Palm Sunday

We enter into Passion Week. Today we celebrate Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem. We too wave palms and honor the King. But then we turn to His passion, in which we also celebrate in a way of wonderment, acknowledging what Jesus has done for us and how, at the hands of humanity, He was crucified. We thank Him for his gift of taking on sin for us so we can be freed to eternal life. I hope you will be able to join in the Easter Triduum later this week, to spend time celebrating the central feast of the Church year.

Eucharistic Adoration

As we are getting into the final days of Lent, please feel free to stop in and visit our Lord. He wants to hear how your preparation is going—what you've learned, how you were challenged, what you've done well, what you can work on in the last few days. He just wants you.

*The Chapel will be closed at 12:00 PM on Thursday, April 14 and will reopen on Tuesday, April 19, at 8:00 AM.

"While they were eating, Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and giving it to his disciples said, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you, for this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins." —Matthew 26:26-28

Stewardship Thought

In the Gospel story of the first Palm Sunday we hear that the owners of the ass had only to be told, "The Master has need of it," to give the animal gladly. Do I give as readily to the Lord's work?

Prayer for Vocations

We praise You for Your goodness and love. You teach us that each vocation is born in prayer, and only through prayer does it persevere and bear fruit. We ask You to stir the hearts of all those You call to the priesthood and consecrated life in the Diocese of Saint Cloud. Make them generous. Make them courageous. Make them joyful in giving everything to Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Do you ever have a song stuck in your head? Some people call that having an ear worm. Sometimes this can be terribly annoying—perhaps it is a jingle from a commercial, or a song you dislike that was playing as you shopped for groceries, lodging in your brain.

Our amazing music teacher, Sue Bayerl, has been busy putting ear worms around the school. However, these are fantastic ones. Since my office is across from the music room I find myself with a wide variety of ear worms to select from. My current favorite is "Fill Me Oh God." I love imagining His love filling me like an empty glass. If you were at Mass last weekend you might have heard our students singing this one.

Another great song that is floating through our halls now is "Change Our Hearts." What great words to hear echoing in our minds and to ponder in this Lenten season!

Change our hearts this time
Your word says it can be
Change our minds this time
Your life could make us free
We are the people your call set apart
Lord, this time change our hearts

As I type this, the chorus of "Somebody's Knocking At Your Door" is floating in, sung by our first graders. I snapped some photos of them singing their hearts out. This sinner plans to answer that door!

We are blessed to have a Catholic school, where the students can sing these lovely faith-filled songs each week and can ponder the lyrics all Lenten season. Thank you for supporting our school!

ATTENTION – Saint Andrew Catholic School Alumni

Haven't gotten together with your classmates in a while? What better opportunity to reminisce on the old times and to learn what is currently happening at Saint Andrew Catholic School when you attend the 2022 Gala on Friday, April 29, 2022. You are invited to be part of this fun event with a SPECIAL OFFER. Reserve an Alumni and Friends Table (total of 12) for $840. The evening includes a delicious dinner, dancing and to occasion to help raise money for this year's Fund-a-Need. So spread the word to your classmates, reserve your table (details above), mark your calendars and let's get together to make this a great event.

Saint Andrew CCW Happenings

Thank you for supporting our drive to benefit CAER this month. We are very grateful!

Our next meeting is Monday, April 11 in Meeting Room 3. We start with the Rosary at 6:30 PM, followed by a short meeting. This month we'll be doing something different. How would you like to learn the art of suminigashi? It's a Japanese art technique that uses 'floating ink' to print unique designs on paper that you can then use as personalized stationery, book covers, bookmarks and whatever your imagination can come up with. No experience needed and we'll provide all the supplies. Just come and have some fun!
