This is the year of St Joseph

Pope Francis has declared this year the year of St Joseph. Many in our parish have a devotion to him as I do. He is a great protector, quiet leader and steadfast worker. There are a couple people who would like to purchase a statue of St Joseph, pictured here. This statue has Jesus with him as a young child, not as a baby as is sometimes depicted. We think this one is fitting with our school age children being about this age. The cost is $5,557.50. It will stand 48 inches high and will be made out of fiberglass. Wood would cost double the price. If you are interested in donating toward this please let myself or Melissa know. Thank you and let me know if you have any questions. The statue will go in the niche by the other statues in the church next to St Anthony.

Baptism preparation is Monday, April 5 at 6:00 PM. Please call the Parish Office to register for the class.

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration may our Adoration never cease

What should I DO during my Adoration time?

In the future weeks the Adoration Ministry will be passing on information to answer this question in hopes it will benefit all our adorers and those who are discerning to become one...

Make an Act of Faith

Acknowledge God, truly present in the Eucharist. "The mode of Christ's presence under the Eucharistic species is unique. It raises the Eucharist above all the sacraments as "the perfection of the spiritual life and the end to which all the sacraments tend." In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist "the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really and substantially contained." This presence is called 'real' - by which is not intended to exclude the other types of presence as if they could not be 'real' too, but because it is the in the fullest sense: that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present." (CCC 1374)

With Adoration in the Church Sanctuary all are welcome whether you signed up for an hour or not. Please contact Colleen or Eva to become a prayer partner at a time of need or a time that fits your schedule. Your effort will bless Saint Andrew.

Jesus awaits you

Living the Fruit of the Spirit

We have a special event coming to Saint Andrew! Joshua Danis, the National Director for Alpha Catholic Context will be sharing with us on "Living the Fruit of the Spirit." While weaving together entertaining and humorous stories, he will share with us about how growing in the fruit of the spirit both enables us to lead richer, more rewarding lives and prepares us to share our faith more effectively with others. Join us in person or on the live-stream, Sunday, March 21, (6:00 – 7:00 PM).

Psalm Response

Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

Nicene Creed

Stand

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,

Bow

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

From U.S. campuses to China, Human Life Alliance has devoted 30 years to removing the mask long worn by the abortion industry.

Joe Langfeld, executive director of Human Life Alliance believes many young women are indecisive when it comes to having an abortion, that they're being pressured and coerced into abortions. "They're going there with great conflict, what mother's instinct is to kill her baby? It's not natural and they're looking for somebody to tell them the truth."

HLA is a MN-based international nonprofit that prints and distributes pro-life materials for educational and outreach purposes. HLA began with the purchase of ad space in MN newspapers in which they proclaimed, "She's a Child, Not a Choice." HLA's first publication was titled with the same slogan. It refuted common pro-abortion arguments and called for America to respect all humans, born and unborn. Soon the article was being distributed at American colleges as part of campus newspapers, despite the liberal leanings of many editors.

Currently, campus ministry is one of four main areas of outreach for HLA. This area focuses on high school and college campuses, incorporating student volunteers. One group in Sacramento, CA, "Project Truth," recruits students to help spread the message of Jesus through a pro-life outreach on other school campuses. HLA materials are used to train teenagers to have conversations about the sanctity of life. Once a week, trained teams travel to campuses and engage with students and professors on the topic of abortion.

The second area of focus is the church. HLA works with congregations around the country to teach young children in a pro-life message. An age-appropriate comic book is used to teach them the importance of life and how a baby develops in the womb.

The third outreach is partnership with pro-life groups such as pregnancy centers and sidewalk ministries. Because these organizations are on the front lines of this battle, speaking every day with women who are sometimes just steps away from choosing abortion, they must be equipped with the powerful truth these women need to hear. To accomplish this, they distribute many different HLA publications to people in clinics and on streets outside abortion centers. "We supply them with something really great that they can use in their community, or to train their volunteers," said Langfeld.

The final area of ministry for HLA emphasizes global outreach, protecting the inherent value of life around the world. HLA volunteers traveled to the Dominican Republic equipped with Spanish language publications. They taught the gospel in classes along with a defense of life in the womb. A member of the Dominican Republic parliament approached the group and asked that they come to parliament and deliver their message to government officials. Dominican leaders praised the HLA team for their work and asked how the government could have a similar positive impact on its citizens. An HLA volunteer slid a pro-life pamphlet across the table and said, "You could read this and change the constitution." Within 2 days, the government had amended the constitution, making life "inviolable from conception to natural death." Abortion is now completely illegal in the Dominican Republic.

HLA resources are impacting communist-controlled China in a big way. Much like elsewhere in the world, students learn English from a young age. Certain teachers in China use HLA pro-life pamphlets as translation materials to teach new English speakers.

Stewardship Thought

"You shall not covet" is perhaps a difficult commandment to keep in our consumer society. But as Christian stewards, we know that we are the recipients and caretakers of God's many gifts. May this understanding that all is gift help us be less resentful of the gifts of others.

Saint Andrew Catholic School is looking for responsible, fun, creative people to work in our after school care program. Applicant for this position must be over age 16. We encourage anyone looking for a part-time job to apply. Anticipated hours are between 2:30-6:00 PM, Monday thru Friday, some additional hours possible on non-school days and during the summer.

Responsibilities include: Supervision of students during indoor and outdoor activities, games, reading, arts and crafts, and helping with homework. They will also have daily contact with parents and staff and be comfortable taking control of behavior and discipline issues.

If you have been to a store lately, you saw the explosion of chicks and chocolates. The secular parts of Easter are impossible to miss.

At our school, we are still immersed in Lent, not yet hurrying towards Easter. Classrooms are taking time to read and practice the Stations of the Cross and ensure the students have time to really ponder these. Kindergarten students also watched a version on Formed to help them really see each station and the sacrifice of Jesus for us. It was lovely to hear them praying along when the Our Father was a portion of that version.

Some of you have joined us, in person or virtually, for the Step Up Close to Jesus version of Stations of the Cross that we do each Friday morning during Lent. Our students can really connect the descriptions of what is happening at each station. They are invited to “step up close to Jesus” and notice what is happening and what God is showing us all. They then all kneel to pray in a way that connects that station with the life of a child -- praying for patience with siblings, persistence with chores, and other things that they may be going through.

At Saint Andrew Catholic School we purposefully carve out time for Stations of the Cross and other activities that will build the habits that will lead to the witness of a lived faith. We hope the seeds planted here will flourish as the students become adults themselves. As a child, I remember attending Stations of the Cross each Friday in Lent, and now it is hard to imagine Lent without it.

Perhaps you will join us for these beautiful opportunities to “step up close to Jesus.” The schedule is in the Gathering Area.

I will leave you with one of the prayers from our Step Up Close to Jesus booklets, from Station 12.

“Dear Jesus... no matter where I am, how long I live or what happens to me, let me always be thankful that You died for me.”
