DIVINE MERCY

Fr. Mark Innocenti

THE FEAST OF MERCY (Divine Mercy Sunday)

(From <https://divinemercysunday.com/>)

The "First Sunday after Easter" - which is designated in "The Liturgy of the Hours and the Celebration of the Eucharist" as the "Octave Day of Easter" - was officially called the Second Sunday of Easter after the liturgical reform of Vatican II. Now, by the Decree of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, the name of this liturgical day has been changed to: "Second Sunday of Easter, or of Divine Mercy."...

Pope John Paul II made the surprise announcement of this change in his homily at the canonization of Sr. Faustina on April 30, 2000. There, he declared: "It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church, will be called 'Divine Mercy Sunday.' "...

By the words "the whole message," the Holy Father was referring to the strict connection between the "Easter Mystery of the Redemption" - the suffering, death, burial, resurrection, and ascension of Christ, followed by the sending of the Holy Spirit - and this Feast of Divine Mercy, the Octave Day of Easter.

In this regard, the Holy Father also said, citing the Responsorial Psalm of the Liturgy, "The Church sings ... , as if receiving from Christ's lips these words of the Psalm" [that is, Give thanks to the Lord for He is good; His steadfast love (=mercy) endures forever, Ps 118:1]. And then, the Holy Father developed the connection further: "[This comes] from the lips of the risen Christ, who bears the great message of Divine Mercy and entrusts its ministry to the Apostles in the Upper Room: 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you. ... Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained' " (Jn 20:21-23)...

...St. Augustine called the eight days of Easter (which the Church liturgically considers as constituting a single day - the day of the new creation) "days of mercy and pardon." He calls the Sunday of this Paschal Octave (which our Lord insisted with St. Faustina is the Feast of Mercy [Diary, 88]) "the summary of the days of mercy" (Sermon 156, Dom. In Albis). It is no wonder, then, that already during his pilgrimage to Blessed Faustina's tomb on June 7, 1997, Pope John Paul II declared: "I give thanks to Divine Providence that I have been enabled to contribute personally to the fulfillment of Christ's will through the institution of the Feast of Divine Mercy."

SACRED RELICS OF THE SAINTS

Treasures of the Church

Sacred Relics Of The Saints: Treasures Of The Church

The Church of Saint Andrew presents a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Sunday, May 9, 3:00 PM. Fr. Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with an extraordinary Vatican collection of over 150 relics, some as old as 2,000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. Throughout history, many healings have been worked in the presence of relics; and many have been come about through this ministry. Do not miss this opportunity. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession.

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration may our Adoration never cease

Adoration What should I DO during my Adoration time?

Intercession

Ask for the intercession of the Saints. If you have a favorite friend “up there” it is time to recall his/her friendship and ask his/her intercession in your prayer. To intercede means to stay in between. He/she is in between you and God so that he/she can help your prayer to be brought before the throne of our Lord. “Let us remember one another in concord and unanimity. Let us on both sides {of death} always pray for one another. Let us relieve burdens and afflictions by mutual love, that if one of us, by the swiftness of divine condescension, shall go hence first, our love may continue in the presence of our Father’s mercy” (Cyprian of Carthage).

You are welcome to visit with Jesus in adoration. Please contact Colleen or Eva to become a prayer partner at a scheduled time the ministry needs or a time that fits your schedule.

Mental Health Services Available

The COVID-19 pandemic affects our lives in a multitude of ways, even when we think we are coping well: heightened anxiety, losses, extra stress, uncertainty [We are all adjusting to social distancing, or what psychologists prefer to call physical distancing, since connections with others is all the more important now.] Since the Stay-at-Home order in Minnesota, mental health services may now be delivered in a new way. Catholic Charities is set up for a new delivery of mental health services through Zoom technology. All you need is either a smartphone or camera on your computer. Sister Mary Fran Reichenberger, OSF, MSW, LICSW is available to do mental health therapy in this way without taking you out of your home. She also is meeting with clients at Saint Andrew Parish on Mondays (mental health services are considered "essential services"), observing physical distancing and taking other necessary precautions. You may call to schedule for either mode at 320-650-1660.

*"Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."
Matthew 25:40*

Saint Andrew school and families strive to instill giving hearts in our students. Our families are amazing, giving items to help our gala, volunteering to help at our school, leading and participating on teams such as our School Advisory Board and Gala team, and doing whatever they can to help.

The children, through this wonderful example, also look for ways to help others. They bring in food each month at our birthday mass for the food shelf. They brought in money for the Operation Rice Bowl collection. Earlier this year the first graders also worked to collect socks for veterans.

It is beautiful to see the students lovingly drop their dimes in the collection box or smile as they put a can of beans in the CAER cart. Through all the efforts of families and staff, we are growing in ways we show our love for our neighbors throughout the world!

The Quilters Closet

The Saint Andrew Quilts and Crafts group is having quilting sessions again on Mondays in Room 3 at the church. If anyone wants to purchase some items (Easter, Baby things, Kitchen items, quilts, etc.) please call Mary Zachman at 612-868-9290 to arrange for pickup on Monday afternoons between 1:00-4:00 PM in Room 3. We are hoping to have a craft sale outside on the church grounds in the spring after weekend Masses as the weather warms up. Watch for further notices. Stay healthy and God Bless.

ONE MORE SOUL PURPOSE

One More Soul (OMS) is a Catholic lay apostolate founded and based on a common love for children and almighty God. Recognizing that contraception is the root cause of abortion and many other evils, the mission of OMS is to help others understand not just the evil of contraception, but, more importantly, the infinite blessing of caring for a child.

ONE MORE SOUL STATEMENT OF BELIEFS

- Marriage is a covenant by which a man and a woman establish an indissoluble intimate community of life and love. (Can 1055:1, CCC 1603)
- The marital covenant is ordered by its nature to the good of the spouses and procreation and education of the children. (Can 1055:1)
- Children are the supreme gift of marriage and contribute greatly to the good of the parents themselves. (CCC 1652)
- The role of marriage and the family in building a culture of life and love is decisive and irreplaceable. (EV 92)
- Human life in all stages, from conception to natural death is sacred (EV 101, CCC 2270)
- Abortion will continue as long as contraception is widely accepted. (EV 13)
- The renewal of a culture of life begins with the renewal of marriage and Christian communities. (EV 95)
- Natural Family Planning (NFP) is a morally licit means of spacing births and supports God's plan for life, love and marriage. (HV:16, CCC 2370)

CCC: Catechism of the Catholic Church, Can: Canon Law, EV: Evangelium Vitae, HV: Humane Vitae

The core mission of OMS remains the same: to help our dear country (and anybody else we can help) reverse the devastation of personal relationships and family life that has come about due to the sexual revolution (which is really the contraceptive revolution). "Free" sex, which turns out later to be very, very costly, has resulted in millions of "relationships" that can't stand up to the introduction of a child. Broken dreams, broken families, and broken hearts fill our country. The good news is that there is a better way. People can learn from the mistakes they or others have made, especially if they are told the truth. That is what OMS is for!
