human trafficking.

- Does the person appear disconnected from family, friends, community organizations, or houses of worship?
- Has a child stopped attending school?
- Has the person had a sudden or dramatic change in behavior?
- Is a juvenile engaged in commercial sex acts?
- Is the person disoriented or confused, or showing signs of mental or physical abuse?
- Does the person have bruises in various stages of healing?
- Is the person fearful, timid, or submissive?
- Does the person show signs of having been denied food, water, sleep, or medical care?
- Is the person often in the company of someone to whom he or she defers? Or someone who seems to be in control of the situation, e.g., where they go or who they talk to?
- Does the person appear to be coached on what to say?
- Is the person living in unsuitable conditions?
- Does the person lack personal possessions and appear not to have a stable living situation?
- Does the person have freedom of movement? Can the person freely leave where they live? Are there unreasonable security measures?

Not all indicators listed above are present in every human trafficking situation, and the presence or absence of any of the indicators is not necessarily proof of human trafficking.
