Divine Mercy Sunday

Today we celebrate the infinite mercy of God. This is the octave of Easter and with it the Church understands this day as one with the Easter celebration. It has become the Feast of Divine Mercy following John Paul II initiating it upon the canonization of Sister Faustina. We have displayed in the church the picture associated with Divine Mercy and this devotion it is a reminder to us to trust in His infinite mercy every day of our lives.

In Christ,
Fr. Mark

Thank you to Troop 99 for helping clean up the cemetery.

Eucharistic Adoration

All of our Adoration hours are filled—what a blessing for our parish! Now we have a need for Prayer Partners. Many people have asked, "What is a prayer partner?" While all of our hours are filled with at least one Adorer, many hours are in need of having a second Adorer, or a "Prayer Partner". This ensures that there is someone who is always available for that hour but can allow for one to be gone if necessary. Right now, we are filling in the hours where there is only one person, but if they need to be absent, with a substitute. Again, many thanks to those on the Sub List—we couldn't manage without you! If you are being called to Adore—please call us. We can direct you to an hour that will work for you.

"Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration with exposition needs a great push. People ask me: 'What will convert America and save the world?' My answer is prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in holy hours of prayer."

— St. Teresa of Calcutta

The line for communion may be a bit longer this weekend. Many of our second graders made their First Communion Saturday morning! Congratulations to Layla, Nick, Hazel, Mara, John, and Gus! May you always receive communion with joy and remember your First Communion with a smile.

Sue Leither, our second grade teacher, has religion class with her students several times a week, preparing for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Communion, and teaching all the concepts the Diocese of St. Cloud designates for second graders. They memorized many of the Mass responses and they get to use them each Wednesday, as well as on the weekends. They learned the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary. They also memorized the Act of Contrition and the Two Great Commandments. They have spent time talking about how the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus. They are well prepared to understand the fantastic meaning of this wonderful experience. Congratulations to them all!

Also, we have started the search for a school secretary since our beloved Sherri Stefano is retiring. Please see our website for more information and please spread the word to help us find the right person for this important position. Thank you!
