This time of the school calendar, we educators look at what we have accomplished for the year and dream of the goals we want to set for the upcoming year. You are experiencing that with us now as you attended the SHS Feast for the Future, and school and CYF families begin working on Discipleship Renewal, setting goals for their families. You will find opportunities to support our Totus Tuus summer program that serves all the school age children in our parish (a beautiful opportunity for SHS and CYF students to come together.) We couldn't provide for the needs of the students without the joint efforts of parent and parishioner support as catechists and financial donors. Thank you for your tithing and gifts that reach so broadly into the lives of the Sacred Heart youth.

As I aspire to continue to enrich the faith opportunities for our youth, I am adding a collection of Catholic children's books to the CYF program. Our Kindergarten CYF class does not use a textbook, so unlike the other grades, they do not have chapters to read at home before class each week. Beginning this fall, we will let them choose a story book to take home and enjoy with their parents each week. I love how much this genre has grown in recent years and believe these engaging books will be enjoyed by our children while also inspiring parents as they learn more about various Saints, liturgical seasons, and virtuous living alongside their youngsters. In addition, reading aloud has emotional benefits for parents and their children, including relieving stress, increased bonding, and building vocabulary and Catholic culture.

As I gather the books we will use, I will offer the opportunity for parishioners to sponsor a book by covering the cost and being recognized with a sticker inside the book cover. Please tune in over the summer for an opportunity to peruse the book collection and support our efforts. You may even find that once you look through the books, you decide you need to get copies for your own family's book shelves!

Again, I express gratitude on behalf of all the youth in our parish!

Joan Dold, Director of Catholic Youth Formation

Sacred Heart Parish History

The original Sacred Heart Cemetery was platted about a mile east of town on South Avenue near Carter Street. Shortly after, Mike Krueger, who lived next to the newly platted cemetery, bought the land from the church and built a house on it. The present Sacred Heart Cemetery was then platted. According to Anton Kowalski, it is believed the first Catholic death was an individual passing through Emporia. Since no Catholic cemetery was established at that time, burial was in Maplewood Cemetery. The first recorded death in the parish was that of six-year-old Ernest Perrier on March 3, 1880. His stone in the cemetery is a small rounded piece of limestone on the Perrier lot.

The early days of Emporia were a time for "firsts" in the parish as well as the town. One "first" however was quite late. The first baby born in St. Mary's Hospital was not until August 27, 1919, when Donna Marie was born to Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Schmidt, who were passing through on the way to Olpe. Donna Marie, who was baptized here, is now Mrs. Walter Shaw of Wichita, Kansas. In May, 1920, the second birth in St. Mary's occurred with the delivery of a son, Francis, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Specht of the Olpe parish. Between 1884, the year that St. Mary's Hospital was opened and until 1923, the Sisters of St. Francis were not allowed, by their order, to assist in the delivery or care of babies. Consequently, Mrs. Schmidt and Mrs. Specht were required to bring their own help to the hospital and were placed in the "quarantine" room. Mrs. Specht, 96 years old, still lives with her son in Topeka. She is the aunt of Mrs. Carl Didde, Mrs. T.J. Duncan, and Mrs. Edward Fitzmorris of Sacred Heart Parish.

Records of the early years are somewhat sparse. It is known that the first baby baptized in the Sacred Heart Parish was Albert Atyeo, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Atyeo, in the year 1874. The first marriage performed in Emporia was on September 26, 1880, by Father Dominic Meier. The bride and groom are listed as James Ingolls of Norwalk, Ohio, and a Margaret Hogan of New York City, New York. It was a mixed marriage and it is unknown as to whether they were temporary parishioners or just passing through. The first marriage performed in the second church was on December 29, 1884. This union was between Carl Ballweg from Heidelberg, Germany, and Margaret Byrne of Emporia. The Ballwegs remained in Sacred Heart Parish and were active members all of their lives. The second marriage was that of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Wecker. Mr. Wecker and Bertha Brinkman were married on September 23, 1887. Mrs. Tom Armstrong of Sacred Heart Parish and the late Mrs. W.B. Davidson, formerly of this Parish, are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wecker.

In 1883, there were 100 families in Sacred Heart Parish and there were prospects of steady growth. By 1887, there were 120 children in the school. Reverend Lucas Gottbehoede, the Ex Provincial, had replaced Fr. Dominic Meier in 1885. Fr. Lucas was pastor with the following priests as assistants and pastors of the neighboring missions: Reverend Fathers Matthew, Bartholomew, Lawrence, and Boniface. After 1886, Reverend Leonard Nurre came here for a period of five years. He was succeeded by Reverend Bede Oldegeering, pastor until 1893, who was followed by Reverend James Archinger, who remained here until 1901.
