As an adult, my Catholic faith was reawakened by reading and studying the scriptures. Shortly after that, I came upon the writings of the Early Church Fathers. They are interesting because you see what the early Church taught and believed from the earliest times. When I read and studied the Early Church Fathers, I saw time and time again that the early Church was Catholic.

Here in the last year, a Pew Poll showed that only 30% of Catholics understood and believed Christ Real Presence in the Eucharist. I was disappointed, because every Catholic should know and cherish this article of our faith. A few months ago, I wrote about the teachings of Christ Real Presence in the scriptures.

Today I want to touch on the Early Church Fathers who clearly taught that the Eucharist is the Body and Blood of Christ. I could write a book on this, but I just want to touch on a few of them because of space, but I ask you to look them up also.

St. Ignatius of Antioch was the 3rd Bishop of Antioch. He heard the apostle, John. He was taken from Antioch to Rome where he was martyred in the Colosseum by lions around 110 AD. While on the trip he wrote seven letters. He wrote, "I have no taste for corruptible food nor the pleasure of this life. I desire the Bread of God which is the Flesh of Jesus Christ, who was the seed of David and for drink I desire His Blood, which is love incorruptible." In another place he called the Eucharist, "the medicine of immortality, the antidote against death, enabling us to live forever in Jesus Christ." In another of his letters, he wrote against those who did not believe, he wrote "They abstain from the Eucharist and from prayer, because they do not confess that the Eucharist is the flesh of our Savior Jesus Christ."

St. Justin Martyr actually wrote letters to the Roman Caesar explaining the faith. He wrote "For not as common bread nor common drink do, we receive these, but since Jesus Christ Our Savior was made incarnate by the Word of God and had both flesh and blood for our salvation, so too, as we have been taught, the food which has been made into the Eucharist by the Eucharistic Prayer set down by Him and by the change of which our blood and flesh is nourished is both the flesh and blood of that incarnate Jesus." St. Justin Martyr was martyred in Rome in the year 165. He also described the Mass which is clearly the same outline of the Mass we use today.

St. Irenaeus, bishop of Lyons, was a pupil of St. Polycarp. Polycarp had been taught by St. John the apostle. St. Irenaeus, in 195 AD wrote, "He (Jesus) has declared the cup, a part of creation, to be His own Blood, from which He causes our blood to flow: and the bread a part of creation, He has established as His own Body, from which He gives increase to our bodies."

The early Church Fathers clearly believed that Christ was truly present in the Eucharist. What you can't find in the early Church or for nearly 1500 years of Church history is anyone saying the Eucharist is just a symbol of Christ body and blood. The Church has taught for nearly 2000 years Christ is truly present in the Eucharist. The early Church in many cases died for truth of the gospel. Never take the Eucharist for granted. Jesus in the Eucharist is giving each of us Himself. He said it, we believe it. Sometimes people will ask us if we have accepted Jesus as our Lord and Savior. We should say Yes, we have and not only accept Him but have received Him Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Eucharist.

God Bless You and Know that You are Loved,
Dcn Daniel Vehige

January 23, 2022 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God’s transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the “gods” of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God’s constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us. As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God’s Word, God’s life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one’s soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn’t forget. He always comes for us. Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God’s Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God’s fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

JANUARY 22-23, 2022

Today's Gospel is a transformational moment for Jesus. After standing up in the synagogue and reading Isaiah's prophecy about the coming of one who will free the captives, heal the blind, and bring glad tidings to the poor, Jesus tells those gathered: "Today the Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Jesus gives his listeners any other interpretation: He is the Messiah. He is the one who fulfills all the Old Testament prophecies.

Do we believe this? Do we believe that Jesus really can bring freedom and healing and spiritual richness, to us and to the world? If so, then how important is His Church? How important is the liturgy, the sacraments, acts of Christian service, learning the Church's teachings, and all the other good things we do at our parish?

Our parish activity is an essential way that Christ continues to fulfill these ancient prophecies, pouring His love out into the world. Help this essential work continue by supporting our Archbishop's Call to Share appeal today.

Parishioners enjoy the Altar Society Soup and Social in the parish hall on January 14th.

St. Thomas Aquinas | January 28 One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great. His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.
