The Most Holy BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." - Mk 14:24

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Fr. Mark Innocenti

Pope Francis: The Eucharist gives us Christ's healing love

https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/44853/pope-francis-the-eucharist-gives-us-christs-healing-love

Christ's presence in the Eucharist heals wounds and transforms bitter negativity into the joy of Lord, Pope Francis said in his homily for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi Sunday.

"The Eucharist brings us the Father's faithful love, which heals our sense of being orphans. It gives us Jesus' love, which transformed a tomb from an end to a beginning, and in the same way can transform our lives. It fills our hearts with the consoling love of the Holy Spirit, who never leaves us alone and always heals our wounds," Pope Francis said June 14.

"Every time we receive him, he reminds us that we are precious, that we are guests he has invited to his banquet, friends with whom he wants to dine. And not only because he is generous, but because he is truly in love with us. He sees and loves the beauty and goodness that we are," he said in St. Peter's Basilica.

Pope Francis offered Mass for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, a feast established in the 13th century following a Eucharistic miracle that led a host to bleed at the words of consecration.

"The Eucharist is not simply an act of remembrance; it is a fact: the Lord's Passover is made present once again for us. In Mass the death and resurrection of Jesus are set before us," Pope Francis said in his homily for the feast.

The feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ provides an opportunity for the Church to focus on Christ's real presence in the Eucharist, which Pope Francis said satisfies the deepest desires of our hearts.

God has granted to the other saints only the grace to help in this or that particular need, but I know from experience that the glorious St. Joseph extends his power to all our necessities. This is our Lord's way of giving us to understand that, as he was subject to him during his mortal life on earth by recognizing his authority as foster father, he is now pleased to do his will in heaven by hearing and granting all his requests.

-St. Teresa of Avila

Stewardship Thought

The bishops' stewardship pastoral asks, "And what do Christians bring to the Eucharistic celebration and join there with Jesus" offering?" The answer: "Their Lives as Christian disciples; their personal vocations and the stewardship they have exercised regarding them; their individual contributions to the great work of restoring all things in Christ"

This week we had a marvelous end to a spectacular year. We were so grateful to have graduation for preK, kindergarten and grade 5 in person. I am so grateful to everyone who made this year go as smoothly as it did. There were bumps in the road, but nothing compared to last spring.

- Thank you to all the families that screened their children and that juggled schedules when children had to stay home for a few days.
- Thank you to all the teachers who worked tirelessly to creatively meet the needs of "roomers" and "zoomers!"
- Thank you to all of you who prayed for our school, our staff, our families and our students, covering us with God's grace!
- Thanks to all who supported our fundraisers-- the Marathon, the Catholic United Financial Raffle Ticket sales and our virtual gala!
- Thank you to all who donated to our causes such as socks for veterans and food for the food shelf!
- Thank you to all the Parish Office staff that rolled up their sleeves and pitched in to help our school navigate this year's list of changes.
- Thanks to all who saw all the great things that happened at our school—even during a pandemic—and spread the word to others about our wonderful school.

In the Bible, it says:

Be joyful always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.
~1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

I offer prayers of thanks to God for each of you. May God richly bless you for blessing our school!

Abortion is Not Healthcare

From https://www.usccb.org/resources/abortion-not-healthcare
ABORTION IS NOT HEALTH CARE In recent years pro-abortion groups have radically altered their messaging strategy, abandoning the slogan of "choice" to claim instead that abortion is simply essential health care for women. References to abortion or abortion "services" have been replaced in pro-abortion literature by the euphemism "abortion care." By claiming an objective basis in medicine, abortion supporters seek to marginalize health care providers and others who disagree with them, dismissing these Americans as not living up to "the standard of care." But this claim is contrary to the facts. Abortion is a marginal practice, neither performed nor accepted by most health care providers; it does not improve (and can even jeopardize) women's life and health; and American law has recognized for decades that it is not "just another medical procedure." Far from being integral to our health care system, abortion is something that supporters seek to impose on that system by force of law.

Abortion is a Marginal Practice in the Health Care System - In 2011, a randomized survey of practicing ob/gyns in the U.S. showed that only 14% provide abortions.1 A later study in 2019 suggested that this may have increased to 24%, but that study did not survey the full range of practicing ob/gyns. 2 A 2018 study found that only 7% of ob/gyns in private practice had performed even one abortion in 2013 or 2014.3 None of these studies support the claim that abortion is integral to women's reproductive health care since the vast majority of ob/gyns do not provide it. - The Guttmacher Institute (former research affiliate of Planned Parenthood) reported in 2019 that 95% of abortions are done in outpatient clinics, with 60% provided by "specialized" clinics (where most patient visits are for abortion); only 3% are performed in hospitals, and a little more than 1% in physicians' offices. 74% of abortions are done by facilities that do a thousand abortions or more a year; 16% are done by facilities that do 5,000 or more a year.4 89% 1 D. Stulberg et al., "Abortion Provision Among Practicing Obstetrician-Gynecologists," Obstetrics & Gynecology 118.3 (September 2011) 609-14. 2 The 2019 study surveyed only fellows or junior fellows of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists who belong to the Collaborative Ambulatory Research Network; the 2011 study surveyed a randomized sample of all practicing ob/gyns in the U.S.. Prayer for Vocations

We praise You for Your goodness and love. You teach us that each vocation is born in prayer, and only through prayer does it persevere and bear fruit. We ask You to stir the hearts of all those You call to the priesthood and consecrated life in the Diocese of Saint Cloud. Make them generous. Make them courageous. Make them joyful in giving everything to Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

REFLECT

FIRST READING

Moses and the ancient Israelites ratified the covenant God established with them at Mount Sinai with the blood of a sacrificed animal. The sacrificed animal affirmed Israel's commitment: "We will do everything the Lord has told us." Why do you think Israel tied sacrificed blood to their verbal commitment?

SECOND READING

The author of Hebrews teaches us that the sacrificed blood of Christ sanctifies us and offers us eternal redemption. How do you see this connected to ancient Israel's practice of sacrificing animals for their blood?

GOSPEL READING

Mark's account of the institution of the Eucharist is linked to the Jewish Feast of Unleavened Bread when a Passover lamb was sacrificed. What do you think Mark is teaching us in making this connection?
